Myth Of Ethnic War Serbia And Croatia In The 1990s:

The Myth of Ethnic War Valère Philip Gagnon, 2004 V P Gagnon Jr believes that the Yugoslav wars of the 1990s were reactionary moves designed to thwart populations that were threatening the existing structures of political and economic power The Shi'a of Samarra Imranali Panjwani, 2012-01-30 The assault on Samarra which was built in the period of the Abbasid caliphate in the ninth century CE therefore came to represent for many a symbol of the destructive civil conflict which engulfed Iraq following the 2003 US led invasion The Shi'a of Samarra explores and analyses the cultural architectural and political heritage of the Shi'a in both Samarra and the Middle East thus highlighting how this city functions as a microcosm for the contentious issues and debates which remain at the forefront of efforts to rebuild the modern Iraqi state Its examination of the socio political context of the Shi'a Sunni divide provides important insights for students and researchers working on the history and politics of Iraq and the Middle East as well as those interested in the art and architecture of the Islamic world A Legal Geography of Yugoslavia's Disintegration Ana S. Trbovich, 2008-02-05 A Legal Geography of Yugoslavia's Disintegration explains the violent break up of the former Yugoslavia in early 1990s in the context of two legal principles sovereignty and the self determination of peoples The author recounts Yugoslavia's history with a focus on the country's internal administrative divisions and aspirations of different ethnic groups in order to effectively explain the genesis of the international community's political decision to recognize the right of secession for the largest administrative units of Yugoslavia Trbovich a Serbian author writing from the perspective of a disengaged scholar tackles her subject matter with clarity and detail and offers an intriguing analysis of Kosovo's future status international recognition of secession implications of Yugoslavia's disintegration for other conflicts invoking right to self determination and international intervention in ethnic conflicts Debating the End of Yugoslavia Florian Bieber, Armina Galijaš, 2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period Like Salt for Bread. The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina Francine Friedman, 2021-11-22 This book is the only comprehensive treatment in any language of a rather exotic Balkan Jewish community It places the Jewish community of Bosnia and Herzegovina into the context of the Jewish world but also of the world within which it existed for around five hundred years under various empires and regimes The Bosnian Jews might have remained a mostly unknown community to the rest of the world had it not played a unique role within the Bosnian Wars of the early 1990s providing humanitarian aid to its neighbor Serbs Croats and Muslims Watch Francine Friedman s presentation on The Jews of Bosnia and Herzegovina War Crimes, Genocide, and the Law Arnold Krammer,2010-04-09 This timely handbook offers an examination of man s history of war crimes and the parallel development of rules of war to prevent them in the future Kosovo Rwanda Sierra Leone Darfur Auschwitz War crimes have occurred in regions around the world and continue to this day Although atrocities are as old as war itself they did not become punishable crimes until the law evolved to define them as such War Crimes Genocide and the Law A Guide to the Issues examines the types of war crimes and the motivations behind them as well as the laws that seek to control and abolish these heinous acts Within the handbook centuries of war crimes and genocides are analyzed and catalogued At the same time the author offers a history of the development of the rules of war enabling readers to grasp the importance of such precedent setting events as the 1946 Nuremberg Trials and to see the gradual evolution of the laws intended to punish perpetrators and prevent future barbarism New Perspectives on Yugoslavia Dejan Djokić,James Ker-Lindsay,2010-10-04 Nearly twenty years after it ceased to exist as a multinational federation Yugoslavia still has the power to provoke controversy and debate Bringing together contributions from twelve of the leading scholars of modern and contemporary South East Europe this volume explores the history of Yugoslavia from creation to dissolution Drawing on the very latest historical research this book explains how the country came about how it evolved and why eventually it failed From the start of the twentieth century through the First World War the interwar years and the Second World War to the road to socialism under President Tito and the wars of Yugoslav succession in the 1990s this volume provides up to date analysis of the causes and consequences of a range of events that shaped the development of this remarkable state across its various iterations The book concludes by examining post conflict relations in the era of European integration Traversing ninety years of history this volume presents a fascinating story of how a country that once served as the model for multiethnic states around the world has now become a byword for ethno national fragmentation and conflict Contributors include Dejan Djoki James Ker Lindsay Connie Robinson Mark Cornwall John Paul Newman Tomislav Duli Stevan K Pavlowitch Dejan Jovi Neboj a Vladisavljevi Florian Bieber Jasna Dragovi Soso and Eric Gordy States, Secessionists and De Facto Control after Separatist Wars Nicholas Barker,2025-05-05 This book investigates how states and secessionists seek to resolve questions of de facto control in the aftermath of secessionist wars This work presents a study of the termination and aftermath of separatist wars using two in depth case studies the Georgia Abkhazia conflict 1994 2006 and the Serbia Kosovo conflict 1999 2008 to develop an empirically grounded theoretical framework to explain state and secessionist strategies for controlling territory and populations in post war environments It draws on fieldwork and archival research carried out in Georgia Abkhazia Serbia Kosovo and the UN archives and presents further evidence to develop and extend the framework using shadow cases of the separatist wars in the Caucasus and the Balkans By focusing on actors objectives and their strategies for controlling territory and populations within the constraints and opportunities of a post war context this study helps explain what states and secessionists do and why in the critical period after a war ends and helps inform understanding of the formation and trajectories of post war orders This study has relevance for international policymakers with reflections on how the theoretical framework may facilitate conflict analysis and inform policy responses towards protracted armed conflict This book will be of interest to students of statehood intra state conflict and civil wars international security and International Relations in general

Intergroup Conflicts and Their Resolution Daniel Bar-Tal, 2011-01-26 This book sheds an illuminating light into the psyche of people involved in macro level destructive intergroup conflicts It also describes the changes in the socio psychological repertoire that are necessary to ignite the peace process Finally it elaborates on the nature and the processes of peace building including conflict resolution and reconciliation

Transacting Transition Keith Brown, 2006 In Transacting Transition scholars and practitioners with first hand knowledge of foreign assistance programs recount what happens when democracy goes local and principles like transparency gender equality interethnic tolerance and cooperation run up against particular realities political agendas self interest and memories of conflict Focused on the former Yugoslavia where the 1990s saw an unprecedented investment of time and energy by a host of international organizations in processes of reconstruction and democracy assistance the contributors offer description and analysis of diagnostic cases of international intervention to explore how the mission and vision of democracy promotion is enacted on the ground Their experiences reflect wider trends in the evolution of U S democracy assistance after the end of the Cold War which has increasingly focused on locally oriented development and civic action as a necessary component of democratic transition In these cases individuals from outside the region found themselves charged with advancing ambitious agendas of social and political change while dealing with the micropolitics of particular situations where for example village solidarity is fractured by old rivalries participation in decision making is habitually restricted by gender or ethnicity or where donors and implementers disagree on the best way forward The book includes an overall introduction and eight chapters focusing on case studies from Kosovo Serbia and Macedonia Each case is described by a participant and put in wider context by a short editorial introduction The book is intended to be broadly accessible to readers and students interested in understanding what is entailed in making grand visions of democratization work Other Contributors Jeff S Merritt Dennison Lane Paul J Nuti Claire Sneed Sally Broughton Micova Clemson Turregano and Chip Gagnon
