Return Of The Whistler:

Fearing the Dark Edmund G. Bansak, 2003-10-09 Cat People 1942 and I Walked with a Zombie 1943 established Val Lewton's hauntingly graceful style where suggestion was often used in place of explicit violence. His stylish B thrillers were imitated by a generation of filmmakers such as Richard Wallace, William Castle, and even Walt Disney in his animated Adventures of Ichabod and Mr Toad 1949. Through interviews with many of Lewton's associates including his wife and son and extensive research, his life and output are thoroughly examined. The Big Book of Reel Murders Otto Penzler, 2019-10-22 Edgar Award winning editor Otto Penzler's new anthology rolls out the red carpet for the stories that Hollywood is made of. A Vintage Crime Black Lizard Original Lights Camera Action. The latest book in the Big Book series takes us behind the curtain to uncover the stories that became some of the greatest films of the silver screen. There's the W Somerset Maugham short story that inspired Hitchcock's Secret Agent, Robert Louis Stevenson's horrifying tale that was later turned into the iconic movie The Body Snatcher starring Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff, Sir Ian Fleming's From a View to a Kill, later one of Roger Moore's greatest Bond films, and Cyclists Raid, the short story that formed the basis for the legendary Brando film The Wild One. Otto Penzler delivers the director's cut on these classic short stories and the films they gave rise to. So grab your Sno Caps and a jumbo box of popcorn and curl up with these cinematic tales from the likes of Agatha Christie, Dennis Lehane, Joyce Carol Oates, Dashiell Hammett, O. Henry, Edgar Allan Poe, and Arthur Conan Doyle. From Radio to the Big Screen Hal Erickson, 2014-06-11 There was a time when American popular entertainment referred only to radio and motion pictures. With the coming of talking pictures, Hollywood cashed in on the success of big time network radio by bringing several of the public's favorite broadcast personalities and programs to the screen. The results, though occasionally successful, often proved conclusively that some things are better heard than seen. Concentrating primarily on radio's Golden Age 1926-1962, this lively history discusses the cinematic efforts of airwave stars Rudy Vallee, Amos 'n' Andy, Fred Allen, Joe Penner, Fibber McGee, Molly, Edgar Bergen, Lum and Abner, and many more. Also analyzed are the movie versions of such radio series as The Shadow, Dr. Christian, and The Life of Riley. In addition, two recent films starring contemporary radio headliners Howard Stern and Garrison Keillor are given their due. Cornell Woolrich from Pulp Noir to Film Noir Thomas C. Renzi, 2015-01-24 Extremely popular and prolific in the 1930s and 1940s, Cornell Woolrich still has diehard fans who thrive on his densely packed descriptions and his spellbinding premises. A contemporary of Hammett and Chandler, he competed with them for notoriety in the pulps and became the single most adapted writer for films of the noir period. Perhaps the most famous film adaptation of a Woolrich story is Alfred Hitchcock's Rear Window 1954. Even today, his work is still onscreen. Michael Cristofer's Original Sin 2001 is based on one of his tales. This book offers a detailed analysis of many of Woolrich's novels and short stories, examines films adapted from these works, and shows how Woolrich's techniques and themes influenced the noir genre. Twenty-two stories and 30 films compose the bulk of the study, though many other additions of films noirs are also considered because of their relevance to Woolrich's plots, themes and characters. The introduction includes a biographical sketch of Woolrich and his relationship to the noir era and the book is illustrated with stills from Woolrich's noir classics.

Time Travel Don Keirle, 2016-04-22 An original story, August 2009 by David Donald Keirle. The author acknowledges that his ideas have been influenced by what he has read over the years and thanks all those who have gone before.

Motion Picture Series and Sequels Bernard A. Drew, 2013-12-04 In 1989 alone, for example, there were some forty-five major motion pictures which were sequels or part of a series. The film series phenomenon crosses all genres and has been around since the silent film era. This reference guide, in alphabetical order, lists some 906 English Language motion pictures from 1899 to 1990 when the book was initially published. A brief plot description is given for each series entry, followed by the individual film titles with corresponding years, directors and performers. Animated pictures, documentaries and concert films are not included, but movies released direct to video are.

Feels Right Kemi Adeyemi, 2022-08-29 In Feels Right, Kemi Adeyemi presents an ethnography of how black queer women in Chicago use dance to assert their physical and affective rights to the city. Adeyemi stages the book in queer dance parties in gentrifying neighborhoods where good feelings are good business. But feeling good is elusive for black queer women whose nightlives are undercut by white people, heterosexuality, neoliberal capitalism, burnout and other buzzkills. Adeyemi documents how black queer women respond to these conditions: how they destroy DJ booths, argue with one another, dance slowly and stop partying altogether. Their practices complicate our expectations that life at night on the queer dance floor or among black queer community simply feels good. Adeyemi's framework of feeling right instead offers a closer kinesthetic look at how black queer women adroitly manage feeling itself as a complex right they should be afforded in cities that violently structure their movements and energies. What emerges in Feels Right is a sensorial portrait of the critical black queer geographies and collectivities that emerge in social dance settings and in the broader neoliberal city Duke University Press Scholars of Color First Book Award recipient The Columbia Checklist Len D.
