that separated writers from their audiences Participatory professionalism however drew on a social scientific conception of poverty that proved to be the paradigm undoing the culture of poverty thesis popularized by Oscar Lewis Michael Harrington and Daniel Moynihan For writers and policy experts associated with the War on Poverty this thesis described the cultural gap that they hoped to close Instead it eventually led to the dismantling of the welfare state Ranging from the 1950s to the present the book explores how writers like Jack Kerouac Amiri Baraka Gwendolyn Brooks Oscar Zeta Acosta Alice Walker Philip Roth and others exposed the War on Poverty's contradictions during its heyday and kept its legacy alive in the decades that followed Nelson Algren Richard F. Bales, 2024-11-07 This book addresses critical gaps in existing biographies of Nelson Algren providing new perspectives on his writing style literary contributions professional colleagues and personal life especially his relationship with Simone de Beauvoir Although Beauvoir maintained a simultaneous relationship with philosopher Jean Paul Sartre the correspondence exchanged between Beauvoir Algren and Sartre as this book discusses sheds new light on her transatlantic love affair with Algren Moreover this work challenges the assertion that Algren's writing aligns seamlessly with the New Journalism style popularized by Tom Wolfe It investigates how Algren's literary legacy might have diverged had he embraced more of the principles associated with New Journalism On the Corner Daniel Matlin, 2013-11-01 In July 1964 after a decade of intense media focus on civil rights protest in the Jim Crow South a riot in Harlem abruptly shifted attention to the urban crisis embroiling America's northern cities On the Corner revisits the volatile moment when African American intellectuals were thrust into the spotlight as indigenous interpreters of black urban life to white America and when black urban communities became the chief objects of black intellectuals perceived social obligations Daniel Matlin explores how the psychologist Kenneth B Clark the literary author and activist Amiri Baraka and the visual artist Romare Bearden each wrestled with the opportunities and dilemmas of their heightened public stature Amid an often fractious interdisciplinary debate black intellectuals furnished sharply contrasting representations of black urban life and vied to establish their authority as indigenous interpreters In time however Clark Baraka and Bearden each concluded that acting as interpreters for white America placed dangerous constraints on black intellectual practice On the Corner reveals how the condition of entry into the public sphere for African American intellectuals in the post civil rights era has been confinement to what Clark called the topic that is reserved for blacks

Leonard Bernstein and Washington, DC Daniel Abraham, Alicia Kopfstein-Penk, Andrew H. Weaver, 2020 Composer conductor activist and icon of twentieth century America Leonard Bernstein 1918-90 had a rich association with Washington DC Although he never lived there the U S capital was the site of some of the most important moments in his life and work as he engaged with the nation s struggles and triumphs By examining Bernstein through the lens of DC this book offers new insights into his life and music from the 1940s through the 1980s including his role in building DC s artistic landscape his political diplomatic aims his works that received premieres and other early performances in DC and his relationships with the nation's liberal and conservative political elites. The collection also contributes new perspectives on twentieth century American history, government, and culture, helping to elucidate the political function of music in American democracy. The essays in Leonard Bernstein and Washington DC, all newly written by leading authorities, situate this important American cultural figure in the seat of United States government. The result is a fresh new angle on Leonard Bernstein, American politics, and American culture in the second half of the twentieth century. Daniel Abraham is Professor of Music at American University; Alicia Kopfstein Penk is Adjunct Professorial Lecturer at American University; and Andrew H. Weaver is Professor of Musicology at The Catholic University of America.

The Encyclopedia of New York City Kenneth T. Jackson, Lisa Keller, Nancy Flood, 2010-12-01. Covering an exhaustive range of information about the five boroughs, the first edition of The Encyclopedia of New York City was a success by every measure, earning worldwide acclaim and several awards for reference excellence and selling out its first printing before it was officially published. But much has changed since the volume first appeared in 1995: the World Trade Center no longer dominates the skyline; a billionaire businessman has become an unlikely three-term mayor; and urban regeneration in Chelsea, Piers, the High Line, DUMBO, Williamsburg, the South Bronx, the Lower East Side, has become commonplace. To reflect such innovation and change, this definitive one-volume resource on the city has been completely revised and expanded. The revised edition includes 800 new entries that help complete the story of New York from Air Train to E-ZPass, from September 11 to public order. The new material includes broader coverage of subject areas previously underserved, as well as new maps and illustrations. Virtually all existing entries, spanning architecture, politics, business, sports, the arts, and more, have been updated to reflect the impact of the past two decades. The more than 5,000 alphabetical entries and 700 illustrations of the second edition of The Encyclopedia of New York City convey the richness and diversity of its subject in great breadth and detail, and will continue to serve as an indispensable tool for everyone who has even a passing interest in the American metropolis.

Postmodernism and Popular Culture Angela McRobbie, Angela McRobbie, 2003-09-02. Postmodernism and Popular Culture brings together eleven recent essays by Angela McRobbie in a collection which deals with the issues which have dominated cultural studies over the last ten years. A key theme is the notion of postmodernity as a space for social change and political potential. McRobbie explores everyday life as a site of immense social and psychic complexity to which she argues that cultural studies scholars must return through ethnic and empirical work, the sound of living voices, and spoken language. She also argues for feminists working in the field to continue to question the place and meaning of feminist theory in a postmodern society. In addition, she examines the new youth cultures as images of social change and signs of profound social transformation. Bringing together complex ideas about cultural studies today in a lively and accessible format, Angela McRobbie's new collection will be of immense value to all teachers and students of the subject.

Liberated Territory Yohuru Williams, Jama Lazerow, 2009-01-12. Essays on the Panther Party's local chapters, as well as essays reconsidering the state of the field in 1960s Civil Rights, black nationalist, and popular history in light of these varied accounts of BPP chapters
