My Work In Films:

Working in the Global Film and Television Industries Andrew Dawson, Sean Holmes, 2012-08-02 Like many other cultural commodities films and TV shows tend to work in such a way as to obscure the conditions under which they are produced a process that has been reinforced by dominant trends in the practice of Film and Television Studies This collection places the workplace experiences of industry workers at centre stage It looks at film and television production in a variety of social economic political and cultural contexts The book provides detailed analyses of specific systems of production and their role in shaping the experience of work whilst also engaging with the key theoretical and methodological questions involved in film and television production Drawing together the work of historians film scholars and anthropologists it looks at film and television production not only in Hollywood and Western Europe but also in less familiar settings such as the Soviet Union India Nigeria and the Democratic Republic of Congo Chronologically wide ranging interdisciplinary and international in scope it is a unique introduction critical for all students of the film industries and film production The Films of Jon Garcia

Eric B. Olsen, 2017-11-02 In just his first five years of filmmaking acclaimed Portland independent director Jon Garcia was able to produce four feature films Eric B Olsen examines the first four films of Garcias career in order to provide a deeper understanding of works that transcend the limitations of independent filmmaking and to show how they have attained the status of art Part oral history and part film analysis the book provides a detailed textual commentary on Tandem Hearts 2010 the directors first film The Falls 2011 and The Falls Testament of Love 2013 his most well known films and The Hours Till Daylight 2016 The Films of Jon Garcia 2009/2013 takes an in depth look at a writer director who has earned a reputation as one of the Pacific Northwests premier filmmakers The Film Factory Ian Christie, Richard Taylor, 2012-10-12 The Film

Factory provides a comprehensive documentary history of Russian and Soviet cinema It provokes a major reassessment of conventional Western understanding of Soviet cinema Based on extensive research and in original translation the documents selected illustrate both the aesthetic and political development of Russian and Soviet cinema from its beginnings as a fairground novelty in 1896 to its emergence as a mass medium of entertainment and propaganda on the eve of World War II

The Fundamentals of Fashion Filmmaking Nilgin Yusuf, 2023-07-13 Over the last decade fashion film s presence has become ubiquitous From the retail environments where fashion film is projected onto windows and buildings to the online arenas of fashion brands and labels through to art gallery installations fashion communication is on the move With examples from dozens of groundbreaking international films including QR codes linking to the films online The Fundamentals of Fashion Filmmaking places fashion film in its broader industry cultural and historical context You ll also learn about the process of making fashion film exploring how it works across multiple technologies platforms and audiences Interviews with filmmakers bring together a wealth of industry expertise on everything from storyboarding to finding an audience Genre Trouble and Extreme Cinema Troy Bordun, 2017-11-10 This volume re evaluates theories of genre and spectatorship in light of a critic defined tendency in recent art cinema coined extreme cinema In Genre Trouble and Extreme Cinema Bordun argues that the films of Mexican director Carlos Reygadas and French director Catherine Breillat expand generic classifications Bordun contends that their films make it apparent that genre is not established prior to the viewing of a work but is recollected and assembled by spectators in ways that matter for them in both personal and experiential terms The author deploys contemporary film theories on the senses both phenomenological and affect theory and partakes in close readings of the films forms and narratives The book thus adds to the present literature on extreme cinema and film theory yet sets itself apart by fully deploying genre theory alongside the methodological and stylistic approaches of Stanley Cavell

Minh-ha,2012-11-12 Endless travel in cyberspace virtual reality and the dream of limitless speed technology changes our sense of self In her new book Trinh Minh ha explores the way technology transforms our perception of reality We are all engaged in social rituals in our daily activities she writes and by remaining unaware of their artistic ritual propensity we remain in conformity Her goal as a thinker and an artist is to transform our understanding of technology and speed so that we are able to turn an instrument into a creative tool and to step out of the one dimensional technologically servile mind The paradox that stillness contains speed within it is central to Trinh s concept of the digital apparatus With her signature amalgam of feminism Eastern philosophy and practical understanding of filmmaking Trinh Minh ha presents a much needed advance in our concept of the real in a technological age The Art Direction Handbook for Film Michael Rizzo,2013-07-18 Whether you d like to be an art director or already are one this book contains valuable solutions that will help you get ahead This comprehensive thorough professional manual details the set up of the art department and the day to day job duties scouting for locations research executing the design concept constructing scenery and surviving production You will not only learn how to do the job but how to succeed and secure future jobs Rounding out the text is an extensive collection of useful forms and checklists along with interviews with prominent art directors relevant real life anecdotes and blueprints sketches photographs and stills from Hollywood sets

D.W. Griffith and the Origins of American Narrative Film Tom Gunning,1994 The legendary filmmaker D W Griffith directed nearly 200 films during 1908 and 1909 his first years with the Biograph Company While those one reel films are a testament to Griffith s inspired genius as a director they also reflect a fundamental shift in film style from cheap amusements to movie storytelling complete with characters and narrative impetus In this comprehensive historical investigation drawing on films preserved by the Library of Congress and the Museum of Modern Art Tom Gunning reveals that the remarkable cinematic changes between 1900 and 1915 were a response to the radical reorganization within the film industry and the evolving role of film in American society The Motion Picture Patents Company the newly formed Film Trust had major economic aspirations The newly emerging industry s quest for a middle class audience triggered Griffith s early experiments in film editing and imagery His unique solutions permanently shaped American narrative film Thinking Revolution Through Film Hanno Berger,2022-09-20 This book aims to redefine the relationship between film and revolution Starting with Hannah Arendt s thoughts on the American and French Revolution it argues that from a theoretical perspective revolutions can be understood as describing a relationship between time and movement and that ultimately the spectators and not the actors in a revolution decide its outcome Focusing on the concepts of time movement and spectators this study develops an understanding of film not as a medium of agitation but as a way of thinking that relates to the idea of historicity that opened up with the American and French Revolution a way of thinking that can expand our very notion of revolution The book explores this expansion through an analysis of three audiovisual stagings of revolution Abel Gance s epic on the French Revolution Napoléon Warren Beatty s essay on the Russian Revolution Reds and the miniseries John Adams about the American Revolution The author thereby offers a fresh take on the questions of revolution and historicity from the perspective of film studies
