Widengren and the Study of the History of Religions after World War II, 2021-11-01 Professor Geo Widengren 1907 1996 holder of the chair in History of Religions and Psychology of Religions at Uppsala University between 1940 and 1973 is one of

Sweden's best known scholars in the field of religious studies. His involvement in the start of the IAHR and publications on topics such as the phenomenology of religions, Iranian studies and Middle Eastern Religions make Widengren one of the founding fathers of the History of Religions as an academic discipline. This volume pays tribute to Widengren's academic achievements and critically discusses his work in light of the latest academic findings and research. The Emergence of the Science of Religion in the Netherlands Arie Molendijk, 2018-08-14 This book explores the emergence of the science of religion in the Netherlands in the second half of the nineteenth century. The emphasis is on processes of institutionalization, professionalization and internationalization on the one hand and on contemporary discussions about method and conceptualization on the other. Greek Tragedy in 20th-Century Italian Literature Caterina Paoli, 2024-06-13 Focusing on the works of Camillo Sbarbaro and Giovanna Bemporad, this book offers the first in-depth analysis of poetic translations of Greek tragedy in 20th-century Italian poetry. The close examination of the linguistic and ideological diversity embedded in these authors' works shows how narratives of Greek tragedy shaped their poetic universe and how their work influenced the Greek paradigm in return. The reader is presented with a textual analysis of Sbarbaro's and Bemporad's translations as well as a discussion of larger cultural patterns. This volume provides a fresh perspective on the pedagogical commitment of the Italian poets and their roles as translators of classical studies. The web of relationships and historical context in which these authors are placed provide an understanding of their importance for a wider discourse on translation in Italy and Europe in the 1940s. Caterina Paoli's original analysis of Sbarbaro's and Bemporad's poetic translations and her emphasis on their relevance for translation studies, women's writing and classical reception fills a significant gap in current scholarship on the translation of ancient literature in the Italian poetic community. Mythography William G. Doty, 2000-03-21 Presenting major myth theorists from antiquity to the present, this work offers a cross-disciplinary approach to the study of myth. Rewritten and restructured, it reflects the increased interest in myth among both scholars and general readers since the publication of the first edition. Myth and History: Close Encounters Menelaos Christopoulos, Athina Papachrysostomou, Andreas P. Antonopoulos, 2022-06-06 The fluidity of myth and history in antiquity and the ensuing rapidity with which these notions infiltrated and cross-fertilized one another has repeatedly attracted the scholarly interest. The understanding of myth as a phenomenon imbued with social and historical nuances allows for more than one methodological approaches. Within the wider context of interdisciplinary exchange of ideas, the present volume returns to origins as it traces and registers the association and interaction between myth and history in various literary genres in Greek and Roman antiquity, i.e. an era when the scientific definitions of and distinctions between myth and history had not yet been perceived as such, let alone fully shaped and implemented, providing original ideas, new interpretations and re-evaluations of key texts and less well-known passages, close readings and catholic overviews. The twenty-four chapters of this volume expand from Greek epos to lyric poetry, historiography, dramatic poetry and even beyond to genres of Roman era and late antiquity. It is the editors hope that this volume will appeal to students and academic researchers in the areas of classics social and political history archaeology and even social anthropology

The Archetype of the Dying and Rising God in World Mythology Paul Rovang, 2023-01-09 The Archetype of the Dying and Rising God in World Mythology is the first global treatment of the dying and rising god archetype since that classification was called into serious doubt in the final decades of the twentieth century While assaults on the concept have focused on the Classical and ancient Near Eastern Biblical traditions this study goes beyond but also includes these areas to encompass world mythology Beginning with an interrogation of the most influential criticisms the author then examines evidence for the archetype s validity by analyzing dying and rising god myths from ancient Near Eastern Classical and non Classical sources from around the world He treats implications of the archetype for religious studies literature and psychology both in discussing the myths themselves and in separate chapters dedicated to these fields The focused treatment on single myths makes this book a useful reference source At the same time its inductive approach to evidence provides a conclusive argument on the question with applications that warrant reading it from cover to cover Additional distinctive features of this book include a thematic interpretation of T S Eliot s Waste Land a new perspective on the Jungian archetypes and a call for a neo archetypal approach to literary criticism
