Shipwrecks and the Maritime History of Singapore Kwa Chong Guan,2023-09-18

On 16 June 2021 the National Heritage Board announced the successful conclusion of the archaeological excavation of two shipwrecks at the eastern approach to Singapore This maritime archaeology excavation the largest in Singapore s waters was conducted by the Archaeology Unit of the ISEAS Yusof Ishak Institute over a six year period This book documents these two shipwrecks complemented by essays on Singapore s maritime history from Temasek in the fourteenth century through the emergence of country trade in the late eighteenth century These two shipwrecks challenge us to rethink Singapore s history as globally connected determined by what was happening on the seas in and around the island

The History of Singapore Jean Abshire,2011-03-21 This book overviews Singapore s fascinating history from the precolonial era to the present examining this wealthy island nation from economic political cultural and social perspectives Singapore is a dominant player in the global economy serving both as an essential business hub for international finance and home to some of the world s most important ports It is also one of the world s smallest and most resource poor countries This book offers an engaging examination of Singapore using a theme of globalization to explain how the country s worldwide interactions across centuries have resulted in an ethnically diverse society and allowed it to ascend to a position of being an economic powerhouse Every significant historic event and era from its status as a meeting point for traders in the 600s to its colonization by the British in 1819 and from Japanese occupation during World War II to the 2002 arrest of a group of Islamic terrorists is covered

Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia Christopher Hale,2023-03-21 The fascinating account of two former British colonies with a shared past but vastly different identities today Singapore and Malaysia sit astride the sea lanes linking East with West vital choke points in the world s commerce Since ancient times ports along the Silk Road of the Sea were populated by peoples from around the globe who came here to trade and live carried by the steady flow of goods and the ever present monsoon winds Author Christopher Hale recounts many fascinating histories of this region including The ancient international trade in spices and the seven voyages to the southern seas of the Chinese eunuch Admiral Zheng He in the 15th century The rise of Islamic kingdoms along rivers bordering the Straits of Malacca and the conquest of Malacca one of the world s largest cities by a few hundred Portuguese marauders in 1511 The saga of Sir Stamford Raffles credited with founding Singapore and the development of tin mines and vast rubber and oil palm plantations on the Malay Peninsula The disastrous fall of Fortress Singapore to the Japanese in World War II after only three weeks of fighting the worst British military defeat in history The wildly successful film Crazy Rich Asians set in Singapore the highest grossing romantic comedy of the decade A Brief History of Singapore and Malaysia tells these and many other compelling stories about the people and events which have shaped these nations as they developed into modern powerhouses of international trade and tourism

Constructing Singapore Michael D. Barr,Zlatko Skrbiš,2008 Constructing Singapore studies

Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore s state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong s Singapore today The Avatar of 1786: Decolonizing the Penang Story Ahmad Murad Merican, 2023-10-11 There must be a closure to the history of Pulau Pinang and Kedah There was no 1786 treaty no agreement no document no signatories The narrative continues independent of each other representing an uncomfortable conscience glancing at each as two separate polities of Penang and Kedah socially and intellectually structured by the year 1786 This book makes a strange revisit to pretension of a fact event And it counters the terra nullius doctrine It also establishes that the lex loci was the Adat Temenggong customary law modified by the Qanun laws of Kedah Malay collective memory maintains that Pulau Pinang is integral to the Kedah Sultanate The island has law order and society before the presence of the Europeans not a band of natives and fishermen as stereotyped by the colonial narrative even in the colonial courts The Malays in Pulau Pinang in recent decades have become beggars to their own history This book contests that history through moral and legal arguments as well as raising the themes and issues of representation and redemption The Singapore Story Eugene Hwi Choon Tan, 1998 Singapore - Two Hundred Years of the Lion City Anthony Webster, Nicholas White, 2019-10-29 Two hundred years after Singapore s foundation by Stamford Raffles in 1819 this book reflects on the historical development of the city putting forward much new research and new thinking It discusses Singapore s emergence as a regional economic hub explores its strategic importance and considers its place in the development of the British Empire Subjects covered include the city s initial role as a strategic centre to limit the resurgence of Dutch power in Southeast Asia after the Napoleonic Wars the impact of the Japanese occupation and the reasons for Singapore s exit from the Malaysian Federation in 1965 The book concludes by examining how Singapore s history is commemorated at present reinforcing the image of the city as prosperous peaceful and forward looking and draws out the lessons which history can provide concerning the city s likely future development Asianism and the Politics of Regional Consciousness in Singapore Leong Yew, 2013-11-20 Over the last two decades Singapore has undergone a substantial degree of Asianization Apart from participating in the Asian values debate of the 1990s re-visioning itself as New Asia and a global Asian hub and establishing Asian identities for the commodities it consumes and produces Singapore has also repurposed its modernity cultures and ethos along similar regionalist precepts However even in recent times Singapore continues to vacillate ambivalently between identifying with and differentiating itself from Asia Responding to the challenges Singapore faces in coming to terms with its Asian identity this book examines the complex cultural social and political underpinnings that have shaped Singapore s mainstream discourse on Asia. Indeed, it argues that its legacy as a colonial port city, the exigencies of managing the post-independence nation-state, and the larger forces of imperialism and capitalism all contribute to its politics of Asianism. Taking a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach that spans history, cultural studies, postcolonialism, and cultural geography, Leong Yew reveals how Asia has been used to narrate Singapore's beginnings, revalidate Singaporean ethnic culture, and to consolidate its practices of consumption and commodification. This book will be welcomed by students and scholars working across a range of fields including Asian culture and society, Asian politics, cultural theory, and postcolonial studies. The Singapore Story (Student Edition) Lee Kuan Yew, 2015-07-15. Specially tailored edition to complement the study of Singapore's history. This student edition of The Singapore Story is a shortened version of the original edition of The Singapore Story, the first volume of Lee Kuan Yew's memoirs published in 2008. It covers all the significant moments in the life of Singapore's first prime minister in his own words and dispenses with passages that do not directly concern Singapore. Cruising on the Queen Elizabeth 2 Bernard M. Patten, 2009-12-02. HMS Queen Elizabeth 2 is the most celebrated craft afloat and one of the greatest technical achievements of the 20th century. In her construction and maintenance are involved almost every science profession and trade known to civilization. On her bridge stand officers who, besides being the pick of the Royal Navy, have passed rigid examinations in all studies pertaining to winds, tides, currents, navigation, and the geography of the sea. For 91 days, author Bernard M. Patten, M.D., sailed around the world on this ultimate cruise ship. What was it like onboard this most luxurious of luxury liners? Marvelous, simply marvelous, he assures the reader with obvious enthusiasm that spills off every page. Determined to give the reader the complete QE2 experience, Patten and his wife Ethel roomed in progressively better accommodations, moving level by level from the least expensive class, Mauritania 5, to the Penthouse Suite, which included their own butlers, Geoffrey and Paul. Along with the Pattens, readers will experience every deck, every restaurant, and every level of luxury that this incredible ocean liner has to offer. Whether you're a cruise buff or planning your own stay aboard this fabulous ship, or just want to take a trip in your imagination on a cold rainy night, Cruising on the Queen Elizabeth 2 will provide you with interesting information, entertaining stories, and ample pleasures. 50 Years Of Science In Singapore Bernard Tiong Gie Tan, Hock Lim, Kok Khoo Phua, 2016-12-12. As part of the commemorative book series on Singapore's 50 years of nation-building, this important compendium traces the history and development of the various sectors of Singapore science in the last 50 years or so. The book covers the government agencies responsible for science funding and research policy, the academic institutions and departments who have been in the forefront of the development of the nation's scientific manpower and research, the research centres and institutes which have been breaking new ground in both basic and applied science, research science museums and education, and the academic and professional institutions which the scientific community has set up to enable Singapore scientists to serve the nation more effectively. Each article is chronicled by eminent authors who have played important roles and made significant contributions in shaping today's achievement of science in Singapore Professionals academics students and the general public will find this volume a useful reference material and an inspirational easy read Beneath Another Sky Norman Davies, 2017-12-07 He writes history like nobody else He thinks like nobody else He sees the world as a whole with its limitless fund of stories Bryan Appleyard Sunday Times Where have the people in any particular place actually come from What are the historical complexities in any particular place This evocative historical journey around the world shows us Human history is a tale not just of constant change but equally of perpetual locomotion writes Norman Davies Throughout the ages men and women have endlessly sought the greener side of the hill Their migrations collisions conquests and interactions have given rise to the spectacular profusion of cultures races languages and polities that now proliferates on every continent This incessant restlessness inspired Davies's own After decades of writing about European history and like Tennyson's ageing Ulysses longing for one last adventure he embarked upon an extended journey that took him right round the world to a score of hitherto unfamiliar countries His aims were to test his powers of observation and to revel in the exotic but equally to encounter history in a new way Beneath Another Sky is partly a historian's travelogue partly a highly engaging exploration of events and personalities that have fashioned today's world and entirely sui generis Davies's circumnavigation takes him to Baku the Emirates India Malaysia Mauritius Tasmania Tahiti Texas Madeira and many places in between At every stop he not only describes the current scene but also excavates the layers of accumulated experience that underpin the present He tramps round ancient temples and weird museums summarises the complexity of Indian castes Austronesian languages and Pacific explorations delves into the fate of indigenous peoples and of a missing Malaysian airliner reflects on cultural conflict in Cornwall uncovers the Nazi origins of Frankfurt airport and lectures on imperialism in a desert oasis Everything has its history he writes including the history of finding one's way or of getting lost The personality of the author comes across strongly wry romantic occasionally grumpy but with an endless curiosity and appetite for knowledge As always Norman Davies watches the historical horizon as well as what is close at hand and brilliantly complicates our view of the past Scrupulous, Thorough, Fearless: The CpiB

Story Clement Liew, 2022-09-20 Scrupulous Thorough Fearless The CPIB Story chronicles the journey of the Corrupt Practices Investigation Bureau CPIB from its beginnings to the present The narrative contained within the pages of this book contextualises the role of the Bureau in Singapore's nation building journey The creation of the Bureau and its history and heritage are closely intertwined with the birth and history of Singapore It starts by providing an account of how corruption had become so prevalent in pre war Singapore The experiences of war characterised by extreme shortages hunger and privation provided further impetus for many to resort to corrupt ways to get what they needed and coveted in the post war period This Bureau was established to clean up the corruption of the day an endeavour which contributed to the birth of a strong nation whose people shared a common ethos of integrity Singapore's reputation for being corruption free has since been one of the pillars of the nation's economic success Reframing Singapore Derek Thiam Soon Heng, Syed Muhd.

Khairudin Aljunied, 2009 Over the past two decades Singapore has advanced rapidly towards becoming a both a global city state and a key nodal point in the international economic sphere These developments have caused us to reassess how we understand this changing nation including its history population and geography as well as its transregional and transnational experiences with the external world This collection spans several disciplines in the humanities and social sciences and draws on various theoretical approaches and methodologies in order to produce a more refined understanding of Singapore and to reconceptualize the challenges faced by the country and its peoples Natural History Drawings William Farquhar, John Sturgis Bastin, Chong Guan Kwa, 2010 Colonel William Farquhar 1774 1839 was a British Colonial Officer who became Commandant of Malacca in 1803 a post through which he was able to indulge his interest in natural history sending men to collect various plant and animal specimens which he then commissioned artists to paint The Imperial Agenda Devinder Raj, 2025-03-11 The Imperial Agenda The British in Malaysia from 1786 to 1957 is a look at Malaysia's imperial past through the lens of Britain in its pursuit to exert control over the Malay Peninsula Devinder Raj delves into the implications of imperialism on the Straits Settlements the Federated Malay States and the Unfederated Malay states which eventually came to be known collectively as the Federation of Malaya and then as the nation is called today Malaysia The British presence introduced systems of administrative policy and growth in terms of industries plantations and infrastructure which brought about economic advantages Nevertheless the unsavoury aspects of this agenda which last till this day begs recognition as well such as the employment of gunboat diplomacy the use of naval strength and military intimidation to secure strategic locations along the Straits of Melaka on the islands of Penang Singapore and Pangkor Devinder discusses intertwined subjects in this section of Malaysian history such as immigration education opium trading and the practice of bringing convicts to the Straits Settlements offering a comprehensive understanding of the complex historical context in which the Imperial Agenda unfolded and impacted the country of Malaysia as she stands today Of Whales and Dinosaurs Kevin Y.L. Tan, 2015-04-18 Singapore's collection of Southeast Asian animals one of the world's largest dates back to the old Raffles Museum officially established in 1878 With the opening of the Lee Kong Chian Natural History Museum in 2015 the original Raffles Museum has reincarnated and the loop on its remarkable 127 year history has closed Beneath the sleek exterior of today's modern museum building lies a saga of titanic struggles and changes That the collections survived at all through the multiple challenges of the nineteenth century the disruption of World War Two and its potential disintegration in the face of Singapore's modernization is nothing short of miraculous This book is not only an institutional history of the museum but also tells the story of frustrations commitment and courage of the numerous individuals who battled officialdom innovated endlessly and overcame the odds to protect Singapore's natural history heritage The book features 108 historical photographs and natural history illustrations printed in full colour throughout Negotiating Ethnic Diversity and National Identity in History Education Helen Mu Hung Ting, Luigi Cajani, 2023-05-26 This edited book explores the problems and challenges of negotiating the representation of ethnic minorities within history education It investigates how states balance the non acknowledgement of the reality of cultural or religious diversity and the promotion of a point of convergence in history education to foster national identity Shifting our attention away from the intractable challenges posed by post conflict countries for reconciliation the contributors draw attention to the need to explore ways to prevent or pre empt conflicts and exclusion through history education which could contribute to developing a more sustainable culture of peace Drawing on a wide range of contexts and sources this book asks how history education could contribute to forming critical historically informed and committed young citizens The book will be of interest to students and academics working on themes such as nationalism citizenship ethnicity history education multicultural education peace studies and area studies as well as practitioners in the fields of history social studies civic or citizenship      Pageant of the Seven Seas Clarence Loehr Welsh,Ethel Watts Mumford Grant,1925
