Wild Cats of the World Mel Sunkuist, Fiona Sunkuist, 2002-08-15 This is a treasure trove of answers for anyone interested in learning about the world's most common and uncommon cats Photos Illustrations Sacred and Mythological Animals Yowann Byghan, 2020-03-25 From the household cat to horses that can fly a surprisingly wide range of animals feature in religions and mythologies all across the world The same animal can take on different roles the raven can be a symbol of evil a harbinger of death a wise messenger or a shape changing trickster In Norse mythology Odin's magical ravens perch on his shoulders and bring him news This compendium draws upon religious texts and myths to explore the ways sacred traditions use animal images themes and associations in rituals ceremonies texts myths literature and folklore across the world Sections are organized by the main animal classifications such as mammals birds reptiles fish amphibians and insects Each chapter covers one significant grouping such as dogs cats or horses first describing an animal scientifically and then detailing the mythological attributes Numerous examples cite texts or myths A final section covers animal hybrids animal monsters and mythical animals as well as stars constellations and Zodiac symbols An appendix describes basic details of the religions and mythologies covered A glossary defines uncommon religious terms and explains scientific animal names

Encyclopedia of Beasts and Monsters in Myth, Legend and Folklore Theresa Bane, 2016-05-22 Here there be dragons this notation was often made on ancient maps to indicate the edges of the known world and what lay beyond Heroes who ventured there were only as great as the beasts they encountered This encyclopedia contains more than 2 200 monsters of myth and folklore who both made life difficult for humans and fought by their side Entries describe the appearance behavior and cultural origin of mythic creatures well known and obscure collected from traditions around the world

Small Wild Cats James G. Sanderson, Patrick Watson, 2011-10 This book examines the behavior biology and conservation of the more than 30 small wild cat species Armorial Porcelain Rachel L. Denyer, Morgan C.T. Denyer, Howell G. M. Edwards, 2024-08-13 This book explores the genesis of armorial porcelain manufacture in Britain While heraldic devices began appearing on Chinese porcelain from the sixteenth century onwards armorials did not appear on British porcelain until the 1750s It examines the development of porcelain in China and traces its introduction to Western Europe The book delves into the market for armorial porcelains from the early commissioning of Chinese armorial porcelainware to the establishment of manufactories in England capable of producing armorial porcelain It also discusses the reasons behind the timing of armorial porcelain's manufacture in Britain Additionally it assesses armorial porcelain as a contemporary historical source Building upon previous research by the authors the book presents armorial porcelain as a distinct and highly personalized product By integrating detailed genealogical research cultural insights and chemical analysis it offers a comprehensive understanding of armorial porcelain within the context of heritage culture and science New Zealand Books in Print 2004 Thorpe-Bowker Staff, 2004-06 Directory containing updated bibliographic information on all in print New Zealand books 33rd edition of an annual publication The 12 500 book entries are listed by title and there is an index to authors Also provided are details of 975 publishers and distributors and local agents of overseas publishers The book trade directory includes contacts for trade organisations booksellers public libraries and specialised suppliers NZ literary awards and past winners and sources of financial assistance for writers and publishers Welsh Armorial Porcelain Howell G. M. Edwards, 2022-05-05 Armorial porcelains comprised the output of most European ceramics factories in the 18th and 19th Centuries in response to the large quantity of armorial porcelain services that were being imported from China bearing the coats of arms and crests of aristocratic families Whereas these armorial services have been identified and covered for most porcelain manufactories the information relevant to their production by the two relatively short lived Nantgarw and Swansea China Works has not been addressed as a theme until now As an integral component of the holistic forensic appraisal of porcelain a functional and decorative artwork manifestly part of our cultural heritage and its ongoing preservation the recording and identification of such artefacts is material for the future establishment of a database of factory production The Nantgarw and Swansea factories only operated for a limited period in the second decade of the 19th Century and their porcelains were much appreciated for their high quality and desirability by Georgian households Today examples are to be found in many museums and ceramics collections and continue to excite the interest of specialists and the general public This text provides the first comprehensive assessment of armorial porcelains from these two factories and the methodology and procedure for the identification of unknown armorial bearings and crests is illustrated individual bearings are discussed in detail and existing incorrect assignments in the literature are re appraised The difficulties in attribution of armorial heraldic achievements that are only minimally depicted are considered and directions for further studies using historical documentation are invoked This book therefore fills a currently existing gap in the ceramics literature of the 19th Century Heroes Janet Bottin, 1998

Flora Unveiled Lincoln Taiz, Lee Taiz, 2017 This book focuses on how the the scientific discovery of plant sex unfolded due to cultural biases beliefs and perceptions about plant reproduction Flora Unveiled is a deep history of perceptions about plant gender and sexuality from the Paleolithic to the nineteenth century The evidence suggests that a plants as female gender bias both prevented the discovery of two sexes in plants until the late 17th century and delayed its acceptance for another 150 years Mudrooroo Maureen Clark, 2007 Mudrooroo A Likely Story reads the fiction of one of Australia s most controversial and enigmatic literary figures against the backdrop of the likelihood that he assumed an Aboriginal identity to which he was not entitled As he is neither black nor white Colin Johnson a k a Mudrooroo writes on issues of identity and belonging from the position of an outsider The book argues that the experimental nature of Johnson s creative body of work coupled with the complexities of his in between status mean that both the man and his writing evade neat categorisation within mainstream literary criticism Also examined here is how the denial of his white mother impacts upon the gender politics of Johnson s fiction in a way that opens up exciting new possibilities for critical comment and textual analysis Back
