Canadian Pentecostals, the Trinity, and Contemporary Worship Music Michael A. Tapper, 2017-05-08 This volume offers a landmark analysis of the trinitarian impulses in contemporary worship music used by the Pentecostal Assemblies of Canada PAOC It considers whether the lyrics from the most commonly used PAOC songs are consistent with this Evangelical group's trinitarian statement of faith Colin Gunton's trinitarian theology provides the theological rationale for eight original and qualitative content analyses of these songs Three major areas are considered the doctrine of God human personhood and cosmology Making use of Gunton's notions of relationality particularity and perichoresis along with several key Pentecostal scholars this book serves as a helpful descriptive and prescriptive theological resource for the dynamic practice of a trinitarian faith

Karl Barth on the Filioque David Guretzki, 2016-04-22 Despite the burgeoning literature on Karl Barth his doctrine of the Holy Spirit continues to be under appreciated by his friends and critics alike Yet while Barth's commitment to the doctrine of the procession of the Holy Spirit from the Father and the Son Filioque is well known many scholars dismiss his stand as ecumenically untenable and few have bothered to subject his stance on the Filioque to close theological analysis For those interested in this long standing ecumenical point of contention between Eastern and Western trinitarian theology this book will show how Barth's doctrine of the Filioque may still have something to contribute to the debate The work traces the origin of Barth's commitment to the Filioque in his early career particularly in Romans and the G'ttingen Dogmatics and then analyzes how the doctrine functions throughout the Church Dogmatics Guretzki concludes that Barth's doctrine of the Filioque while clearly standing within the Western trinitarian tradition is atypical in that he refuses to speak of a double procession in favour of a common procession of the Spirit a position that has more affinity with the Eastern position than many of Barth's critics may have thought

A Nonviolent Theology of Love Sharon L. Baker Putt, 2021-02-02 The impetus behind the ease with which the church has periodically justified violent behavior lies in its conceptual image of God as a violent deity This book emerges out of a passion to think differently albeit biblically about the character of God and articulates a theological construction of a nonviolent God an alternative to any image of God that seems to condone human violence It calls the church to rethink theology as something other than what might be termed redemptive violence and encourages Christians to reinterpret Scripture and traditional theological beliefs in ways that are more faithful to the God disclosed in Jesus of Nazareth Students of theology need a fresh glimpse of the love mercy and redemptive power of God through Jesus As it follows the structure of the Apostles Creed through the various theological topics this book reminds Christians to share in God's desires for peace and love and to recommit themselves to the call of God to be ministers of reconciliation and lovers of both neighbors and enemies even while at times responding to violence with nonviolent resistance
