The aircraft is flying over a landscape of fire and smoke, suggesting a bombing mission. Other bombers are visible in the distance. The sky is dark, and the ground below is a mix of orange and brown, with some smoke rising from the ground.

Rain of Fire Charles L. Phillips,1996 Rain of Fire Charles L. Phillips,2002-01-01 Phantom Warrior Forrest Bryant Johnson,2007-08-07 This is the story of John McKinney who received the Medal of Honor for his actions against a Japanese surprise attack On May 11 1945 McKinney returned fire on the Japanese attacking his unit using every available weapon even his fists standing alone against wave after wave of dedicated Japanese soldiers At the end John McKinney was alive with over forty Japanese bodies before him This is the story of an extraordinary man whose courage and fortitude in battle saved many American lives and whose legacy has been sadly forgotten by all but a few Here the proud legacy of John McKinney lives on The Battle for Iwo Jima 1945 Derrick Wright,2020-01-23 Iwo Jima was the United States Marine Corps toughest ever battle and a turning point in the Pacific War In February 1945 three Marine Divisions stormed the island s shores in what was supposed to be a ten day battle but they had reckoned without General Tadamichi Kuribayashi the enemy commander Do not plan for my return wrote Kuribayashi in one of his many letters to his wife Yoshii He knew that he and his garrison could not defeat the Marines but he was determined to exact a fearful toll in American casualties In the 36 day battle for Iwo Jima which eclipsed all that had gone before the Marines lost nearly 6 000 men and the Japanese garrison was virtually wiped out Prisoner of Japan Sir Harold Atcherley,2013-04-19 In the course of the Second World War more than a quarter of a million European and American soldiers were taken prisoner by the Japanese in Malaysia the Dutch East Indies and the Pacific They went on to suffer years of deprivation and brutality most of them failing to survive at all Harold Atcherley was fortunate enough to be one of the survivors Throughout his time as a prisoner from the fall of Singapore on 15th February 1942 until 14th September 1945 he kept a diary which he was able to bring home with him This book is based on that diary along with other diaries and official documents The original diary can now be viewed at The Imperial War Museum London He was fortunate enough to count among his friends and comrades the celebrated artist Ronald Searle whose drawings have been used to illustrate his text they give a far better impression of what life was like for a POW of the Japanese than mere words can though neither words nor pictures could ever convey the appalling stench of disease and death on such a massive scale Modern Japan Brian Powell,1969 A history of Japan from 800 A D revealing how aspects of the social system feudalism and years of military rule make modern Japan unique Rain of Fire: B-29's Over Japan, 1945 75th Anniversary Edition Endorsed by General Curtis E. Dozo, Domo Kuniyasu Sakai,1986 The Front Page, 1887-1992 ,1992 Fire from the Sky Ron Greer and Mike Wicks,2013 This is the story of the last few months of WWII in the Pacific seen through the eyes of one man a radio operator aboard a B29 Superfortress who kept a diary of 28 missions over Japan The diary tells of the horrors of war It was written in darkness and often fear with a pen light during lonely hours confined for up to 18 hours at a time Herb Greer our main author 23 years old frightened and sitting on up to 20 000 pounds of jellied gasoline napalm while blindly flying through constant flak bursts and fighter opposition The plane is blacked out save the dull red glow of the instrument panels as they pass through the target area Suddenly the most intense bright light floods the aircraft blinding us the tension in the aircraft shot up hearts started beating a whole lot faster as we instantly realized that we were being singled out of the sky by a searchlight and were now firmly in the sights of air and ground fire we were the main act and center stage From that moment everything went into slow motion as we pass through the target seconds felt like minutes and minutes hours BOOM an explosion the plane rocks bucks flak is searing its way through the fragile fabric of the fuselage loose items are flying around I m scared they say you can taste fear well they re absolutely right This personal view gives us two perspectives the first is the story of Herb Greer speaking to us aboard a B29 through the written entries of his diary and then the second recounted from his armchair 60 years later Written with an immediacy that can only be shared by those who were there while capturing for posterity their bravery and dignity of sacrifice Blankets of Fire Kenneth P. Werrell,1996 The Methuen Book of Poems for Every Day Methuen,2006 The Methuen Book of Poems for Every Day includes 366 poems by over two hundred poets from antiquity to the present From Blake to Betjeman and Whitman to Wilde the book blends familiar classics with unknown gems old and new The result is at once a celebration of the greatest poets and their finest work of the
