Catucci,Federico De Matteis,2022-01-21 Cities are not made only of stone they harbor ways of life practices movements moods atmospheres feelings Yet the ineffable nature of affects has long deprived human passions of a meaningful role when it comes to observing urban space and envisioning its future transformation With this book we explore the contemporary city and its transitional conditions from a different perspective a quest to understand how the space of collective life and the feelings this engenders are connected how they mutually give form to each other In an interdisciplinary collection of essays The Affective City means to open a discussion on the soft presences animating the world of urban objects beyond the city built out of mere things this book s focus is on the forces that make urban life emerge thrive flourish but also wither and sometimes die A task crucial for the survival of cities as human habitats in an urban world that with every passing day seems to draw closer a crisis U.S. Government Research Reports ,1962 Technical Publications Announcements with

An Anthropology of Disappearance Laura Huttunen, Gerhild Perl, 2023-09-15

All over the world people disappear from their families communities and the state's bureaucratic gaze as victims of oppressive regimes or while migrating along clandestine routes. This volume brings together scholars who engage ethnographically with such disappearances in various cultural social and political contexts. It takes an anthropological perspective on questions about human life and death absence and presence rituals and mourning liminality and structures citizenship and personhood as well as agency and power. The chapters explore the political dimension of disappearances and address methodological epistemological and ethical challenges of researching disappearances and the disappeared. The combination of disappearance through political violence crime voluntary disappearance and migration make this book a unique combination.
