Lake,2015-06-26 Excerpt from The Mythos of the Ark It is recorded in the Hebrew scriptures that once upon a time somewhere about 2400 years before the Christian era the Creator of the world was so incensed at the wickedness of men that he determined to destroy the whole world and that to effect this destruction he sent a deluge on the earth which covered the tops of the highest mountains so that all living things perished excepting only Noah his wife and his three sons and their wives with pairs or sevens of all the various kinds of animals which Noah was commanded to take with him into an ark or floating house which God had commanded him to build These were shut up in the ark for several months when the flood having abated the ark grounded on the top of a high mountain and its inhabitants released from their temporary imprisonment replenished the earth with a new race of living creatures We have said the Hebrew scriptures record this narrative and Englishmen are taught to believe that these scriptures are the infallible word of God so the clergy of almost all denominations declare them to be It is evident that such an event had it really happened could never have become a legitimate part of history It relates altogether to times that are prehistoric times of which oral tradition alone could tell About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Mythos of the Ark J.
