Rockford 1920 And Beyond Illinois Postcard History Series:

Rockford Eric A. Johnson, 2004 Rockford's economic boom of the early twentieth century continued into the Roaring Twenties when Rockford's newly erected skyscrapers symbolized the city's sky's the limit ambitions. But the good times came to a crashing halt with the arrival of the Great Depression in October 1929. With its longstanding blue collar industrial roots, Rockford would enjoy renewed and even greater prosperity as it readily capitalized on the World War II war effort and the post war economic boom years. With a collection of nearly 240 vintage postcards, Rockford 1920 and Beyond captures this dynamic ever changing era as Rockford transformed into Illinois Second City. Inside see now familiar skyscrapers like the Rockford News Tower, Talcott Building and Faust Hotel enliven Rockford's downtown skyline. Take a nostalgic trip to the Blackhawk Park Zoo and the Central Park and Kiddieland amusement parks. Watch post war car culture change the face of the city with its drive ins, shopping centers and expressways. Witness the World War II revival of Rockford's storied Camp Grant. See the famed Wagon Wheel Resort in its high flying star studded Hollywood heydays. Marvel at the destructive power of Rockford's deadly Cyclone of '28.

Ashtabula Firefighting Eric Allen Johnson, 2006 The story of firefighting in Ashtabula is almost as old as the community itself, beginning with the informal citizen bucket brigades of frontier necessity in the early decades of the 1800s. Between 1836 and 1911 the burgeoning Lake Erie port and manufacturing city was served by a cadre of dedicated volunteer fire companies, including the celebrated award winning Protection Fire Company. Ashtabula's rapid growth spurred the October 25, 1911 transformation of the city's longstanding volunteer fire corps into a paid full time professional fire department. With over 200 archival images drawn from the Ashtabula Fire Department, the private collections of retired city firefighters and local newspaper and museum archives, Ashtabula Firefighting highlights 170 years of firefighting heritage.

Rockford Eric A. Johnson, 2003-01-01 During the early decades of the 20th century, communication by postcard was an inexpensive and popular means of exchanging travel stories, news, and gossip across the United States. For just a few cents, each postcard connected friends and family separated by hundreds of miles. Rockford 1900: World War I with a collection of nearly 240 vintage postcard images captures the details of this dynamic era and documents the Forest City's coming of age. Inside are views of Rockford's bustling downtown, including rare glimpses of long gone landmarks like the Grand Opera House and Orpheum Theater. Witness history in the making with Rockford's first recorded airplane flights in 1911 and experience U.S. Army doughboy life at Rockford's Camp Grant. Be there for Teddy Roosevelt's historic visits to Rockford and marvel at the intrepid companies that turned Rockford into a national manufacturing power.

Bloomington-Normal in Vintage Postcards Elaine J. Taylor, 2002 Bloomington and Normal have grown from small pioneer settlements into the Twin Cities of central Illinois, linked by their proximity and shared history. Surviving and rebuilding after a devastating fire in 1900, the area has continued to grow and prosper. It is home to many businesses, including State Farm, the nation's largest auto and homeowners insurance company. The vintage postcards in this collection feature the delights and difficulties of Bloomington Normal at the turn of the century These images capture historic events such as the Street Car Strike of 1917 in which workers took their demands to the streets The businesses that closed up shop years ago are opened again through these historic postcards many of which were originally produced by Bloomington based postcard publisher C U Williams      Pekin and Tremont, Illinois in Vintage Postcards Donald L. Nieukirk,2000 From 1898 through the middle of World War I the postcard was an extraordinarily popular means of communication and many of the postcards produced during this golden age are today considered works of art Postcard photographers traveled the length and breadth of the nation snapping photographs of busy street scenes documenting local landmarks and assembling crowds of local children only too happy to pose for a picture These images printed as postcards and sold in general stores across the country survive as telling reminders of an important era in America s history This fascinating new history of Pekin and Tremont Illinois showcases more than 200 of the best vintage postcards available      Rockford Today Rockford Morning Star Staff,1997-05-01      Rockford Jon W. Lundin,1989      Around Little Rock Steven G. Hanley,Ray Hanley,2000
