Christopher J. Olson

Reunion In Hollywood:

Reunion in Hollywood Don Bowman, 1992-01-01 The Reunion Kayla Olson, 2023-01-17 When two former teen stars reconnect at the reunion for their hit TV show they discover their feelings for one another were not merely scripted in this charming and heartwarming novel perfect for fans of Christina Lauren and Sally Thorne Liv Latimer grew up on TV As the star of the popular teen drama Girl on the Verge Liv spent her adolescence on the screen trying to be as picture perfect as her character in real life But after the death of her father and the betrayal of her on screen love interest and off screen best friend Ransom Joel Liv wanted nothing more than to retreat living a mostly normal life aside from a few indie film roles But now twenty years after the show's premiere the cast is invited back for a reunion special financed by a major streaming service Liv is happy to be back on set especially once she discovers Ransom has only improved with age And their chemistry is certainly still intact They quickly fall into their old rhythms rediscovering what had drawn them together decades before But with new rivalries among the cast emerging and the specter of a reboot shadowing their shoot Liv questions whether returning to the past is what she needs to finally get her own happy ending

Television Series and Specials Scripts, 1946-1992, 2009-10-21 In the early days of television many of its actors writers producers and directors came from radio This crossover endowed the American Radio Archives with a treasure trove of television documents The collected scripts span more than 40 years of American television history from live broadcasts of the 1940s to the late 1980s They also cover the entire spectrum of television entertainment programming including comedies soap operas dramas westerns and crime series The archives cover nearly 1 200 programs represented by more than 6 000 individual scripts Includes an index of personal names program and episode titles and production companies as well as a glossary of industry terms

Air Corps News Letter, 1951 Starring Red Wing! Linda M. Waggoner, 2019 The epic biography Starring Red Wing brings the exciting career dedicated activism and noteworthy legacy of Ho Chunk actress Lilian Margaret St Cyr vividly to life Known to film audiences as Princess Red Wing St Cyr emerged as the most popular Native American actress in the pre Hollywood and early studio system era in the United States Today St Cyr is known for her portrayal of Naturich in Cecile B DeMille's The Squaw Man 1914 although DeMille claimed to have discovered the little Indian girl the viewing public had already long adored her as a petite daredevil Indian heroine She befriended and worked with icons such as Mary Pickford Jewell Carmen Tom Mix Max Sennett and William Selig Born on the Winnebago Reservation in 1884 and orphaned in 1888 she spent ten years in Indian boarding schools before graduating from the Carlisle Indian Industrial School in 1902 She married James Young Johnson and in 1907 the couple reinvented themselves as the stage personas Princess Red Wing and Young Deer performing in Wild West shows around New York and beginning their film careers As their popularity grew St Cyr and Johnson decamped from the East Coast and helped establish the second motion picture company in Southern California where Red Wing became a Native American leading lady in westerns until her career waned in 1917 After returning to the reservation to work as a housekeeper she took her show on a two year tour to educate the public about Native culture and lived out her life in New York performing educating and crafting regalia Starring Red Wing is a sweeping narrative of St Cyr's evolution as America's first Native American film star from her childhood and performance career to her days as a respected elder of the multi tribal New York City Indian Community 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J.

Olson,2018-04-12 The term cult film may be difficult to define but one thing is certain A cult film is any movie that has developed a rabid following for one reason or another From highly influential works of pop art like Eraserhead and Faster Pussycat Kill Kill to trash masterpieces such as Miami Connection and Fateful Findings thousands of movies have earned recognition as cult classics over the years and new movies rise to cult status every year So how do viewers searching for the best or most important cult films decide where to start In 100 Greatest Cult Films Christopher J Olson highlights the most provocative intriguing entertaining and controversial films produced over the last century The movies included here have either earned reputations as bona fide cult classics or have in some way impacted our understanding of cult cinema often transcending traditional notions of good and bad while featuring memorable characters unforgettably shocking scenes and exceptionally quotable dialogue With detailed arguments for why these films deserve to be considered among the greatest of all time Olson provides readers fodder for debate and a jumping off point for future watching A thought provoking and accessible look at dozens of cinematic treasures this resource includes valuable information on the films creators and institutions that have shaped cult cinema Ultimately The 100 Greatest Cult Films offers readers from casual cinephiles film scholars and avid fans alike a chance to discover or re discover some of the most memorable films of all time Catalog of

Fully revised updated and extended the fifth edition of Hollywood's America provides an important compilation of interpretive essays and primary documents that allows students to read films as cultural artifacts within the contexts of actual past events A new edition of this classic textbook which ties movies into the broader narrative of US and film history This fifth edition contains nine new chapters with a greater overall emphasis on recent film history and new primary source documents which are unavailable online Entries range from the first experiments with motion pictures all the way to the present day Well organized within a chronological framework with thematic treatments to provide a valuable resource for students of the history of American film Hollywood's African American Films Ryan Jay Friedman,2011 In 1929 and 1930 during the Hollywood studios conversion to synchronized sound film production white controlled trade magazines and African American newspapers celebrated a vogue for Negro films Hollywood's African American Films argues that the movie business turned to black musical performance to both resolve technological and aesthetic problems introduced by the medium of talking pictures and at the same time to appeal to the white Broadway audience that patronized their most lucrative first run theaters Capitalizing on highbrow associations with white slumming in African American cabarets and on the cultural linkage between popular black musical styles and natural acoustics studios produced a series of African American cast and white cast films featuring African American sequences Ryan Jay Friedman asserts that these transitional films reflect contradictions within prevailing racial ideologies arising most clearly in the movies treatment of African American characters decisions to migrate Regardless of how the films represent these choices they all prompt elaborate visual and narrative structures of containment that tend to highlight rather than suppress historical tensions surrounding African American social mobility Jim Crow codes and white exploitation of black labor
