Subject Guide to Books in Print ,2001 Blazing Heritage Hal K. Rothman,2007-04-12 National parks played a unique role in the development of wildfire management on American public lands With a different mission and powerful meaning to the public the national parks were a psychic battleground for the contests between fire suppression and its use as a management tool Blazing Heritage tells how the national parks shaped federal fire management Proceedings RMRS. ,1998 Strategies for Bird Conservation ,2000 This volume represents a compilation of papers presented at the 3rd International Partners in Flight Workshop held October 1 5 1995 at the Grand Hotel in Cape May NJ The title of the workshop was Partners in Flight Conservation Plan Building Consensus for Action Manuscripts have been available on line at the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology web site <http://birds.cornell.edu/pifcapemay> since the year 1999 and the majority of them have been updated recently to reflect knowledge available by the 2000 publication date The volume is divided into seven sections that range from general planning considerations to a case study in bird conservation planning References from all papers are compiled in a single References section at the end of the volume Kootenai National Forest (N.F.) East Fortine Timber Sales, Lincoln County ,1991 Bowker's Complete Video Directory ,2000 Landscapes of Promise William G. Robbins,2009-11-23 Landscapes of Promise is the first comprehensive environmental history of the early years of a state that has long been associated with environmental protection Covering the period from early human habitation to the end of World War II William Robbins shows that the reality of Oregon s environmental history involves far more than a discussion of timber cutting and land use planning Robbins demonstrates that ecological change is not only a creation of modern industrial society Native Americans altered their environment in a number of ways including the planned annual burning of grasslands and light burning of understory forest debris Early Euro American settlers who thought they were taming a virgin wilderness were merely imposing a new set of alterations on an already modified landscape Beginning with the first 18th century traders on the Pacific Coast alterations to Oregon s landscape were closely linked to the interests of global market forces Robbins uses period speeches and publications to document the increasing commodification of the landscape and its products Environment melts before the man who is in earnest wrote one Oregon booster in 1905 reflecting prevailing ways of thinking In an impressive synthesis of primary sources and historical analysis Robbins traces the transformation of the Oregon landscape and the evolution of our attitudes toward the natural world United States Congressional Serial Set Catalog ,1993 CIS Annual ,2007 Rewilding European Landscapes Henrique M. Pereira,Laetitia M. Navarro,2015-05-04 Some European lands have been progressively alleviated of human pressures particularly traditional agriculture in remote areas This book proposes that this land abandonment can be seen as an opportunity to restore natural ecosystems via rewilding We define rewilding as the passive management of ecological successions having in mind the long term goal of restoring natural ecosystem processes The book aims at introducing the concept of rewilding to scientists students and practitioners The first part presents the theory of rewilding in the European context The second part of the book directly addresses the link between rewilding biodiversity and habitats The third and last part is dedicated to practical aspects of the implementation of rewilding as a land management option We believe that this book will both set the basis for future research on rewilding and help practitioners think about how rewilding can take place in areas under their management Interpretation of Cultural and Natural Resources Douglas M. Knudson, Ted T.
