Stories Algernon Blackwood, 1917 Je suis la premi re au rendez vous Je vous attends As he got out of the train at the little wayside station he remembered the conversation as if it had been yesterday instead of fifteen years ago and his heart went thumping against his ribs so violently that he almost heard it The original thrill came over him again with all its infinite yearning He felt it as he had felt it then not with that tragic lessening the interval had brought to each repetition of its memory Here in the familiar scenery of its birth he realised with mingled pain and wonder that the subsequent years had not destroyed but only dimmed it The forgotten rapture flamed back with all the fierce beauty of its genesis desire at white heat And the shock of the abrupt discovery shattered time Fifteen years became a negligible moment the crowded experiences that had intervened seemed but a dream The farewell scene the conversation on the steamer s deck were clear as of the day before He saw the hand holding her big hat that fluttered in the wind saw the flowers on the dress where the long coat was blown open a moment recalled the face of a hurrying steward who had jostled them he even heard the voices his own and hers Yes she said simply I promise you You have my word I ll wait Till I come back to find you he interrupted One Times One & Other Numinous Stories of Redemption and Loss Charles Frode, 2014-12-18 14 sinister disturbing gently cynical stories where reality is not good or bad right or wrong alive or dead Everything is one thing without limits either in essence or in our feeble attempts to identify and delimit it with our wonderful words The stories in this second collection present reality as the wonder of redemption and loss Some stories are about couples some not Some are about an individual s personal existential challenge to survive Some emerged from somewhere inside the author when he unlocked a hidden door These fourteen stories embody aspects of the spiritual nature of reality about the redemptive quality inherent in all human beings Each story presents some kind of loss in the context of spiritual redemption hope ultimate hope hope for self redemption and the inherent dignity of all living creatures Let each story take you somewhere new where you can consider something about yourself something about ourselves as humans About the numinous quality of your own redemption and loss
