denominational loyalties This volume will be of interest to historians of British society and the Second World War twentieth century British religion and the perennial interplay of religion and conflict Political Women Maggie

Andrews,2024-05-02 The lives of women changed immeasurably during the twentieth century not just because of technological and economic advances but as a result of a multiplicity of small and large local national and international political campaigns by women The activities of the Edwardian suffrage campaigns are the most well known example of this but in less well known political struggles women fought with equal tenacity sacrifice and inventiveness to demand for example equal pay analgesics for women and childbirth an end to virginity testing at airports or wages for housework This book focuses on 15 such campaigns and the thousands of women who sought to influence decision making exercise and challenge power in the twentieth century These political activities were sometimes small scale and short lived or seemingly unsuccessful but together they helped to bring about immeasurable changes in women s lives during the twentieth century With limited financial resources and hefty domestic responsibilities women have often chosen to pick their political battles very carefully Some fought for workers rights or the right to education some prioritised stopping male violence on the streets in the home or between nations others like Radcliffe Hall campaigned so women could define their own sexuality Women organised self help childcare rape crisis centres and peace camps They set up birth control clinics and women s refuges Ordinary women took on exploitive landlords immigration officers international companies local councils the media and successive governments A few of the hundreds of thousands of these political women like Maggie Wintringham and Nancy Astor were MPs others became local councillors However women s access to traditional areas of political power was limited even when Britain had its first woman prime minister in 1979 she was one of only 19 women MPs in parliament Consequently women sought other spheres of activity through which to fight for change using all the resources and imagination at their disposal to challenge injustice and abuse They employed deeds and words petitions and protests legal and illegal devices peaceful and violent strategies to further their political aims Their motivations and contributions were varied many made sacrifices to be involved in political battles but this book seeks to celebrate some of these unsung heroines who tried to make a difference Hollywood War Films, 1937-1945 Michael S. Shull,David Edward Wilt,2015-09-03 From 1937 through

1945 Hollywood produced over 1 000 films relating to the war This enormous and exhaustive reference work first analyzes the war films as sociopolitical documents Part one entitled The Crisis Abroad 1937 1941 focuses on movies that reflected America s increasing uneasiness Part two Waging War 1942 1945 reveals that many movies made from 1942 through 1945 included at least some allusion to World War II Daily Lives of Civilians in Wartime Africa John Paul Clow Laband Ph.D.,2006-11-30 In most accounts of warfare civilians suffer cruelties and make sacrifices silently and anonymously This volume details the dismal impact war has had on the African people over the past five hundred years from slavery days the Zulu War World Wars I and II to the horrific civil wars following decolonization and the genocide in Rwanda In most accounts of warfare civilians suffer cruelties and make sacrifices silently and anonymously Finally historians turn their attention to those who are usually caught up in events beyond their control or understanding This volume details the dismal impact war has had on the African people over the past five hundred years from slavery days the Zulu War World Wars I and II to the horrific civil wars following decolonization and the genocide in Rwanda Chapters provide a representative range of civilian experiences during wartime in Africa extending from the late eighteenth century to the present representing every region of Africa except North Africa Timelines glossaries suggested further readings and maps are included and the work is fully indexed The book begins with Paul E Lovejoy s study of the ubiquitous experience of African slavery which has so profoundly affected the development of the continent and the lives of its people John Laband then examines the rise of the Zulu kingdom in the early nineteenth century and its subsequent conquest by Britain thus charting the fate of civilians during the formation of an African kingdom and their experiences during colonial conquest The Anglo Boer War is situated at a crucial crossroads between colonial and modern warfare and the concentration camps the British set up for Boer and African civilians pioneered a new form of modern savagery Bill Nasson examines this war s complex effects on various categories of non combatants in South Africa Because it was under colonial rule Africa was dragged into the two World Wars Tim Stapleton shows in the fourth chapter that while the African civilian response to the war of 1914 1918 was often contradictory and ranged from collaboration to revolt the effect of the conflict was only to confirm colonial rule In the following chapter David Killingray explains how and why the impact of the Second World War on African civilians was rather different from that of the First in that it undid colonial rule and paved the way for the future independence of Africa under modernized African leadership The Portuguese held on to their African empire long after the other colonial empires had relinquished theirs in the 1960s Angola the subject of Chapter six passed seamlessly out of an independence struggle against Portuguese rule into civil war that soon involved Cold War rivalries and interventions Inge Brinkman describes the dismal sufferings and displacement of Angolan civilians during four decades of interminable fighting Liberia and Sierra Leone declined from relative stability and prosperity into horrific civil war and in Chapter seven Lansana Gberie traces the deadly consequences for civilians and the efforts to stabilize society once peace was tentatively restored The Sudan has suffered decades of ethnic and religious strife between the government and the people of the southern and western periphery and in Chapter eight Jane Kani Edward and Amir Idris analyze what this has meant and still means for the myriad civilian victims Chapter nine concludes the book with the most horrific single episode of recent African history the Rwandan genocide Alhaji Bah explains its genesis and canvasses the subsequent search for reconciliation The chapter ends with his discussion of African mechanisms that should and even might be put in place to ensure effective peacekeeping in Africa and so save civilians in future from the swarm of war s horrors
