Emile Durkheim on Crime and Punishment (An Exegesis) Seamus Breathnach,2002 in civilised society the rising crime rate is a thing of terror Clever governments manipulate it the public messianically fear it and the social scientists misunderstand it In the face of such confusion Emile Durkheim reminds us that without a crime rate society is utterly impossible it cannot constitute itself maintain its solidarity or develop morally In short we cannot live with or without a crime rate This dissertation is an exegetical work and attempts to unpack the Criminology of Emile Durkheim It is divided into six chapters five of which are expository the sixth critical It begins with a look in overview at Durkheim s philosophy and how it underpins his theories of crime and punishment chap 1 By their nature theories of crime and punishment chap 2 presuppose the more primary theoretical formulations both of evolution and society chap 3 the one answering the theoretical time requirement the other the spatial requirement and each symbiotically related to the other in an integral theory of social evolution Durkheim s treatment of the modern State and the Conscience Collective as an organ of social control chap 4 is of primary importance not least because it underpins his treatment of the broader issues such as the connection between civil and criminal law morality and authority chap 5 Since there is hardly a serious Durkheimian proposition that is reducible to a provable or an uncontentious fact chap 6 it can hardly surprise us that on the one hand he attracted such copious criticism and on the other has remained perhaps the most popular sociologist of the twentieth and twenty first centuries
