Role Of The Church In Aging:

The Role of the Church in Aging: Implications for policy and action Michael C. Hendrickson, 1985 This informative volume examines the multidimensional nature of aging identifies key issues involved in meeting the needs of the growing numbers of older adults and suggests effective methods of mobilizing resources to better meet the needs of the aging population The Role of the Church in Aging, 1987

The Role of the Church in Aging Michael C. Hendrickson, 1986 Insightful commentary on the current status of the religious sector's involvement in the fields of aging and long term care

The Role of the Church in Aging Michael C. Hendrickson, 1987 In this motivating book professionals explore an array of programs for the elderly all sponsored by religious organizations that have been successfully implemented in communities throughout the United States Their common goal is to meet the social emotional religious and health needs of the elderly Religious organizations constitute by far the largest single network of voluntary community organizations serving the needs of elderly in American society Experts thoroughly examine the programs including potential residents services provided and financial resources Topics include geriatric health clinics in the community day centers for older adults share a home legal guardianship congregate housing retirement homes long term care facilities and more The Role of the Church in Aging, Volume 2 Michael C. Hendrickson, 1986 The Role of the Church in Aging, 1985 Aging in the Modern World United States. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Library, United States. Office of Aging, 1964 Practical Theology for Aging Derrell R. Watkins, 2013-01-11 Learn new approaches for strengthening the religious bonds of our aging population Through Scripture studies and the personal experiences of religious leaders and congregants Practical Theology for Aging offers new concepts for ministering to our older population Each chapter looks at a different concern for the elderly and addresses it with the assurance that aging is part of God's great work From scientific models and case studies to passages from both the Old and New Testaments this volume illuminates the power of faith in keeping the elderly whole and well Practical Theology for Aging reveals several barriers to the spiritual wellness of our elders These include society's stereotypical views of frailty and incompetence in older people the lack of common support by communities of faith and the dissatisfaction of the elderly with outdated traditional answers to their concerns of aging suffering and death Each barrier can be overcome by utilizing the practical theology you will find in this book Restated throughout the volume is the message that the journey into old age does not have to be filled with dread and fear but can be seen as a path to spiritual maturity This book has practical suggestions that address God's purpose for aging why do we have to grow old sexual health for senior citizens the suffering and physical debilitation that sometimes accompany aging afflictions like dementia and Alzheimer's disease and how to minister to the unresponsive the inclusion of spirituality in rehabilitation to heal the whole person after catastrophic illness or injury preaching to senior citizens as opposed to preaching to a younger congregation so much more Practical Theology for Aging presents tips and strategies for spiritual advisement as well as traditional quotes and references reminding us to respect and honor our aging men and women Whether you are a religious leader caretaker family member or esteemed elder this book is vital for strengthening spirituality in the elderly and promoting their inclusion into the religious community The Collective Spirit of Aging Across Cultures Halaevalu F.Ofahengaue Vakalahi,Gaynell M. Simpson,Nancy Giunta,2014-01-28 The collective inclusive and intersectional framework used in this book speaks to the significance of understanding aging across diverse cultures from multiple perspectives but still as a shared human experience The underlying message of the book is that although we are unique and different in our aging processes we are ultimately connected through this physical mental and spiritual experience of aging Thus regardless of whether we are service providers service recipients educators or merely fellow human beings it is important that we approach the aging experience through a collective lens for discovering and sharing resources as we age honoring the past while simultaneously accepting that the future is here A few select examples of key findings from this collaborative work are as follows First despite progress in the field certain issues remain to be addressed including the challenges of racism and sexism mistreatment the digital divide poverty and other social and economic crises in urban and rural communities as they relate to our aging population Second the need for sustaining a sense of independence among the aged and interdependence among supportive systems is warranted Third our elders continue to benefit from culturally competent services community based health interventions and social services that addresses normative and emerging challenges for them Fourth spirituality in both indigenous and contemporary perspectives remains important for our elders development and quality of life Introduction to Educational Gerontology Ronald H. Sherron,D. Barry Lumsden,1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Process of Aging and the Role of the Church Alice Lowry,1954 Words on Aging United States. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare. Library,1970 Annotated references of selected articles 1963 1967 and books 1900 1967 1968 about aging Includes government documents and reports Legislation not covered Entries arranged by broad topics Author subject indexes Complements previous publications Aging in the modern world 1964 and Selected references on aging 1959 Enabling the Elderly Sheldon S. Tobin,James W. Ellor, A.C.S.W.,Susan M. Anderson-Ray, A.M.,2012-02-01 Here three gerontological professionals have combined their diverse backgrounds in a timely and urgently needed study of how religious institutions interact with their communities to provide care for the elderly In an easily accessible and well written text actual and potential services are described and ways of enhancing religious agency collaboration are suggested Data are presented from studies in four communities and in a variety of provider settings The book begins with an overview of aging in modern society followed by a discussion of the vital importance of spiritual well being for elderly women and men today The authors show how church and synagogue can provide services for elderly persons highlighting ways in which intentions can be translated into programs A second section identifies diverse categories of elderly persons in the community and their physical social emotional and spiritual needs It suggests opportunities for religious organizations to address these needs particularly through collaboration with service agencies Programs currently provided by synagogues and churches are detailed A final section examines the benefits of institutions working together with service agencies on potential problem areas It provides ways to enhance the partnership from simple communication to cooperation coordination collaboration and even confederation The book concludes with a useful model developed from the authors original research that can enhance interaction between churches and synagogues and service agencies

Ministry With the Aging William M Clements, 2013-04-03 Ministry With the Aging the one most frequently used textbook in seminary courses that deal with ministry and aging is now available from The Haworth Press Here is a genuinely useful and informative text in which an all star cast of authors reflects on the current situation of the aged in our society Ministry With the Aging encourages a deeper appreciation of the presence and role of aging people with contemporary religion addresses the challenges that the church and society face in a rapidly aging society and provides practical applications for an effective ministry with the aging Each chapter whether it focuses on the role of the elderly in the early church death and dying ageism retirement or caring for elderly parents is written by an eminent scholar who has chosen only the most relevant issues for discussion A past runner up for the Book of the Year Award by the Academy of Parish Clergy Ministry With the Aging is a landmark volume that can offer theology students a unique and insightful look at how they can best meet the needs of their elderly parishioners

Faith-based Initiatives and Aging Services F. Ellen Netting, James W. Ellor, 2004 Religious congregations and faith based organizations FBO from the Jewish Christian and Islamic traditions have worked on behalf of older adults for centuries But the initiation of President Bush s Office of Faith Based Initiatives has raised many questions from both the traditional secular and sectarian services as well as many nontraditional services found in each community Faith Based Initiatives and Aging Services addresses the issues of the separation of church and state the concerns involved in developing social services in religious congregations and the larger public policy implications of this office This unique book offers perspectives from traditional and nontraditional faith based groups as well as experts in volunteerism

The Church in the Modern Age Jeremy Morris, 2007-03-28 Given the diversity and complexity of developments in the twentieth century a history of the Christian Church in the modern period is in some ways the most challenging volume of all to write But Jeremy Morris succeeds in presenting a coherent account of the Church He emphasises the changing relationship of Western churches to the many forms of Christianity in other parts of the world while also departing from the Eurocentric worldview of previous histories His volume offers three major perspectives The first is political in which the history of the modern Church is assessed through a prism of international conflicts and international relations The second perspective is regional in which coverage is given not only to Europe and the Americas but to Christianity in Africa the Middle East Asia the Pacific Rim and Australasia The author s third major perspective is institutional in which he discusses particular Christian traditions and their relationships with each other with other faiths and with wider cultures An epilogue evaluates the future and prospects for

Christianity in the new millennium      Ministry and Aging Elizabeth Lockhart Manker,1990      The Living Church ,1982

Ageing as a Migrant Ruxandra Oana Ciobanu,Tineke Fokkema,Mihaela Nedelcu,2020-06-29 Motivated by the steady increase in the population of older migrants worldwide this book acknowledges the diversity within this population group and provides an interdisciplinary and multi level approach for studying older migrants strategies to overcome vulnerability The book brings together original research on the topics of diversity among older migrants social vulnerability loneliness transnational care and support networks Based on a review of the growing literature on the topic of older migrants and anchored in the empirical findings discussed in the chapters the book puts forward a general approach to study older migrants as social actors who develop strategies to surpass vulnerabilities As documented by empirical research older migrants mobilise their resources and are able to deal with structural opportunities and restrictions operating at meso and macro levels These strategies are placed at the intersection between family obligations and resources social networks and migration and care regimes The interdisciplinary and multi level research in this book acknowledges the heterogeneity within the population of older migrants and puts forward research results that have implications for policies targeting the growing population of older migrants This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies      Reading the Bible in the Age of Francis Micah D. Kiel,2019-06-13 Pope Francis has taken the world by storm He is the most prominent Christian voice in our world today How does he incorporate Scripture into his ministry and what does Scripture say about those things he emphasizes This book will explore within Scripture the bedrock themes of Francis time as Pope such as the poor women a God of surprises mercy the environment and excessive legalism What we find is that a diversity of biblical perspectives provide deep theological support or precedent for Francis agenda Both Francis and Scripture call Christians today to live in dramatically new ways in our world
