My Visit With Periwinkle:

My Visit with Periwinkle Alison Inches, 2003-03 Periwinkle is coming over to Blue's house for a visit. Join Blue as she cleans the house and makes lunch for her friend. And find out what Periwinkle brings as a surprise. Read Along with Blue! Simon Spotlight, Various, 2005-09-20 Blue and her friends will help children develop their reading skills with this collection of Ready to Read stories. Included are two Pre Level 1 stories with simple sentences and three Level 1 stories with rebus icons throughout. This collection features Hello Spring, Blue's Beach Day, My Dress Up Party, My Visit With Periwinkle, Hooray for Polka Dots. Green Grabbing: A New Appropriation of Nature James Fairhead, Melissa Leach, Ian Scoones, 2014-10-29 Across the world ecosystems are for sale. Green grabbing, the appropriation of land and resources for environmental ends, is an emerging process of deep and growing significance. A vigorous debate on land grabbing already highlights instances where green credentials are called upon to justify appropriations of land for food or fuel. Yet in other cases environmental green agendas are the core drivers and goals of grabs. Green grabs may be driven by biodiversity conservation, biocarbon sequestration, biofuels, ecosystem services, or ecotourism, for example. In some cases, these agendas involve the wholesale alienation of land, and in others the restructuring of rules and authority in the access, use, and management of resources that may have profoundly alienating effects. Green grabbing builds on well-known histories of colonial and neo-colonial resource alienation in the name of the environment. Yet it involves novel forms of valuation, commodification, and markets for pieces and aspects of nature, and an extraordinary new range of actors and alliances. This book draws together seventeen original cases from African, Asian, and Latin American settings to ask: To what extent and in what ways do green grabs constitute new forms of appropriation of nature? What political and discursive dynamics underpin green grabs? How and when do appropriations on the ground emerge out of circulations of green capital? What are the implications for ecologies, landscapes, and livelihoods? Who is gaining and who is losing? How are agrarian social relations, rights, and authority being restructured, and in whose interests? This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies. Book Case Stephen Greenleaf, 2016-02-09 To save a small publishing company, John Marshall Tanner searches for an anonymous scribe. John Marshall Tanner has spent most of his life avoiding parties, an easy feat for San Francisco's most introspective private detective. Nevertheless, when one of his closest friends, publisher Bryce Chatterton, finds himself in desperate need of a private eye, Tanner joins him at the party thrown to announce Periwinkle Press's latest publication, but there's little reason to celebrate. The publisher's financial backer has decided to pull the plug on Periwinkle unless Chatterton can come up with a bestseller fast. Chatterton thinks he has his hands on a surefire hit, but he's not sure if he can print it. The book is an anonymous tell-all implicating some of the city's most powerful in a chilling miscarriage of justice, and Chatterton needs the author to corroborate the story. Only Tanner can track down the mysterious writer, but are the secrets between the pages of this manuscript worth dying for? Book Case is the 7th book in the John Marshall Tanner Mysteries, but you may enjoy reading
