Social and Environmental Impacts in the North: Methods in Evaluation of Socio-Economic and Environmental Consequences of Mining and Energy Production in the Arctic and Sub-Arctic Rasmus Ole Rasmussen,Natalia E. Koroleva,2012-12-06 Future development in the Arctic and Subarctic region requires careful attention to the possible consequences of the development activities themselves in relation to their environmental socioeconomic and cultural impacts A more thorough understanding of the impact of future activities however demands the dissemination and confrontation of results from different regions and different scientific traditions This requires scientific cooperation not only across disciplines but across border Primarily it requires both consensus and innovations in regard to methods This book confronts such differences in approaches and methods in relation to the analysis of socioeconomic and environmental consequences of large scale mineral and energy development activities in the Arctic and Subarctic establishing the common ground upon which future research activities can be based

Community, Psychology and Climate Justice Brendon R. Barnes,Maria Fernandes-Jesus,Carlie D. Trott,Garret Barnwell,2025-09-26 This book uniquely focuses on community psychology and climate justice Climate change in general has been an area of increasing interest to psychologists in recent years particularly in its cognitive perceptual and affective aspects Because communities are often on the forefront of resistance to the deleterious effects of climate change psychologists have become aware of the ramifications of large scale resource developments toxic contamination and dispossession to name a few The current conceptualizations and approaches to climate change however are not adequate to today s needs Addressing this gap this volume emphasize the politics of social justice going beyond internal psychological variables it explores the legacy of colonialism highlights the needs of indigenous peoples and takes an expansive interdisciplinary stance including critical theory queer theory feminism

Natural Resource Extraction and Indigenous Livelihoods Emma Gilberthorpe,Gavin Hilson,2016-04-22 This book provides an extended analysis of how resource extraction projects stimulate social cultural and economic change in indigenous communities Through a range of case studies including open cast mining artisanal mining logging deforestation oil extraction and industrial fishing the contributors explore the challenges highlighted in global debates on sustainability Corporate Social Responsibility CSR and climate change The case studies are used to assess whether and how development processes might compete and conflict with the market objectives of multinational corporations and the organizational and moral principles of indigenous communities Emphasizing the perspectives of directly affected parties the authors identify common patterns in the way in which extraction projects are conceptualized implemented and perceived The book provides a deeper understanding of the dynamics of the human environments where resource extraction takes place and its consequent impacts on local livelihoods Its in depth case studies underscore the need for increased social accountability in the planning and development of natural resource extraction projects
