Mysticism At The Dawn Of The Modern Age:

Mysticism at the Dawn of the Modern Age Rudolf Steiner, 1960 On Meister Eckhart Tauler Suso and Ruysbroeck Nicholas of Cusa Agrippa of Nettesheim and Theophrastus Paracelsus Valentin Weigel and Jacob Boehme Giordano Bruno and Angelus Silesius Epilogue

Mysticism at the Dawn of the Modern Age Rudolf Steiner, 1980 This book originated in lectures Steiner gave to a small circle of theosophists and constitutes the earliest public exposition of his spiritual scientific research In it Steiner deals with the impact of modern scientific thinking on our spiritual experiences and the conflict between reason and revelation He looks at how eleven European mystics resolved the dichotomy between their inner spiritual perceptions and the age of invention and discovery then coming to birth

Mysticism at the Dawn of the Modern Age Rudolf Steiner, 1980-06-01 This book originated in lectures Steiner gave to a small circle of theosophists and constitutes the earliest public exposition of his spiritual scientific research In it Steiner deals with the impact of modern scientific thinking on our spiritual experiences and the conflict between reason and revelation He looks at how eleven European mystics resolved the dichotomy between their inner spiritual perceptions and the age of invention and discovery then coming to birth

The New Experience of the Supersensible Jesaiah Ben-Aharon, 2007 According to Rudolf Steiner's spiritual science the greatest spiritual event of our time is the renewal and reawakening of our human suprasensory relationship to the higher spiritual worlds The force that leads to this development called by various names in different cultural and religious traditions is called the Christ impulse by Anthroposophy in accordance with Christian terminology Because of new naturally endowed suprasensory faculties human beings are increasingly able to experience and perceive through an act of grace the great spiritual force of the Christ impulse This experience is said to be a naturally given initiation and today we increasingly hear of such suprasensory experiences Today however a healthy approach to these natural phenomena requires us to comprehend suprasensory experiences with full awareness and clear thinking This book builds an all important bridge between the naturally given suprasensory experience and its conscious cognition As a result empirical suprasensory research can investigate the different aspects of Christ's etheric becoming and appearance in a way that both methodically and experientially fulfils the justified cognitive and scientific requirements of our age This new paperback edition adds a new introductory chapter

The Mystery of Death Rudolf Steiner, 2023-05-15 Speaking during the early stages of the First World War with the Western Front just miles away and thousands of young men dying Rudolf Steiner focuses on the subject of death In particular he addresses the difficult question of why some people die prematurely particularly in youth Steiner also speaks of the deaths of three of his acquaintances having made contact with their living souls in the afterlife He voices their own words and describes the first stages of their journeys after death Rudolf Steiner strikes a second chord with the description of the task of Central Europe in the context of the various Folk souls The influences of these spiritual entities are reflected in the culture and life of various peoples but do not promote nationalism In fact nationalism can only be transcended when we understand and recognize our differences This approach is based on phenomenology rather than value judgements The third main theme running through these lectures relates to understanding the impulses and connections active in history Reaching beyond simple notions of fate are we able to allow for the workings of the impulse of Christ These extraordinary lectures previously unpublished in English are presented here with an introduction notes and an index Fifteen lectures various cities Jan Jun 1915 GA 159

Into the Heart's Land Henry Barnes, 2005-08 Henry Barnes the author of A Life for the Spirit brings us a comprehensive view of the roots and development of anthroposophy throughout North America From its seminal beginnings with a few hearty souls in New York City it moved across the prairies to the west coast and beyond to Canada Mexico and Hawaii and took root in the hearts and minds of the new world Here is the story of those adventurous spirits who took responsibility for bringing the work of Rudolf Steiner to North America in the form of study groups agricultural initiatives Waldorf and special education the arts and so much more

Saints & Sinners Antti P. Balk, 2008 This unique look at history elaborately recounts the birth of human civilization through the vehicle of ancient Egyptian deities albeit in light of the most recent knowledge on archaeology anthropology comparative religion linguistics sociology and general history It moves quickly but seamlessly to Greece via Crete revealing the relatively young age of Continental European and by extension all Western culture science art and religion and their highly derivative nature a point subtly repeated throughout this stunningly wide ranging work A book of contrasts it constantly compares not only the Saints and the Sinners but the East and the West be the issues dealt with political or religious in most cases the one cannot be separated from the other It does not however presume to pass judgement only to relate the events as they happened the facts as they stand even if many of them are little known ones conspicuous by their absence in standard school history books
