questions with respect to the scripture verses and how they impact love as God defines it Hopefully they make the reader want to dive into the scripture in such a way that they reflect on how their life is living up to our calling as followers of Jesus

Gemmeke, 2008 This rich ethnographic study explores the life and work of successful marabout women in Dakar It is set against the background of their private family lives of developments in Senegalese society and of global changes While including female experts in spirit possession and plant based healing it also gives a rare insight in the work of women who offer Islamic knowledge such as Arabic astrology numerology divination and prayer sessions With the analysis of marabout women s work this study sheds light on the ways in which women s authority in esoteric knowledge is negotiated legitimated and publicly recognised in Dakar The study focuses especially upon marabout women s strategies to gain their clients trust Reference to rural areas is a significant element in this process This study thus contributes to an understanding of the gendered way in which trust and scepticism are related to marabouts work and of the role of a connection between Dakar and the rural areas therein

Give Us This Day Devotionals, Volume 7 Charles Erlandson, 2024-03-29 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts Rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament Fr Charles writes for the whole person he s not afraid to use his sense of humor and he carefully relates the Bible not only to the individual s life but also to the life of the Church At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer

Love and Freedom Jorge N. Ferrer, 2021-06-24 In Love and Freedom Jorge Ferrer proposes a paradigm shift in how romantic relationships are conceptualized a step forward in the evolution of modern relationships In the same way that the transgender movement surmounted the gender binary Ferrer defines how a parallel step can and should be taken with the relational style binary This book offers the first systematic discussion of relationship modes beyond monogamy and polyamory as well as introduces the notion of relational freedom as the capability to choose one's relational style free from biological psychological and sociocultural conditionings To achieve these goals Ferrer first discusses a number of critical categories specifically monopride polyphobia and polypride monophobia that mediate the contemporary mono poly wars that is the predicament of mutual competition among monogamists and polyamorists The ideological nature of these mono poly wars is demonstrated through a review of available empirical literature on the psychological health and relationship quality of monogamous and polyamorous individuals and couples Then after showing how monogamy and polyamory ultimately reinforce each other Ferrer articulates three relational pathways to living in between through and beyond the mono poly binary fluidity hybridity and transcendence Moving beyond that binary opens a fuzzy liminal and multivocal relational space that Ferrer calls novogamy In this groundbreaking book readers will learn practical tools to not only transform jealousy but also enhance their relational freedom while being aware of key issues of diversity and social justice They will also learn novel criteria to evaluate the success of their intimate relationships and be introduced to a transformed vision of romantic love beyond both monocentrism and emerging polynormativities

International Handbook of Love Claude-Hélène Mayer, Elisabeth Vanderheiden, 2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures proves otherwise The authors revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is But that's what love does It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do Jeffrey Ady Associate Professor retired Public Administration Program University of Hawaii at Manoa Founding Fellow International Academy for Intercultural Research The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium It is a breath taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love one night stands teen romance or love of leaders and many more This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies Eva Illouz author of The End of Love A sociology of Negative relationships Oxford University Press This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts personal and professional settings and cultures The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives Reviewed by Dr George F Simons on amazon com Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook in LeanHealth Talks published by Bernadette Bruckner <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yVNXA9sWuWo> Please see Claude H l ne Mayer s interview related to the handbook published In Iran News Daily <https://newspaper.irandaily.ir/nid/6941/pid/6/type/0>
