Mystical Poems Of Rumi 2 Vol 2 Second Selection Poems 201 4:

Metaphor, Making and Mysticism Sheila Gallagher, Louise Nelstrop, Lydia Shahan, 2025-10-24 This volume focuses on the interplay between metaphor making and mysticism and sheds new light on the power of the metaphorical and creative dimensions of the mystical for the twenty first century It explores the ways a variety of mystical writers deal with metaphor and image by bringing together chapters from interdisciplinary vantage points theological philosophical historical artistic and literary The book touches on a range of historical and contemporary figures including Jalal al Din al Rumi John of Ruusbroec Hadewijch John Scottus Eriugena and Edward Abbey In reviewing the place of metaphor in mystical texts both Christian and Islamic the contributions reflect on the hard and difficult places both metaphor and mysticism can bring us to They explore contemporary artists engagement with the mystical and how these open up new ways of reimagining our present moving us beyond static categories such as religion versus secular and Christianity versus Islam Overall the book highlights the potential of mysticism to push us beyond comfortable spaces and associations and considers the language and images used to do so

Jalāl al-Dīn Rūmī (Maulana), 2001 RUMI at the age of thirty seven meets SHAMS TABRIZI the sun of Tabriz a weird figure wrapped in coarse black felt who flits across the stage for a moment and disappears tragically enough Shams has variously been described as being extremely ugly a most disgusting cynic and exceedingly aggressive with a domineering manner Jalaluddin who until then had no interest or liking for poetry found in the stranger that perfect image of the Divine Beloved which he had long been seeking He took him away to his house and for a year or two they remained inseparable Rumi's pupils resented their teacher's preoccupation with the eccentric stranger and vilified and intrigued against him until Shams fled to Damascus Rumi sent his son to bring him back but the tongues of his jealous traducers soon wagged again and in 1247 the man of mystery vanished without leaving a trace behind Nicholson has selected his favourites from Rumi's love poems and translated them into English along with the original Persian

A Treasury of Mystic Terms, Part 1

John Davidson, 2003 The Treasury is a collection of the spiritual terms found in the literature of the world's religious and mystical traditions Its primary objective is to elucidate the meaning of the essential terms used by the various spiritual and religious traditions of the world throughout history It is not primarily intended as a dictionary or as an encyclopedia nor is it a definitive treatise on any particular subject or religion It is meant to help the ordinary person understand some of the basic principles of his or her religious background within the framework of a universal understanding of spirituality All terms are explained in a simple manner with each term presented as a separate entry With the explanations grouped according to subject and placed alongside one another many similarities between the various religions immediately become apparent Among these many pages the reader will find a mixture of interesting concepts quotations thoughts perceptions and ideas There should be something for everyone whoever they are and whatever their bent of mind The Treasury is prepared and edited by an international team of researchers contributors editors and readers with a wide variety of religious and cultural backgrounds All those involved gave their time and expertise freely to the project Since the Society does not seek any profit and the cost of printing in India is low the Treasury can be sold at a very low price This helps the Society stay true to its premise that spirituality is the birthright of all that no profit should be extracted from its dissemination and most important that knowledge of these truths should not be withheld from anyone for economic reasons Provided by publisher Books in Print ,1991 A Treasury of Mystic Terms: The universe of spirituality with biographic and bibliographic glossary, bibliography and index John Davidson,2003 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1992 Indo-iranica ,1993 The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1985
