Herodotus: Volume 1 Rosaria Vignolo Munson, 2013-08-29 A collection of scholarship on Herodotus Vol 1 discusses his historical method sources narrative art literary antecedents intellectual background and political ideology Vol 2 focuses on his description of foreign lands and peoples and the theoretical issues it raises including the extent to which the ethnographic portrayals conform to a conventional Greek construct of barbarian otherness or derive from direct contact with native sources

Euripides and the Poetics of Sorrow Charles Segal, 1993-10-19 Where is the pleasure in tragedy This question how suffering and sorrow become the stuff of aesthetic delight is at the center of Charles Segal's new book which collects and expands his recent explorations of Euripides art Alcestis Hippolytus and Hecuba the three early plays interpreted here are linked by common themes of violence death lamentation and mourning and by their implicit definitions of male and female roles Segal shows how these plays draw on ancient traditions of poetic and ritual commemoration particularly epic song and at the same time refashion these traditions into new forms In place of the epic muse of martial glory Euripides Segal argues evokes a muse of sorrows who transforms the suffering of individuals into a common grief for all the citizens a community of shared feeling in the theater Like his predecessors in tragedy Euripides believes death more than any other event exposes the deepest truth of human nature Segal examines the revealing final moments in Alcestis Hippolytus and Hecuba and discusses the playwright's use of these deaths especially those of women to question traditional values and the familiar definitions of male heroism Focusing on gender the affective dimension of tragedy and ritual mourning and commemoration Segal develops and extends his earlier work on Greek drama The result deepens our understanding of Euripides art and of tragedy itself

Herodotus: Volume 2 Rosaria Vignolo Munson, 2013-08-29 This second volume's selected essays look at the principles of Herodotus research concerning the physical world in the light of traditional myth and the science of his times and deal with the connections between travelling and storytelling culture and gender Hellenic and barbarian religions and memory and ethnicity
