Revolution In Zanzibar An Americans Cold War Tale:

Revolution In Zanzibar Donald Petterson,2009-04-21 The Cold War exploded in Zanzibar in 1964 when African rebels slaughtered one of every ten Arabs Led by a strange messianic Ugandan Cuban trained factions headed the rebels making Zanzibar in the eyes of Washington a potentially cancerous base for the communist subversion of mainland Africa Exotic Zanzibar fabled island of spices former slave trading entrept and stepping off point for 19th century expeditions into the vast interior of the Dark Continent had succumbed to the terror of 20th century revolution and Cold War intrigue In the vivid eyewitness tradition of The Bang Bang Club and The Skull beneath the Skin Donald Petterson weaves an engrossing tale of human drama played out against a background of violence and horror As the only American in Zanzibar throughout the revolution Petterson reports with the inside authority of a highly placed diplomatic observer illuminating how the current troubles in Zanzibar are rooted in the Cold War and the revolution of 1964

Slavery and Emancipation in Islamic East Africa Elisabeth McMahon,2013-04-30 Examining the process of abolition on the island of Pemba off the East African coast in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries this book demonstrates the links between emancipation and the redefinition of honour among all classes of people on the island By examining the social vulnerability of ex slaves and the former slave owning elite caused by the abolition order of 1897 this study argues that moments of resistance on Pemba reflected an effort to mitigate vulnerability rather than resist the hegemonic power of elites or the colonial state As the meaning of the Swahili word heshima shifted from honour to respectability individuals reputations came under scrutiny and the Islamic kadhi and colonial courts became an integral location for interrogating reputations in the community This study illustrates the ways in which former slaves used piety reputation gossip education kinship and witchcraft to negotiate the gap between emancipation and local notions of belonging

Contemporary Issues in Swahili Ethnography Iain Walker,2018-10-11 The term Swahili describes the Muslim peoples of the East African coast speakers of Kiswahili or closely related languages who have historically filled roles as middlemen and merchants the cosmopolitan products of a trading economy between Africa and the Indian Ocean world This collection brings together anthropologists working on the greater Swahili world and the issues it confronts dealing with societies from southern Somalia northern Mozambique and the Comoro Islands to Zanzibar and Mafia The authors discuss a range of contemporary issues such as the shifting roles of Islam on the mainland coast consumerism conservation memory and belonging in Zanzibar how a Muslim society deals with HIV AIDS social change development and political strategies in the Comoros and Swahili women in London The diversity of these themes reflects the diversity of the Swahili world itself despite a cohesive cultural identity built upon shared practices religious beliefs and language the challenges facing Swahili people are multiple and complex This book comprises articles originally published in the Journal of Eastern African Studies along with some new chapters

Negotiating Memory from the Romans to the Twenty-First Century Øivind Fuglerud,Kjersti Larsen,Marina Prusac-Lindhagen,2020-09-14

Manipulation of the past and forced erasure of memories have been global phenomena throughout history spanning a varied repertoire from the destruction or alteration of architecture sites and images to the banning or imposing of old and new practices The present volume addresses these questions comparatively across time and geography and combines a material approach to the study of memory with cross disciplinary empirical explorations of historical and contemporary cases This approach positions the volume as a reference point within several fields of humanities and social sciences The collection brings together scholars from different fields within humanities and social science to engage with memorialization and damnatio memoriae across disciplines using examples from their own research The broad chronological and comparative scope makes the volume relevant for researchers and students of several historical periods and geographic regions

Modern Architecture in Africa Antoni S. Folkers,Belinda A. C. van Buiten,2019-07-22 This book offers unique insights into modern African architecture influenced by modern European architecture and at the same time a natural successor to existing site specific and traditional architecture It brings together the worlds of traditional site specific architecture with the Modernist Project in Africa which to date have only been considered in isolation The book covers the four architectural disciplines urban planning building technology building physics and conservation It includes an introduction with a historical outline and an analysis and comparison of a number of projects in various countries in Africa On the basis of examples drawn from practice the author documents and describes the hybrid architectural forms that have emerged from the confrontation and fusion with pre modern Western architecture and urban planning and in so doing he also narrates the history of African architecture

Encyclopedia of the Cold War Ruud van Dijk,William Glenn Gray,Svetlana Savranskaya,Jeremi Suri,Qiang Zhai,2013-05-13 Between 1945 and 1991 tension between the USA its allies and a group of nations led by the USSR dominated world politics This period was called the Cold War a conflict that stopped short to a full blown war Benefiting from the recent research of newly open archives the Encyclopedia of the Cold War discusses how this state of perpetual tensions arose developed and was resolved This work examines the military economic diplomatic and political evolution of the conflict as well as its impact on the different regions and cultures of the world Using a unique geopolitical approach that will present Russian perspectives and others the work covers all aspects of the Cold War from communism to nuclear escalation and from UFOs to red diaper babies highlighting its vast ranging and lasting impact on international relations as well as on daily life Although the work will focus on the 1945 1991 period it will explore the roots of the conflict starting with the formation of the Soviet state and its legacy to the present day

Practising Self-Government Yash Ghai,Sophia Woodman,2013-08-29 Autonomy provides a framework that allows for regions within countries to exercise self government beyond the extent available to other sub state units This book presents detailed case studies of thirteen such autonomies from around the world in which noted experts on each outline the constitutional legal and institutional frameworks as well as how these arrangements have worked in practice to protect minority rights and prevent secession of the territories in question The volume s editors draw on the case studies to provide a comparative analysis of how autonomy works and the political and institutional conditions under which it is likely to become a workable arrangement for management of the differences that brought it into being
