Fighter Operations in Europe and North Africa, 1939-1945 David Wragg,2012-02-29 Fighter Operations in Europe and North Africa 1939 1945 tells the story of Allied and German fighter pilots in Europe over the Mediterranean and in North Africa during the Second World War The book starts with the early skirmishes as each side tested the others defenses moves through the Battle of Britain and then the Blitz when the emphasis switched from single engined day fighters to twin engined night fighters while increasingly fighters were used to sweep over enemy air fields and lines of communication in occupied France This overlapped with the need to provide air cover for the besieged island fortress of Malta by day and by night as well as defensive operations against Axis forces in Crete and North Africa but as the balance of power changed in North Africa the Desert Air Force was formed incorporating elements from many Allied air forces and the emphasis moved to offensive operations in support of ground forces The invasions of Italy and the South of France also called for fighter cover initially by carrier based aircraft The lessons learnt in North Africa were put to good use by the 2nd Allied Tactical Air Force which accompanied the advancing allied armies towards and eventually into Germany achieving all important air supremacy which was a major factor in the Allied victory The book also covers Luftwaffe fighter pilots as they sought to stop the RAF by night and the USAAF by day against increasingly overwhelming odds Tony's war Britta von Zweigbergk,2007 These British Isles of ours are populated by people who originate from throughout the world from North South East and West Individually or as family groups they will have come to start a new life to escape from persecution hunger or despair It is our strength because somehow we learn to adapt ourselves to meet our own and other s needs no matter how daunting they may be Tony and Nita Zweigbergk learned to do just that during their very different childhood and teenage years Then they met and fell in love Then along came World War II We are privileged to share these experiences plus by reading between the lines we are able to share the boredom depression comradeship fun fear and sorrow that became the life of those who lived on the edge of life and death to ensure our precious freedom RAF fighter units, Europe, April 1942-45 Bryan Philpott,1978

Good,2020-04-16 While the United States sought to remain neutral in the early years of World War II some Americans did not This book is the first to provide the operational records and combat reports of the three American Eagle Royal Air Force squadrons units comprised of volunteer American

Allen, 2012-08-15 This authoritative and comprehensive survey features over 2 400 entries Subjects range from battles soldiers and military activities to politics culture and the Holocaust Enlivened by 85 illustrations its panoramic perspective encompasses WWII s enduring influences on the American way of life A unique and valuable look at the war General James Doolittle Journey to the Horizon Hans Onderwater, Brian Lissette, 2021-07-01 This is the epic story of Escape and Evasion during World War Two Main character is Donald Kenyon Willis an American pilot who fought with the Finns against the Russians in 1940 then joined the Norwegian Naval Air Arm against the Germans escaped to the Shetlands joined the RAF as one of the first Eagle Squadron pilots until he joined the USAAF After the war and a spell as a base commander in Austria and Germany he became a test pilot in JATO Jet Assisted Take Off experiments from Wright Patterson Air Base in Ohio USA He was one of the last five airmen to evade capture via de Pyrenees the night before D Day with American Lieutenant Colonel Thomas H Hubbard and 2nd Lieutenant Jack Cornett and Britons Pilot Officer Len Barnes and Sergeant Ron Emeny JOURNEY TO THE HORIZON tells the story of three fighter pilots and two Lancaster crews who were shot down by the Germans It follows them on the run hiding in captivity and in some cases in death They were Britons Canadians New Zealanders and Americans Five of them met in Paris while being guided by members of the Comete Escape line others evaded in different ways Some endured the harsh life in a POW camp while in one case an airmen even ended up in Buchenwald concentration camp Those who died now rest at various cemeteries in France In the book Onderwater and Lissette also tell about the sometimes dreadful experiences of the fellow crew members of Barnes and Emeny after their two Lancasters crashed in France In the course of the research Hans Onderwater followed the same evasion route meeting the helpers who risked their lives crossed the Pyrenees on foot with the Basque guide of 1944 until he too reached Gibraltar He visited Stalag Luft 1 Barth on the Baltic coast and Stalag Luft 3 Sagan in Poland Buchenwald near Weimar and Ravensbruck near Berlin He spoke with the five airmen or their families and corresponded with the others During the last forty years he interviewed over 100 people who were in some major or minor way connected to the airmen and their experiences Aerospace Historian ,1978 Aircraft of the 8th AAF 1942-1945 Kev Darling, The British Library General Catalogue of Printed Books 1976 to 1982 British Library, 1983 Operation Oyster World War II's Forgotten Raid Kees Rijken, Paul Schepers, Arthur G. Thorning, 2014-08-15 Operation Oyster was carried out on the 6th December 1942 by 2 Group RAF Considered to be a notable success for the allies it cost the Germans an estimated six months of lost production time at a critical point in the conflict It is arguable according to the authors that the operation was in fact rather more significant than Operation Chastise the Dambuster raid while accepting that was a remarkable feat of arms Operation Oyster struck at the very heart of what Churchill termed the wizard war against German radio navigational technology by attacking a central hub of activity the Philips Radio Works in Eindhoven The Netherlands The development of electronics in WWII was the most significant technical aspect of weaponry over the course of the conflict On both sides there were great advances in radar and communications which at that time depended on the wide scale use of high frequency radio valves few companies had the technology to produce these but the leading one in Europe was Philips in Eindhoven Thus it was determined that Philips was the most important target Ninety three allied aircraft took part and a total of fourteen were lost But the result in terms of damages to the enemy was considerable hindering the German war effort significantly and consequently aiding the allies Despite these facts however the story of the raid has been underreported and the efforts of the aircrew who took part have been little recognized By comparison the Dambuster raid which came six months later has entered into folklore Here for the first time the overlooked Oyster raid is afforded the attention it deserves

National Archives and Records Service,1975 Monographic Series Library of Congress, A History of the Mediterranean Air War, 1940-1945 Christopher Shores,Russell Guest,2025-09-30 In 1943 Allied bombers from Italy launched strategic attacks on Axis oil fields factories and Danube supply routes Following the inter Allied Casablanca Conference in January 1943 the outline for the Combined Bomber Offensive was agreed and resulted in early February with the Casablanca Directive This required the progressive destruction and dislocation of the German military industrial and economic systems and the undermining of the morale of the German people to a point where their capacity for armed resistance is fatally weakened This directive was clarified in June when the Combined Chiefs of Staff issued the Pointblank Directive that stated that the highest priority targets were the fighter aircraft factories to ensure that in the coming invasion of France the enemy would not have air superiority When these directives were issued it was envisaged that as well as attacks by RAF Bomber Command and the US 8th Air Force based in England the strategic bomber forces in Italy would begin operations once suitable bases were available After the Allied landings in Italy and resulting collapse of the Italian fascist regime a network of bomber bases was hastily developed Thus on 1 November 1943 the US 15th Air Force was formed to conduct the daylight bombing offensive against strategic targets in southern Germany and across southeastern Europe Key among these were the Rumanian oilfields and traffic along the River Danube This new formation was joined by the smaller but highly effective 205 Group RAF that was trained and equipped for night bombing so mirroring their equivalent British based formations The damaging attacks on the Reich s oil supplies and the highly effective Danube mining campaign conducted at night by 205 Group delivered huge strategic effect The latter reduced vital oil and goods traffic into the Reich to a trickle but also dislocated the supply and logistics train into the southern part of the Eastern Front so giving manifest support to the Soviets In this volume the early months of this hugely significant air campaign are described in minute and original detail and are accompanied by hundreds of hitherto unpublished photographs In combating these attacks Germany s Axis allies such as Hungary Rumania Bulgaria and Slovakia were encountered for the first time by the Western Allies
