Charles Dickens in Love Robert Garnett,2021-08-31 Using hundreds of primary sources Charles Dickens in Love narrates the story of the most intense romances of Charles Dickens life and shows how his novels both testify to his own strongest affections and serve as memorials to the young women he loved all too well if not always wisely When Charles Dickens died in 1870 he was the best known man in the English speaking world the preeminent Victorian celebrity universally mourned as both a noble spirit and the greatest of novelists Yet the first person named in his will was an unknown woman named Ellen Ternan only a handful of people had any idea who she was Of his romance with Ellen Dickens had written it belongs to my life and probably will only die out of the same with the proprietor and so it was She remained the most important person in his life until his death She was not the first woman who had fired his imagination As a young man he had fallen deeply in love with a woman who pervaded every chink and crevice of his mind for three years Maria Beadnell When she eventually jilted him he vowed that I never can love any human creature but yourself A few years later he was stunned by the sudden death of his young sister in law Mary Scott Hogarth and worshiped her memory for the rest of his life I solemnly believe that so perfect a creature never breathed he declared and he died over thirty years later still wearing her ring Charles Dickens has no rival as the most fertile creative imagination since William Shakespeare and no one influenced his imagination more powerfully than these three women his muses and teachers in the school of love Prayers from Heaven Peter Boice, 2025-01-22 Gratitude is the message the Holy Spirit makes Now at Conard House I have a safe abode at Bravialer I had lost my ability to keep up my home This faith community was my mom's wish for me These writings are Holy Spirit inspired They reflect my Holy Spirit baptism over thirty years ago Let God lead you Be blessed For the Old Love's Sake.
