Media/Society David Croteau,William Hoynes,Stefania Milan,2011-05-24 In a society saturated by mass media from newspapers and magazines television and radio to digital video projects and the Internet iPods and TiVo most students possess a great deal of media knowledge and experience before they ever enter the classroom What they often lack however is a broader framework for understanding the relationship between media and society Media Society Industries Images and Audiences provides that context and helps students develop skills for critically evaluating both conventional wisdom and one's own assumptions about the social role of the media Previous editions of Media Society introduced thousands of students to a sociologically informed analysis of the media process The Fourth Edition builds on this success with new material on students as producers e.g. YouTube revised Internet resources the latest data on the media industry new examples from the independent media sector and updated discussions of media policy online media and independent media Media Society is unique among media texts in that it offers e A sociological approach that examines overarching relationships between the various components of the media process the industry its products audiences technology and the broader social world e An integrated study of mass media that looks at media technologies collective influences and connections between mass media issues that are often treated as separate e An examination of how economic and political constraints affect the media and how audiences actively construct their own interpretations of media messages

Classic American Popular Song David Jenness,Donald Velsey,2014-02-04 Classic American Popular Song The Second Half Century 1950-2000 addresses the question What happened to American popular song after 1950 There are numerous books available on the so called Golden Age of popular song but none that follow the development of popular song styles in the second half of the 20th century While 1950 is seen as the end of an era the tap of popular song creation hardly ran dry after that date Many of the classic songwriters continued to work through the following decades Porter was active until 1958 Rodgers until the later 1970s Arlen until 1976 Some of the greatest lyricists of the classic era continued to do outstanding and successful work Johnny Mercer and Dorothy Fields for example continued to produce lyrics through the early 70s These works could be explained as simply the Golden Age's last stand a refusal of major figures to give in to a new reality But then how can we explain the outstanding careers of Frank Loesser Cy Coleman Jerry Herman Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick

Fred Kander and John Ebb Jule Styne Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe and several other major figures Where did Stephen Sondheim come from For anyone interested in the development of American popular song and its survival this book will make fascinating reading Hollywood Economics Arthur S. De Vany, 2004 Movies expected to perform well can flop whilst independent movies with low budgets can be wildly successful In this text De Vany casts his eye over all aspects of the business to present some intriguing conclusions
