Non Philosophy Of Gilles Deleuze:

The Non-Philosophy of Gilles Deleuze Gregg Lambert, 2002-08-01 The Non Philosophy of Gilles Deleuze takes up Deleuze's most powerful argument on the task of contemporary philosophy in the West. Deleuze argues that it is only through a creative engagement with the forms of non philosophy notably modern art literature and cinema that philosophy can hope to attain the conceptual resources to restore the broken links of perception language and emotion. In short this is the only future for philosophy if it is to repair its fragile relationship to immanence to the world as it is. A sequence of dazzling essays analyze Deleuze's investigations into the modern arts. Particular attention is paid to Deleuze's exploration of Leibniz in relation to modern painting and of Borges to an understanding of the relationship between philosophy literature and language. By illustrating Deleuze's own approach to the arts and to modern literature in particular the book demonstrates the critical significance of Deleuze's call for a future philosophy defined as an art of inventing concepts. Laruelle and

Non-Philosophy John Mullarkey, 2012-07-03 The first collection of critical essays on the work of this most original thinker Francois Laruelle is one of the most important French philosophers of the last 20 years and as his texts have become available in English there has been a rising tide of interest in his work particularly on the concept of Non Philosophy. Non philosophy radically rethinks many of the most cutting edge concepts such as immanence pluralism resistance science democracy decisionism Marxism theology and materialism. It also expands our view of what counts as philosophical thought through art science and politics and beyond to fields as varied as film animality and material objects. Laruelle and Francois Laruelle's Principles of Non-Philosophy Anthony Paul Smith, 2015-12-03 In Principles of Non Philosophy Laruelle develops the concepts and method of a more democratic form of thought where neither science nor philosophy is subjected to one another but brought together in a more productive theoretical and practical relationship. While the potential importance of this project is clear Laruelle remains famously difficult. Anthony Paul Smith provides an introduction and guide to the text that situates you amongst the figures and concepts Laruelle engaged with and provides a foothold for your own understanding and more importantly potential use of the project of non philosophy. A Non-Philosophical Theory of Nature A.

Smith, 2013-07-18 Utilizing Francois Laruelle's non philosophical method Smith constructs a unified theory of philosophical theology and ecology by challenging environmental philosophy and theology claiming that and engagement with scientific ecology can radically change the standard metaphysics of nature as well as ethical problems related to the natural. The

Philosopher's Desire William Egginton, 2007 This book is about interpretation as it pertains to literature philosophy and psychoanalysis It argues against certain trends of thought that claim we should do without interpretation by demonstrating that interpretation as described by psychoanalysis is already a fundamental aspect of all human experience Egginton examines the idea of interpretation developed by Freud how that notion was in turn changed by Lacan the debate around psychoanalytic interpretation staged by philosophers like Deleuze and Derrida and finally how a psychoanalytic notion of interpretation is necessary for even the most basic experience of consciousness Chiasma: A Site for Thought Issue #1

fields like affect theory cognitive sciences environmental studies and neuroanthropology Eventually by the end of this book the readers from architecture students and researchers to academics and practitioners with an interest in theory will have been exposed to a comprehensive and original philosophy of architecture and the built environment The Bloomsbury Handbook of Continental Philosophy of Education John Baldacchino, Herne Saeveer, 2024-07-11 This handbook is the first reference work to explore and define what continental philosophy of education is or could be and what its boundaries are serving as a point of entry for those who need an overview of the ideas in the field The book includes 34 chapters written by leading scholars based in Belgium Canada China Croatia Cyprus Denmark Finland Germany Hong Kong Iceland Ireland Israel Lithuania the Netherlands Norway New Zealand Sweden Taiwan the UK and the USA It is subdivided into three sections covering the metaphysics ethics and aesthetics of education and the chapters focus on philosophical concepts such as otherness empathy and personhood and problems including political influences on education and the limits of education The contributors discuss a range of continental thinkers and look at how their work has influenced the wider field of philosophy of education

Superpositions Rocco Gangle, Julius Greve, 2017-05-24 One of the most important French philosophers working today Fran ois Laruelle has developed an innovative and powerful repertoire of concepts across an oeuvre spanning four decades and more than twenty books His work termed non philosophy or more recently non standard philosophy has garnered international attention in recent years and stands likely to have a significant impact on the critical practices of the humanities in the near future Bringing together some of the most prominent scholars of Laruelle Superpositions Laruelle and the Humanities explores the intersections of Laruelle s work with multiple discourses within the humanities including philosophy critical theory political theory media studies and religious studies The book addresses two main questions In what relation does non philosophical thought stand with respect to the materials and methods of other disciplines How can Laruelle s non standard philosophy be applied appropriated and used by other discourses Superpositions provides a useful introduction to Laruelle s work for students and scholars and marks an important intervention into one of the most vigorous and contested areas of contemporary scholarship in the critical humanities Laruelle Anthony P. Smith, 2017-09-05 Fran ois Laruelles non philosophy or non standard philosophy represents a bold attempt to rethink how philosophy is practiced in relation to other domains of knowledge There is a growing interest in Laruelles work in the English speaking world but his work is often misunderstood as a wholesale critique of philosophy In this book Anthony Paul Smith dispels this misunderstanding and shows how Laruelles critique of philosophy is guided by the positive aim of understanding philosophys structure so that it can be creatively recast with other discourses and domains of human knowledge from politics and ethics to science and religion This book provides a synthetic introduction to the whole of Laruelles work It begins by discussing the major concepts and methods that have framed non philosophy for thirty years Smith then goes on to show how those concepts and method enter into traditional philosophical domains and disempower the authoritarian framework that philosophy imposes upon them Instead of offering a philosophy of politics or a philosophy of science Laruelle aims at fostering a democracy of thought where philosophy is thought together and equal to the object of its inquiry This book will be essential reading for students and scholars interested in contemporary French philosophy and anyone who wants to discover more about one of its foremost practitioners Political Philosophy in Motion *.mkv Dan Dungaciu,2019-01-18 This book approaches the visual clues acknowledged by political philosophy interested in the relationship of the philosophy and the politics of film It also expresses and highlights a precise way of looking at things indicating a frame able to verify the domain s themes and constructs in order not only to offer some illustrating insights but also to provide reflections able to re define the relationship between film and political philosophy It will appeal to the wider academic community PhD students professors and researchers with an interest in political philosophy postmodern philosophy media studies and cultural studies

Untimely Affects Nadine Boljkovac,2015-04-29 In this first extensive analysis of Chris Marker and Alain Resnais s works Nadine Boljkovac draws on concepts and images from film and Deleuzian philosophy to show the ethical possibilities of post World War II cinema The Self-Emptying Subject Alex Dubilet,2018-04-03 Against the two dominant ethical paradigms of continental philosophy Emmanuel Levinas s ethics of the Other and Michel Foucault s ethics of self cultivation The Self Emptying Subject theorizes an ethics of self emptying or kenosis that reveals the immanence of an impersonal and dispossessed life without a why Rather than aligning immanence with the enclosures of the subject The Self Emptying Subject engages the history of Christian mystical theology modern philosophy and contemporary theories of the subject to rethink immanence as what precedes and exceeds the very difference between the human self and the divine other between the subject and transcendence By arguing that transcendence operates and subjects life in secular no less than in religious domains this book challenges the dominant distribution of concepts in contemporary theoretical discourse which insists on associating transcendence exclusively with religion and theology and immanence exclusively with modern secularity and philosophy The Self Emptying Subject argues that it is important to resist framing the relationship between medieval theology and modern philosophy as a transition from the affirmation of divine transcendence to the establishment of autonomous subjects Through an engagement with Meister Eckhart G W F Hegel and Georges Bataille it uncovers a medieval theological discourse that rejects the primacy of pious subjects and the transcendence of God Eckhart retrieves a modern philosophical discourse that critiques the creation of self standing subjects through a speculative re writing of the concepts of Christian theology Hegel and explores a discursive site that demonstrates the subjecting effects of transcendence across theological and philosophical operations and archives Bataille Taken together these interpretations suggest that if we suspend the antagonistic relationship between theological and philosophical discourses and decenter our periodizing assumptions and practices we might encounter a yet unmapped theoretical fecundity of self emptying that frees life from transcendent powers that incessantly subject it for their own ends
