Rollercoaster A Cancer Journey:

Strength for the Cancer Journey Deborah Barr, 2020-07-07 Though the Road is Long You Don't Have to Walk Alone There's nothing easy about having cancer For most people cancer is a hard reluctant journey through rugged unfamiliar terrain Ultimately however there are really only two ways to face cancer in our own strength or with the help and strength that God supplies Strength for the Cancer Journey provides empathetic daily reminders that God is present for anyone facing the challenges of cancer Each of these thirty devotionals draws upon anecdotes and insights from God's Word to help readers invite God into the realities uncertainties and frustrations of their cancer experience While cancer is a journey no one wants to take no one ever has to walk that road alone This devotional book will help both patients and caregivers to engage deeply with God gaining new strength for the cancer journey

Data Analytics in Cognitive Linguistics Dennis Tay, Molly Xie Pan, 2022-05-09 Contemporary data analytics involves extracting insights from data and translating them into action With its turn towards empirical methods and convergent data sources cognitive linguistics is a fertile context for data analytics There are key differences between data analytics and statistical analysis as typically conceived Though the former requires the latter it emphasizes the role of domain specific knowledge Statistical analysis also tends to be associated with preconceived hypotheses and controlled data Data analytics on the other hand can help explore unstructured datasets and inspire emergent questions This volume addresses two key aspects in data analytics for cognitive linguistic work Firstly it elaborates the bottom up guiding role of data analytics in the research trajectory and how it helps to formulate and refine questions Secondly it shows how data analytics can suggest concrete courses of research based action which is crucial for cognitive linguistics to be truly applied The papers in this volume impart various data analytic methods and report empirical studies across different areas of research and application They aim to benefit new and experienced researchers alike

Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness, Dying and Bereavement Irene Renzenbrink, 2011-03-25 The need for renewal and support for those who care for seriously ill dying and bereaved people has been acknowledged from the very beginning of the hospice and palliative care movement While often referring to the rewards and satisfactions of the work Dame Cicely Saunders was the first to acknowledge that helping encounters with dying patients and distressed relatives could be a source of anguish and grief for dedicated and compassionate carers Caregiver Stress and Staff Support in Illness Dying and Bereavement discusses the challenge of finding a balance between the support needs of patients families and staff and the resources available With contributions from practitioners and researchers from around the world this book recognizes that palliative care today is being provided in many different settings and that there may be wide variations in the way individuals and organizations identify and manage the stressors that arise through the work This unique collection of international perspectives on the complexities and management of caregiver stress and staff support builds on the firm foundation Mary Vachon built over thirty years ago in her studies yet broadens the scope to include significant social political and cultural variations on the theme

The Art of Radical Self-Love Mary Joosten Lopata, RN, 2024-08-06 The Art of Radical Self Love provides a dynamic range of self empowerment tools that nourish the journey to wellness This guide treats healing as it truly is an art that flows with the patient as needs fluctuate and shift to the ever changing circumstances despite today's corporate dictated healthcare system A nurse is someone who delivers direct patient care and acts as an advocate and health educator for patients and families To most this sounds like more than just tender loving care To others it may create fear causing them to struggle and ignore their inherent healing power of self love You see most people don't realize that a deep love for themselves is essential to the healing process a most radical concept As a professional nurse for more than 30 years Mary Joosten Lopata RN not only assisted with patient care she also observed patients and wondered why the same treatment often resulted in vastly different outcomes Then one day her perspective changed when she was unexpectedly stricken with illness Mary now became the patient and her life was suddenly under the microscope Had Mary's training as a Holistic nurse betrayed her Or was she now learning to restore wellness from a new source In The Art of Radical Self Love Mary Joosten Lopata shares her healing journey from the wisdom of a nurse and the heart of a vulnerable patient to someone with a life that now overflows with newfound self love Includes Affirmations for Wellbeing Exercises Follow up Thoughts

natural phenomenon inherent to the human condition This book critically investigates the uniquely human experience of and response to illness and treatment which affects the body the mind and the very core of human existence and identity Uncertainties regarding the outcomes of laboratory and other investigations that aid in the diagnosis and assessment of disease exacerbate the apprehension inherent to the diagnosis of incurable disease An excessively scientific approach may disregard the suffering patient The book begins by analysing the nature meaning and significance of hope in the context of disease and goes on to reflect on the language of medicine and the role of emotion ideology and politics in disease treatment and research The epilogue reflects on healing as distinct from physical cures Without hope there is no future without healing no holistic recovery The final chapters are devoted to the end of life period of this journey This book is a revision extension and reconceptualization of the original Afrikaans publication Hoop Heling en Harmonie Dink Nuut Oor Siekte en Genesing winner of the 2021 Andrew Murray Prize for Theological Publications

A Bump in the Road Susan Arnold, Brandon Arnold, 2007-09 Friday April 29 2005 Is this what shock feels like I feel like I m watching a movie on television I feel all the emotions and watch to see what happens next but the movie doesn t seem to end Susan Arnold was not prepared for the jarring life changes that accompanied her father s diagnosis of lung cancer Just like millions of families around the world Susan had to ask herself now what Arnold soon found out that health care professionals provide endless advice and information for cancer patients but there is precious little available for the families How do families cope with the loss of their normal lives along with the possible loss of a beloved family member Arnold started journaling her experiences in hopes of helping others on the same path In A Bump in the Road she bravely shares her story for all of those touched by this harrowing disease She records every emotion and thought with raw open honesty As the seasons changed she changed with them But above all Arnold discovered that there can be strength and beauty amidst the pain of saying good bye For families struggling with a loved one s cancer A Bump in the Road offers hope support and encouragement
