Rutledge, 2013-04-26 Just as Africa and the West have traditionally fit into binaries of Darkness Enlightenment Savage Modern Ugly Beautiful and Ritual Art among others much of Western cultural production rests upon the archetypal binary of Trickster Epic with trickster aesthetics and commensurate cultural forms characterizing Africa Challenging this binary and the exceptionalism that underlies anti hegemonic efforts even today this book begins with the scholarly foundations that mapped out African trickster continuities in the United States and excavated the aesthetics of traditional African epic performances Rutledge locates trickster like capacities within the epic hero archetype the epic trickster paradigm and constructs an Homeric Diaspora which is to say that the modern Homeric performance foundation lies at an absolute time and distance away from the ancient storytelling performance needed to understand the cautionary aesthetic inseparable from epic potential As traditional epic performances demonstrate unchecked epic trickster dynamism anticipates not only brutal imperialism and creative diversity but the greatest threat to everyone an eco apocalypse Relying upon the preeminent scholarship on African American trickster heroes traditional African heroic performances and cultural studies approaches to Greco Roman epics Rutledge traces the epic trickster aesthetic through three seminal African American novels keenly attuned to the American Homeric Diaspora Charles Chesnutt's The Marrow of Tradition Richard Wright's Native Son and Toni Morrison s Beloved Encyclopedia of Women in World Religions Susan de-Gaia, 2018-11-16 This reference offers reliable knowledge about women's diverse faith practices throughout history and prehistory and across cultures Across the span of human history women have participated in world building and life sustaining cultural creativity making enormous contributions to religion and spirituality In the contemporary period women have achieved greater equality with more educational opportunities female role models in public life and opportunities for religious expression than ever before Contemporaneously with this increased visibility women are actively and energetically engaging with religion for themselves and for their communities Drawing on the expertise of a range of scholars this reference chronicles the religious experiences of women across time and cultures The book includes sections on major religions as well as on spirituality African religions prehistoric religions and other broad topics Each section begins with an introduction followed by reference entries on specialized subjects along with excerpts from primary source documents The entries provide numerous suggestions for further reading and the book closes with a detailed bibliography Historical Dictionary of Sierra Leone Magbaily C. Fyle, 2006-03-27 Sierra Leone was founded albeit under British control with the highest hopes of being a refuge for liberated Africans and freed slaves When the country received its independence hopes for the future grew even stronger Alas its expectations came crashing down when the country's situation grew steadily worse after repeated military interventions and a devastating ten year civil war that raged throughout the 1990s Now that the war is over there is once again renewed cause for optimism about the country's future as Sierra Leone becomes an active participant in African and world affairs This new edition is based primarily on recent research on the country but covers the earliest known inhabitants the colonial era and the period of independence including the very confusing turmoil of the recent past The chronology briefly traces its history and the introduction provides an essential overview of all the recent developments in the country Hundreds of cross referenced dictionary entries describe significant leaders events political parties and movements ethnic groups and related political economic and social aspects A bibliography is included to facilitate further research Good Hair Charlotte Mensah, 2020-10-29 A celebration of the unique beauty of Black hair this book is packed with expert advice top maintenance tips Legendary Zadie Smith Charlotte is not only the most influential expert on black hair but an inspiring entrepreneur whose Notting Hill salon is part beauty destination part cultural hub with its cross section of powerful dynamic clients Kenya members of the Bondo society in Sierra Leone by pointing out inherent and apparent tensions of a secret society dedicated to the continuation of long established gender practices at the counter point of concerted international condemnation against the practice Drawing on ethnography the study highlights the complexity of FGC as practiced in Sierra Leone owing to the fact that it is interlaced in multifarious ways to politics cosmology community idioms of inclusion medical metaphors and the sociological vernacular of people that practice it In the Bondo society some women have access to considerable forms of powers which endear them to political actors in Sierra Leone On account of this and in a context of donor aid conditionality tied to efforts at ending FGC a stage is therefore set where the local political elite ambivalently attend to competing interests from FGC adherents and eradication proponents in the high stakes politics of legitimatizing power The book s subtle and nuanced view of power handy to members of the Bondo society however does not lead to a vindication of FGC but is an attempt to go beyond blunt condemnation of the practice in order to explore the cultural and socio political underpinnings that animate the practice The Ashgate Research Companion to Monsters and the Monstrous Asa Simon Mittman, Peter J. Dendle, 2017-02-24 The field of monster studies has grown significantly over the past few years and this companion provides a comprehensive guide to the study of monsters and the monstrous from historical regional and thematic perspectives The collection reflects the truly multi disciplinary nature of monster studies bringing in scholars from literature art history religious studies history classics and cultural and media studies. The companion will offer scholars and graduate students the first comprehensive and authoritative review of this emergent field Playful Performers David Binkley, 2017-07-28 African children develop aesthetic sensibilities at an early age roughly from four to fourteen years By the time they become full fledged adolescents they may have had up to ten years experience with various art forms masking music costuming dancing and performance Aesthetic learning is vital to their maturation. The contributors to this volume argue that the idea that learning the aesthetics of a culture only occurs after maturity is false as is the idea that children wearing masks is only play and is not to be taken seriously Playful Performers is a study of children's masquerades in Africa The contributors describe specific cases of young children's masking in the areas of west central and southern Africa which also happen to be the major areas of adult masquerading The volume reveals the considerable creativity and ingenuity that children exhibit in preparing costumes masks and musical instruments and in playing music dancing singing and acting The book includes over 50 pages of black and white photographs which illustrate and elaborate upon the authors main points The editors describe general categories of children's masquerades In each of the three masking categories children's relationships to their parents and other adults differ from a close relationship to some independence to almost complete independence No other major work has covered this aspect of African children at this age level The book offers a challenging perspective on young children seeing them as active agents in their own culture rather than passive recipients of culture as taught by parents and other elders It will be interesting reading for anthropologists art historians educators and African
