My Uncle Jacks A Logger:

My Uncle Jack's a Logger Luli Loyd, Rebecca Davies, 1995 Loggers' Handbook, 1967 Thrift Store Shoes Connie Lounsbury, 2011-12-27 Author Connie Lounsbury admits that at times she has been slow to listen to how God wants her to live Now immersed in the third act of her life she shares her blessings mistakes and the secret she carried during her childhood as she learned to hear Gods voice even in the most difficult times Lounsbury begins her story in 1950 on a frigid morning in rural Minnesota when at just nine years old she was terrified to hear her father shout The house is on fire Her father was able to save just a few items before their house burned down He had no insurance or job and so life was not easy for the family As Lounsbury details her journey through childhood and the years beyond she illustrates the importance of Gods presence during challenging times of teaching children about God and of living a faith filled life From remaking cast off clothing to buying shoes in thrift stores Lounsbury shares how her family somehow survived and even thrived by relying on love faith and a fierce determination to persevere despite many obstacles Thrift Store Shoes shares a poignant glimpse into one womans inspirational journey from when she first accepted Christ into her heart to today as her life continues in Gods grace and demonstrates that no matter what God is always with us Canadian Book Review Annual, 1996 *The nightingale. personal narrative scientific insights and the amazing revelations about the life of the forest make a compelling story Robin Wall Kimmerer author of Braiding Sweetgrass Suzanne Simard is a pioneer on the frontier of plant communication and intelligence her TED talks have been viewed by more than 10 million people worldwide In this her first book now available in paperback Simard brings us into her world the intimate world of the trees in which she brilliantly illuminates the fascinating and vital truths that trees are not simply the source of timber or pulp but are a complicated interdependent circle of life that forests are social cooperative creatures connected through underground networks by which trees communicate their vitality and vulnerabilities with communal lives not that different from our own Simard writes in inspiring illuminating and accessible ways how trees living side by side for hundreds of years have evolved how they learn and adapt their behaviors recognize neighbors compete and cooperate with one another with sophistication characteristics ascribed to human intelligence traits that are the essence of civil societies and at the center of it all the Mother Trees the mysterious powerful forces that connect and sustain the others that surround them And Simard writes of her own life born and raised into a logging world in the rainforests of British Columbia of her days as a child spent cataloging the trees from the forest and how she came to love and respect them And as she writes of her scientific quest she writes of her own journey making us understand how deeply human scientific inquiry exists beyond data and technology that it is about understanding who we are and our place in the world
