Chinese Stories for Language Learners Vivian Ling, Peng Wang, 2021-03-23 The highly anticipated next book in Tuttle's Stories for Language Learners series is here This book presents 22 classic Chinese proverbs and the traditional tales behind them The stories are bilingual with the Chinese and English versions presented on facing pages Each includes an explanation of how the proverb is used today cultural notes vocabulary and discussion questions Online audio recordings of the tales by native speakers give students a chance to improve their pronunciation and comprehension Some of the proverbs featured in this collection include Painting the Eyes on the Dragon Based on the story of a famous court painter in 6th century China who painted dragons this proverb refers to the finishing touches needed to bring a work of art or literature to life In a discussion it refers to the final statements used to clinch the argument Waiting for Rabbits by a Tree Stump Based on an ancient folktale about a foolish farmer who sees a rabbit kill itself in front of him by running into a tree stump then gives up tilling his field to wait for more rabbits by the stump This saying is applied to people who wait passively for luck to strike again It also refers to impractical people who stick to one way of doing things only because it has worked for them once in the past Pure Water Has No Fish Perfect People Have No Friends Many versions of this historical tale exist The one told here is about a 2nd century AD official sent to govern a far flung outpost on the Silk Road who is fastidious in applying strict rules and thereby causes the local people to rebel against him In the professional world it is used to refer to people who do not like to work with an overly strict supervisor or colleague Whether being used in a classroom or for self study Chinese Stories for Language Learners provides an educational and entertaining way for intermediate Mandarin learners to expand their vocabulary and understanding of the language Church missionary gleaner [afterw.] C.M.S. gleaner [afterw.] The Church missionary outlook [afterw.] The C.M.S. outlook Church missionary society, 1880 Oriental stories Nella Braddy, 1921

Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction Guy Ramsay, 2015-12-22 Addiction to illicit drugs is a pressing social concern across greater China where there are likely several million drug addicts at present This research breaks new ground by examining Chinese people's stories of drug addiction Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction systematically evaluates how drug addiction is represented and constructed in a series of contemporary life stories and filmic stories from mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong These stories recount experiences leading up to and during drug addiction as well as experiences during drug rehabilitation and recovery Through analysis of these contemporary life stories and filmic stories the book presents a comprehensive picture of how Chinese people from both inside the experience of drug addiction and outside of it make sense of a social practice that is deemed to be highly transgressive in Chinese culture It employs a blended discourse analytic and narrative analytic approach to show how salient cultural political and institutional discourses shape these Chinese stories and experiences Complementing existing humanities research which documents the historical narrative of drug addiction in

China at the expense of the contemporary narrative the book also provides health and allied professionals with a rich insight into how Chinese people from different geographical locations and walks of life make sense of the experience of drug addiction Moving beyond historical narrative to examine contemporary stories Chinese Stories of Drug Addiction offers a valuable contribution to the fields of Chinese studies and personal health and wellbeing as well as being of practical use to health professionals
