The Fifth French Republic Nicholas Atkin, 2017-10-07 At the time of its founding few predicted that the Fifth Republic would survive It is a regime whose obituary has been written several times over but which stubbornly refuses to die Adopting a chronological framework this up to date study examines how the regime emerged out of the chaos of the Algerian crisis how its political evolution has been very different from that envisaged by de Gaulle and why it has endured Nicholas Atkin explains the success of the Fifth Republic but likewise illustrates the underlying problems within it As the 2002 presidential elections have shown although there is little prospect of regime change liberal democracy is not in a particularly healthy state While the political narrative takes centre stage Atkin also explores the key social economic and international developments which have shaped the modern history of France and affected its standing both in Europe and the rest of the world

The Fixer Omnibus: Volume One Andrew Vaillencourt, Roland Tankowicz wasn't even legally a person anymore The aging cyborg had never really recovered from being betrayed and enslaved by his superiors in the Army and the final insult of being permanently classified as defunct military ordnance had been a bitter pill to swallow For the last three decades he's avoided dealing with this by drinking beer and working as a fixer for the crime families in 25th century Boston It's easy money when you're the kind of guy who is bullet proof and can pick up a house But then Lucia Ribiero stumbles into his favorite watering hole dragging a squad of bounty hunters behind her Shadows from his own dark past and old debts still unpaid conspire to drive the old war horse out for one more mission Like any good soldier the mission is all that matters for Roland What follows is action and adventure on a scale the galaxy may never recover from In this volume be prepared to see Roland fight cyborgs gangsters mercenaries crime lords mutants and at least one angry corporate executive as he starts down the ugly path to redemption The guns will blaze and fists will fly but before the dust settles a whole galaxy's worth of mad science gone awry will learn a painful lesson about letting sleeping dogs lie Collected here are the first three full length novels in the critically acclaimed tech noir phenomenon known as THE FIXER

Margaret Fuller : An American Romantic Life Volume 1: The Private Years Chapel Hill Charles Capper Associate Professor of History University of North Carolina, 1992-09-11 With this first volume of a two part biography of the Transcendentalist critic and feminist leader Margaret Fuller Capper has launched the premier modern biography of early America's best known intellectual woman Based on a thorough examination of all the first hand sources

many of them never before used this volume is filled with original portraits of Fuller's numerous friends and colleagues and the influential movements that enveloped them. Writing with a strong narrative sweep, Capper focuses on the central problem of Fuller's life: her identity as a female intellectual and presents the first biography of Fuller to do full justice to its engrossing subject. This first volume chronicles Fuller's private years: her gradual, tangled but fascinating emergence out of the private life of family study, Boston, Cambridge, socializing, and anonymous magazine writing to the beginnings of her rebirth as antebellum America's female prophet-critic. Capper's biography is at once an evocative portrayal of an extraordinary woman and a comprehensive study of an avant-garde American intellectual type at the beginning of its first creation. Mitterrand, the End of the Cold War, and German Unification Frédéric Bozo, 2009-10. This book explores the role of France in the events leading up to the end of the Cold War and German unification. From publisher description: The Last Decade of the Cold War Olav Njolstad, 2004-08-02. The 1980s was a period of almost unprecedented rivalry and tension between the two main actors in the East-West conflict: the United States and the Soviet Union. Why and how that conflict first escalated and thereafter in an amazingly swift process was reversed and brought to its peaceful conclusion at the end of the decade is the topic of this volume. With individual contributions by eighteen well-known scholars of international relations and history from various countries, the book addresses the role of the United States, the former Soviet Union, and the countries of western and eastern Europe in that remarkable last decade of the Cold War and discusses how particular events as well as underlying political, ideological, social, and economic factors may have contributed to the remarkable transformation that took place.

Flashpoint Epistemology Volume 1 Bernadette Baker, Antti Saari, Liang Wang, Hannah Tavares, 2023-12-19. The 21st century is steeped in claims to interconnection, technological innovation, and new affective intensities amid challenges to the primacy and centrality of the human. Flashpoint epistemology attends to the lived difficulties that arise in teaching, policymaking, curriculum, and research among continuous practices of differentiation and for which there is no pre-existing template for judgment, resolution, or action. Flashpoint Epistemology Volume 1 examines contemporary collisions and reworkings of cultural, political issues in education through arts and humanities-based approaches. How and whether lines are re-drawn in educational practice and via who/what between justice, morality, religion, ethics, subjectivities, intersectionality, the sublime, and the senses are a particular focus. The volume offers innovative relational approaches and new narrativization strategies examining the aporia experienced when operating in educational domains of inevitable, recurring, difficult, fortuitous, and/or unforeseen flashpoints. The chapters will engage researchers seeking new approaches to education's complexities, nested discourses, and ever-moving horizons of enactment. It will also benefit postgraduate students and teachers whose work intersects with sociological, philosophical, and cultural studies and who are curious about claims to interconnection, the ethical quandaries embedded in practice, and the affordances and limits of technological innovation.
