The Crucifix of Baden, and Other Stories, Original, Translated, and Selected, 1896 Historical Dictionary of Lesbian Literature Meredith Miller, 2006 This Historical Dictionary of Lesbian Literature serves two primary functions to provide further information to those already familiar with the field and to explain it to those discovering it for the first time A chronology provides a historical perspective an introduction gives a general yet detailed overview and the dictionary contains several hundred cross referenced entries on important writers such as Sappho Colette and Mary Wollstonecraft styles themes literary movement publishers and outstanding works of the genre Completed by an extensive bibliography this book examines the factors influencing the development of the lesbian identity as an interaction between readers and writers of all kinds of literature

BOOK JACKET Not in This Family Heather Murray, 2012-02-10 Many Americans hold fast to the notion that gay men and women more often than not have been ostracized from disapproving families Not in This Family challenges this myth and shows how kinship ties were an animating force in gay culture politics and consciousness throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Historian Heather Murray gives voice to gays and their parents through an extensive use of introspective writings particularly personal correspondence and diaries as well as through published memoirs fiction poetry song lyrics movies and visual and print media Starting in the late 1940s and 1950s Not in This Family covers the entire postwar period including the gay liberation and lesbian feminist movements of the 1960s and 1970s the establishment of PFLAG Parents Families and Friends of Lesbians and Gays and the AIDS crisis of the 1980s and 1990s Ending her story with an examination of contemporary coming out rituals Murray shows how the personal that was once private became political and finally public In exploring the intimate reciprocal relationship of gay children and their parents Not in This Family also chronicles larger cultural shifts in privacy discretion and public revelation and the very purpose of family relations Murray shows that private bedrooms and consumer culture social movements and psychological fashions all had a part to play in transforming the modern family

Psychotherapy With Lesbian Clients Kristine L. Falco, 2013-05-24 An explanation of who lesbians are how psychotherapy with this population is unique how therapists and patients are influenced by homophobia and what the therapist brings to the therapeutic relationship It presents models of lesbian affirmative psychotherapy and offers guidelines for therapists

Recognition, Responsibility, and Rights Robin N. Fiore, 2003 In the words of Catharine MacKinnon a woman is not yet a name for a way of being human In other words women are still excluded as authors and agents from identifying what it is to be human and what therefore violates the dignity and integrity of humans Recognition Responsibility and Rights is written in response to that failure This collection of essays by prominent feminist thinkers advances the positive feminist project of remapping the moral landscape by developing theory that acknowledges the diversity of women This book is the first volume in a new series of edited collections showcasing the best new work in feminist theory that has emerged from the group Feminist Ethics and Social Theory FEAST

FEAST advances the goal of a feminist ethico politics by creating an organization and a body of work in which feminist ethicists and feminist social theorists join forces to produce a politically effective feminist ethics In this first volume essayists address that goal by analyzing gender with respect to three key ethical concepts recognition responsibility and rights

Navigating Remarkable Communication Experiences of Sexual Minorities Yachao Li,Jennifer A. Samp,2020-11-24

Navigating Remarkable Communication Experiences of Sexual Minorities investigates and theorizes the unique and crucial communication experiences of sexual minority people in a heteronormative society Using qualitative and quantitative data the authors examine messages and message processes of four communication experiences that have personal and relational impacts on lesbian gay and bisexual LGB people The book identifies different scripts of coming out strategies for sexual orientation disclosure and concealment and common topics discussed by same sex couples when making relationship revelation decisions Data presented in this book shows that people communicate their sexual orientation in various ways influencing their mental health and relationship outcomes To explain why people create different coming out messages the authors propose a Theory of Coming Out Message Production which identifies personal relational cultural and situational factors that affect LGB individuals sexual orientation disclosure This book includes practical guidelines for LGB people to better prepare and enact difficult conversations in various relational contexts Scholars of sexuality studies and communication studies will find this book particularly interesting

The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions Jessica K Heriot,Eileen J Polinger,2014-01-02 Use these fascinating first person accounts to bring real world problems into the classroom The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions A Teaching Casebook is a collection of personal narratives short stories and poetry about mental illness and other life affecting problems mostly in the context of family life Each selection is accompanied by questions for discussion selected reading lists are provided with each chapter Beginning with problems related to childhood the stories range through adolescence adulthood and old age This unique book provides students and educators in psychology social work and counseling with an in depth understanding of various mental illnesses and psychosocial problems through the life cycle Its stories and narratives give students the unique opportunity to experience from the inside what it is like to live with an eating disorder or struggle with a compulsion phobia The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions is more than a teaching tool These stories are more than thought provoking more than simply insightful They are truly fascinating each a candid no holds barred glimpse into the personal reality of its narrator and will inspire the kind of discussions that the best courses and instructors are remembered for Your students will most likely have finished the book before the class has finished discussing the first chapter With The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions your students will explore family relationships under various types of stress how families cope with physical illness what happens to the family when a loved one struggles with mental illness the impact of racial issues the effects of sexual abuse and domestic violence the process of healing from childhood trauma and much more

The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions provides first hand knowledge of what the loss of a parent to death mental illness or alcoholism feels like to the child of how coming out as a lesbian affects one's life of the love and frustration of having a mentally handicapped sibling of what it's like to lose one's memory in old age No academic description can convey the feelings meaning and effects on the individual or family of mental illness or other psychosocial stressors Only narratives and stories based on direct experience exactly what you'll find in The Use of Personal Narratives in the Helping Professions can offer this perspective

Tell This Silence Patti Duncan, 2009-05 Tell This Silence by Patti Duncan explores multiple meanings of speech and silence in Asian American women's writings in order to explore relationships among race gender sexuality and national identity Duncan argues that contemporary definitions of U.S. feminism must be expanded to recognize the ways in which Asian American women have resisted and continue to challenge the various forms of oppression in their lives There has not yet been adequate discussion of the multiple meanings of silence and speech especially in relation to activism and social justice movements in the U.S. In particular the very notion of silence continues to invoke assumptions of passivity submissiveness and avoidance while speech is equated with action and empowerment However as the writers discussed in Tell This Silence suggest silence too has multiple meanings especially in contexts like the U.S. where speech has never been a guaranteed right for all citizens Duncan argues that writers such as Maxine Hong Kingston Mitsuye Yamada Joy Kogawa Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Nora Okja Keller and Anchee Min deploy silence as a means of resistance Juxtaposing their unofficial narratives against other histories official U.S. histories that have excluded them and American feminist narratives that have stereotyped them or distorted their participation they argue for recognition of their cultural participation and offer analyses of the intersections among gender race nation and sexuality Tell This Silence offers innovative ways to consider Asian American gender politics feminism and issues of immigration and language This exciting new study will be of interest to literary theorists and scholars in women's American and Asian American studies

The Power to Name H.A. Olson, 2013-12-01 In this preface I will include explanations of three factors the intended audience of this book the structure of the book and the acknowledgement of many who contributed to its fruition The Power to Name is intended for two audiences those interested in knowledge organization and those interested in theoretical study of representation These two groups come from the perspective of the structure and principles of organization and from the perspective of understanding the cultural ramifications of naming The first may be those who develop subject representation schemes for a wide range of purposes and those who apply those schemes They may be librarians information scientists web developers or knowledge managers The second group are likely to be feminist poststructural and postcolonial theorists who explore the construction of meaning It is my hope that both of these audiences will find the case of subject representation in library catalogues illuminating in a much wider sense I have tried to include a modicum of explanation for each audience while avoiding over explanation for either This approach will require some patience and some close reading from each The intellectual structure of the book is introduced in the first chapter However in a book on organization of knowledge and information it is important to also explain its internal syndetic structure I have used some somewhat unconventional approaches The book contains a fair number of manual hyperlinks references to earlier discussions of a topic in the form of see also page referrals Who's Who in Lesbian and Gay Writing Gabriele Griffin,2003-09-02 A lively and accessible guide to lesbian and gay literary culture Featuring authors of works with lesbian or gay content as well as known lesbian and gay writers it offers an invaluable guide to a rich and varied literary culture
