The Art of Robyn Denny David Mellor, Robyn Denny, 2002 Robyn Denny was a London painter in the 1960s This text re-examines the little known Denny of the late 1970s to the present setting it alongside his more renowned painting from the 60s Global Warming, Militarism and Nonviolence

M. Branagan, 2013-06-28 Militarism is the elephant in the room of global warming Of all government sectors Defence has the highest carbon footprint and expenditure yet has largely been exempt from international scrutiny and regulation Marty Branagan uses Australian and international case studies to show that nonviolence is a viable alternative to militarism for national defence and regime change Active resistance initiated in Australian environmental blockades and now adopted globally makes the song We Shall Not Be Moved much more realistic as activists erect tripod villages bury chain and cement themselves into the ground and lock on to machinery and gates Active resistance artistic activism and use of new information and communication technologies in movements such as the Arab Spring and Occupy demonstrate that nonviolence is an effective evolving praxis

How Arts Education Makes a Difference Josephine Fleming, Robyn Gibson, Michael Anderson, 2015-12-22 This book presents ground breaking research on the ways the Arts fosters motivation and engagement in both academic and non academic domains It reports on mixed method international research that investigated how the Arts make a difference in the lives of young people Drawing on the findings of a longitudinal quantitative study led by the internationally renowned educational psychologist Andrew Martin the book examines the impact of arts involvement in the academic outcomes of 643 students and reports on the in depth qualitative research that investigates what constitutes best practice in learning and teaching in the Arts The book also examines drama dance music visual arts and film classrooms to construct an understanding of quality pedagogy in these classrooms With its evidence based but highly accessible approach this book will be directly and immediately relevant to those interested in the Arts as a force for change in schooling How Arts Education Makes a Difference discusses The Arts Education Motivation Engagement and Achievement Research Visual Arts Drama and Music in Classrooms Technology mediated Arts Engagement International Perspectives on Arts and Cultural Policies in Education This book is a timely collation of research and experiential findings which support the need to promote arts education in schools worldwide It will be particularly useful for educationists researchers in education and arts advocates

Magic Collapse Wilton Burke, 2024-05-10 Magic is the lifeblood of Arthenia a realm where floating islands drift under windswept skies and enchantments weave through everyday life But when the threads of magic unravel the lives of all who depend on it are in danger For Robyn a skilled swordsmith and mage never imagined she d have to face a world without her spells Leonin whose unpredictable powers have already caused disaster it could spell utter ruin Garrick born without magic and hardened by a harsh upbringing sees this collapse as his chance to escape the kingdom s oppressive grip By chance their paths intertwine on a ship that sails through the skies Ships don t fly As they venture across Arthenia s floating islands they encounter wild unpredictable forces islands cursed with transformations elemental beings of ice water and fire and the ominous influence of those who would see the kingdom descend into chaos An adversary Lance a human turned magpie mage is determined to seize control of magical artifacts and has taken great interest in an heirloom of Robyn s a crystal necklace which holds secrets crucial to unearthing the truth behind the collapse As powerful foes close in Robyn Leonin Garrick and their unexpected companion Cloudberry an otter with a knack for mischief must learn to rely on one another In a world where trust is as fragile as magic itself they might just discover that together they can face whatever this shattered sky throws at them With every step the skies grow darker and the stakes higher If they fail Arthenia s magic won t just fade it will shatter taking the kingdom and everyone in it down with it      Earnest Games Carl Lindahl,1989-09-22 In Earnest Games Carl Lindahl recovers a folkloric world long hidden from readers of Chaucer Lindahl is the first critic to demonstrate how the poem reflects the social and artistic patterns of medieval folk performance Combining current approaches from the fields of literary criticism social history and folklore Earnest Games begins with a study of Chaucer s setting and characters Lindahl discovers that Chaucer gives each community the gentils the churls and the pilgrims a game strategy that faithfully reflects the social realities of the English Middle Ages      Quill & Quire ,2002
