Radical Monotheism And Western Culture:

Radical Monotheism and Western Culture Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1993-01-01 This reissue of a classic work of H. Richard Niebuhr, one of the most influential and creative theological ethicists of the twentieth century, highlights his mature thinking. By using path-breaking interpretations of faith as a basic dimension of human life and culture as an arena of faith in conflict, Niebuhr encourages further thought. This volume should be required reading for anyone interested in recent perspectives on theology and ethics. The Library of Theological Ethics series focuses on what it means to think theologically and ethically. It presents a selection of important and otherwise unavailable texts in easily accessible form. Volumes in this series will enable sustained dialogue with predecessors through reflection on classic works in the field. Radical Monotheism and Western Culture Richard H. Niebuhr, 1993 Radical Monotheism and Western Culture Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1976 H. Richard Niebuhr : Radical monotheism and Western culture H. R. Niebuhr, 1970 Theology of Culture in a Japanese Context Atsuyoshi Fujiwara, 2012-07-01 In dialogue with H. Richard Niebuhr, John Howard Yoder, and Stanley Hauerwas, this work examines Japanese culture suffering and three theologians: Kazoh Kitamori, Yasuo Furuya, and Hideo Ohki. Interpretations of Conflict Richard B. Miller, 1991-11-15 Miller brings together the opposed traditions of pacifism and just war theory and puts them into a much-needed dialogue on the ethics of war. Publisher The Constructive Promise of Schleiermacher's Theology Shelli M. Poe, 2021-04-08 This volume demonstrates how Friedrich Schleiermacher's thought can be used to address contemporary doctrinal refinement and development. Taking a constructive approach, Shelli M. Poe weaves Schleiermacher's theology together with current scholarship in feminism, womanism, ecotheology, and queer theology. While Schleiermacher is widely acclaimed as the progenitor of modern theology, Poe is one of the first to use his work as a springboard to refine contemporary doctrine. This book demonstrates the promise of Schleiermacher's mature work for contemporary constructive forms of theology. The Oxford Handbook of Reinhold Niebuhr Robin Lovin, Joshua Mauldin, 2021 This authoritative Handbook features 38 chapters placing Reinhold Niebuhr, 1892-1971, in his historical context to offer readers an appreciation of his insights and how he was received by his contemporaries. Radical Monotheism and Western Civilization Helmut Richard Niebuhr, 1960 The Theological Imagination Gordon D. Kaufman, 1981-01-01 In this challenging work, Gordon Kaufman asserts that the prime task of theology is the imaginative construction of the doctrine of God. Kaufman maintains that both the absoluteness of the divinity and our own necessity demand that we construct the doctrine of God critically and in a manner appropriate to our own time and place. In thorough examinations of God and theology, Christ and christology, and of the ultimate foundations of religious thought, he shows how this construction can be accomplished faithfully and in full realization of our own humanity. In Quest of a Vital Protestant Center George Demetrios, 2014-10-06 In Quest of a Vital Protestant Center probes the relationship between Scripture and culture in twentieth-century US theology and biblical studies. It points to the necessity of turning to what Karl Barth has referred to as the strange new world within the Bible for any revitalization of mainline Protestantism in the tradition of the Protestant Reformers in critical dialogue with serious evangelical theology The study includes a historical overview underlying what Demetrios refers to as the fundamentalist modernist great divide which continues to resonate powerfully in contemporary US Protestant thought and culture Demetrios offers an in depth exploration of four representative twentieth century Protestant theologians and biblical scholars spanning from the conservative evangelical theology of J I Packer to the postliberal dialectical theology of Walter Brueggemann The book includes a chapter on the neo orthodox legacy as a mediating resource in bringing evangelical and postliberal theology into dialogue with the core issues of theology biblical hermeneutics and religious culture Demetrios concludes with a critically empathetic review of the postliberal dialectical theology of Douglas J Hall and the evangelical narrative theology of Richard Lints In linking evangelical postliberal and neo orthodox theology to a common search for a vital Protestant center this book will facilitate fruitful dialogue among divergent schools of Protestant thought and culture The Modern Theologians David F.

The Paradox of Church and World Jon Diefenthaler, 2015-11-01 Ultimately or so H Richard Niebuhr wrote as early as 1929 the problem of church and world involves us in a paradox unless the church accommodates itself to the world it becomes sterile inwardly and outwardly unless it transcends the world it becomes indistinguishable from the world and loses its effectiveness no less surely In the same context he went on to state The rhythm of approach and withdrawal need not be like the swinging of the pendulum mere repetition without progress it may be more like the rhythm of the waves that wash upon the beach each succeeding wave advances a little farther into the world with its cleansing gospel before that gospel becomes sullied with the earth Niebuhr's thought on the paradox of church and world is an essential piece of our understanding of twentieth century theology in America In this volume Jon Diefenthaler collects for the first time over forty writings that trace the lineage of Niebuhr's thought presents them in a single place and makes a case for their enduring value in a post church religious environment The volume is a treasury of little known and hard to find pieces making scholarship and understanding easier

A Philosophy of Christian Materialism Christopher Baker, Thomas A. James, John Reader, 2016-03-09 A Philosophy of Christian Materialism offers a new religious engagement with the public sphere via means of interdisciplinary analysis and empirical examples developing what the authors call a Relational Christian Realism building upon interaction with contemporary Philosophy of Religion The book argues that the current discourse on public religion is inadequate in addressing the issues now to be faced including material religious practice in the sphere of education the growth of alternative political movements and the developing awareness of environmental concerns and urban social justice Key concepts that support this strategic analysis are entangled fidelities the form of a materialist religious practice the possibility of a relational Christian realism including new developments in how we interpret key categories of doctrine including God and creation salvation and humanity and the post secular public sphere including the emerging phenomenon of postsecular rapprochement namely the coming together of both religious and secular actors in methodologies and politics of pragmatism as well as ethical discourse for the sake of the public commons Co authored by theologians in both the USA and the UK this book represents an exciting contribution to philosophy and practice of religion on both sides of the Atlantic and aspires to be sufficiently interdisciplinary to also appeal to readerships engaged in the study of modern political and social trends Scripture and Ethics Jeffrey S. Siker, 1997 Siker brings together the history of biblical interpretation and the study of uses of the Bible in Christian ethics to examine how the Bible has actually been used in Christian theological ethics and in the process profiling eight influential twentieth century theologians
