Mysteries Penguin Twentieth Century Classics:

North of South Shiva Naipaul, 1996-09-26 When her father leaves the Church in a crisis of conscience Margaret Hale is uprooted from her comfortable home in Hampshire to move with her family to the north of England Initially repulsed by the ugliness of her new surroundings in the industrial town of Milton Margaret becomes aware of the poverty and suffering of the local mill workers and develops a passionate sense of social justice This is intensified by her tempestuous relationship with the mill owner and self made man John Thornton as their fierce opposition over his treatment of his employees masks a deeper attraction In North and South Elizabeth Gaskell skillfully fused individual feeling with social concern and in Margaret Hale created one of the most original heroines of Victorian literature

The Classic Novel Erica Sheen, Robert Giddings, 2024-07-30 This book critically examines the long established tradition of adapting classic novels to film or TV screen An emerging area of interest the relationship between film and literature and the way cinema and television have translated classic novels into moving pictures from the 30s to the 90s A wide ranging but focused collection that is bang up to date and free of media jargon that looks at both the film and the book Includes discussion of The English Patient Pride and Prejudice and Middlemarch Pickwick Papers Dracula Dickens Conrad Hardy and Waugh

The Foreign Critical Reputation of F. Scott Fitzgerald, 1980-2000 Linda C. Stanley, 2004-10-30 This bibliography extends the work of Stanley's first volume The Foreign Critical Reputation of F. Scott Fitzgerald: An Analysis and Annotated Bibliography to the final two decades of the 20th century It includes literature from the former countries of the USSR Romania India and Canada as well as countries that were covered in the first volume such as Britain France Italy Germany and Japan One of the major findings that emerges is that Fitzgerald's poetic prose is extremely difficult to translate but new translations continue to appear The introduction to this volume provides a synthesis of Fitzgerald scholarship abroad at the turn of the 21st century and points to new directions already suggested that may represent challenges to current scholarship An extended analysis introduces each chapter Each chapter also includes a chronological list of translations and editions of Fitzgerald's work from his earliest appearances in print to those appearing in 2000 The most substantial section of each chapter features fairly detailed annotations of monographs collections book chapters essays conference papers articles reviews and school editions This compilation will intrigue anyone interested in the work of F. Scott Fitzgerald

A Man of Mystery and Other Stories Shiva Naipaul, 1995 Sharply observed wryly comic yet touched with sadness these eight stories were written between 1969 and 1974 A Man of Mystery charts the tragic downfall of Mr Green a shoemaker overtaken by commercialization Other stories range from the hilarious rivalry of a group of competitors in The Beauty Contest to the heartbreaking disintegration of a marriage in The Dolly House Masterpieces of storytelling they successfully capture the absurdities and pathos of human behaviour
