Australian Wetland Cultures John Charles Ryan,Li Chen,2019-10-31 Among the most productive ecosystems on earth wetlands are also some of the most vulnerable Australian Wetland Cultures argues for the cultural value of wetlands Through a focus on swamps and their conservation the volume makes a unique contribution to the growing interdisciplinary field of the environmental humanities The authors investigate the crucial role of swamps in Australian society through the idea of wetland cultures The broad historical and cultural range of the book spans pre settlement indigenous Australian cultures nineteenth century European colonization and contemporary Australian engagements with wetland habitats The contributors situate the Australian emphasis in international cultural and ecological contexts Case studies from Perth Western Australia provide practical examples of the conservation of wetlands as sites of interlinked natural and cultural heritage The volume will appeal to readers with interests in anthropology Australian studies cultural studies ecological science environmental studies and heritage protection

Reassembling Digital Placemaking Isabel Fangyi Lu,2025-06-20 This book presents digital placemaking as a new testing ground for urban democracy It explores the participatory practices of digital placemaking and their implications on blurring formal and informal boundaries of decision making and urban politics Drawing on examples from Australia China and Taiwan the book examines how contemporary cities are witnessing an era when digitality becomes a mode of placemaking and participation becomes an urban condition Such developments manifest as urban activism creative branding tech placemaking and digital governance that trigger changes in urban engagement and politics This book views digital placemaking through an assemblage lens to demonstrate how it can be a relational site of contentions and collaborations among civil society industries and governments without observance of strict boundaries Contrary to an often binary and zero sum reading of urban politics this book advocates for a tripartite assemblage model of urban politics that is neither hierarchical nor deterministic This book proposes an ouroboros model as a systematic approach that conceptually anchors digital placemaking studies to the nexus of urban institutions and digital technologies It reconceptualises urban politics as a relational process of nuances contingency and complexity in the flux of cosmopolitan power movements and inquiries Ultimately the book develops the notion of socio technical natality to counter the myth of tech inevitability and instil a thesis of hope and change This book will interest researchers policymakers and professionals in urban studies media studies cultural studies urban communication creative placemaking community engagement urban advocacy and urban governance The Production Sites of Architecture Sophia Psarra,2019-01-14 The Production Sites of Architecture examines the intimate link between material sites and meaning It explores questions such as how do spatial configurations produce meaning What are alternative modes of knowledge production How do these change our understanding of architectural knowledge Featuring essays from an international range of scholars the book accepts that everything about the production of architecture has social significance It focuses on two areas firstly relationships of spatial configuration form order and classification secondly the interaction of architecture and these notions with other areas of knowledge such as literature inscriptions interpretations and theories of classification ordering and invention Moving beyond perspectives which divide architecture into either an aesthetic or practical art the authors show how buildings are informed by intersections between site and content space and idea thought and materiality architecture and imagination Presenting illustrated case studies of works by architects and artists including Amale Andraos Dan Wood OMA Koen Deprez and John Soane The Production Sites of Architecture makes a major contribution to our understanding of architectural theory

Possession Bain Attwood,2015-02-04 It contemplates why these agreements were forged how the Aboriginal people understood their terms why government repudiated them and how settlers claimed to be the rightful owners of the land Bain Attwood also reveals the ways in which the settler society has endeavoured to make good its act of possession by repeatedly creating histories that have recalled or repressed the memory of Batman the treaties and the Aborigines destruction and dispossession and charts how Aboriginal people have unsettled this matter of history through their remembering The Place of Silence Mark Dorrian,Christos Kakalis,2020-02-06 The Place of Silence explores the poetics and politics of silence in architecture Bringing together contributions by internationally recognized scholars in architecture and the humanities it explores the diverse practices affects politics and cultural meanings of silence silent places and silent buildings in historical and contemporary contexts What counts as silence in specific situations is highly relative and the term itself carries complex and varied significations which make it a revealing field of study Chapters explore a range of themes from the apparent loss of silence in the contemporary urban world through designed silent spaces to the forced silences of oppression catastrophe or technological breakdown The book unfolds a rich and complementary array of perspectives which address through the lens of architecture and place questions of sound atmosphere and attunement together building a volume which will form the key scholarly resource on architecture and silence Amplifications Paul Carter,2019-02-21 Written by one of the most prominent thinkers in sound studies Amplifications presents a perspective on sound narrated through the experiences of a sound artist and writer A work of reflective philosophy Amplifications sits at the intersection of history creative practice and sound studies recounting this narrative through a series of themes rattles echoes recordings etc Carter offers a unique perspective on migratory poetics bringing together his own compositions and life s works while using his personal narrative to frame larger theoretical questions about sound and migration
