Return to Sender Nicole Bazley, 2025-05-18 How can I choose between the past that broke me and the man who put me back together Does fate ever really give you a choice Return To Sender is a touching debut novel by romance author Nicole Bazley that will leave you free falling It's hard to move on from a past you thought you would never survive To live a life you don't believe you deserve I tried to start fresh I really did I agreed to move thinking that I would be able to leave behind the tragic events that turned my life upside down The day I lost the boy I loved I didn't expect to actually move on I also didn't expect to find love in the most unconventional of circumstances With an unlikely person Blake His kind heart is washing away my internal fire of guilt and his playful humour is piecing together my broken shattered heart But how do I truly move on when the very past I've been running from for years returns It threatens everything Blake and I have created forcing me to choose between the past that broke me and the man who pieced me back together But does fate ever really give you a choice Tropes Childhood Sweethearts Love Triangle Second Chance at Love Best Friends to Lovers Forced Separation Soul Mates Return to Sender Fern Michaels,2012-12-24 Nineteen years after giving birth to a son whom she raised by herself Lin Townsend crosses paths with her son's father now a millionaire and begins to plot her revenge They Also Write for Kids Suzanne Manizza Roszak,2022-12-28 Outside the world of children's literature studies children's books by authors of well known texts for adults are often forgotten or marginalized Although many adults today read contemporary children's and young adult fiction for pleasure others continue to see such texts as unsuitable for older audiences and they are unlikely to cross read children's books that were themselves cross written by authors like Chinua Achebe Anita Desai Joy Harjo or Amy Tan Meanwhile these literary voices have produced politically vital works of children's literature whose complex themes persist across boundaries of expected audience These works form part of a larger body of activist writing for children that has long challenged preconceived notions about the seriousness of such books and ideas about who in fact should read them They Also Write for Kids Cross Writing Activism and Children's Literature seeks to draw these cross writing projects together and bring them to the attention of readers In doing so this book invites readers to place children's literature in conversation with works more typically understood as being for adult audiences read multiethnic US literature alongside texts by global writers consider children's poetry and nonfiction as well as fiction and read diachronically as well as cross culturally These ways of reading offer points of entry into a world of books that refuse to exclude young audiences in scrutinizing topics that range from US settler colonialism and linguistic prejudice to intersectional forms of gender inequality The authors included here also employ an intricate array of writing strategies that challenge lingering stereotypes of children's literature as artistically as well as intellectually simplistic They subversively repurpose tropes and conventions from canonical children's books embrace an epistemology of children's literature that emphasizes ambiguity and complexity invite readers to participate in redefining concepts such as civilization and cultural belonging engage in intricate acts of cross cultural representation and re envision their own earlier works in new forms tailored explicitly to younger audiences Too often disregarded by skeptical adults these texts offer rich rewards to readers of all ages and here they are brought to the fore The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble,2011-09-08 No detailed description available for The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film A Novel Love Story Ashley Poston,2024-06-25 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER A professor of literature finds herself caught up in a work of fiction literally from the New York Times bestselling author of The Seven Year Slip and The Dead Romantics Eileen Merriweather loves to get lost in a good happily ever after The fictional kind anyway Because at least imaginary men don't leave you at the altar She feels safe in a book At home Which might be why she's so set on going her annual book club retreat this year she needs good friends cheap wine and grand romantic gestures no matter what But when her car unexpectedly breaks down on the way she finds herself stranded in a quaint town that feels like it's right out of a novel Because it is This place can't be real and yet she's here in Eloraton the town of her favorite romance series where the candy store's honey taffy is always sweet the local bar's burgers are always a little burnt and rain always comes in the afternoon It feels like home It's perfect and perfectly frozen trapped in the late author's last unfinished story Elsy is sure that's why she must be here to help bring the town to its storybook ending Except there is a character in Eloraton that she can't place a grumpy bookstore owner with mint green eyes an irritatingly sexy mouth and impeccable taste in novels And he does not want her finishing this book Which is a problem because Elsy is beginning to think the town's happily ever after might just be intertwined with her own
