Policy Making In France From De Gaulle To Mitterand:

Developments in French Politics Peter A. Hall, Jack Hayward, Howard Machin, 1990-08-31 This book provides an up to date analysis of the political system and its evolution since Mitterand's election in 1981. The impact of Socialist majority and minority governments, the cohabitation programme and three separate reforms of television are all examined. France, Germany and the European Union Aparajita Endow, 2003 The 1980s and 1990s witnessed some spectacular events in Europe changing the geopolitical landscape of the continent. The EU on the other hand was progressively becoming a dominant political and economic force reaffirming its stance as the most successful example of regional integration. The fact that the Franco-German core has been the main driving force behind the EU. This book critically examines the nature and dynamics of Franco-German role in the 1990s in conditioning the scope and content of European integration. This book will be of interest to all those involved in international studies, matters of regional integration and also European Union studies. France Since 1945 Robert Gildea, 1996 The last fifty years have seen immense challenges for the French: constructing a new European order, building a modern economy, searching for a stable political system. It has also been a time of anxiety and doubt. The French have had to come to terms with the legacy of the German Occupation, the political and social implications of the influx of foreign immigrants, the destruction of traditional rural life and the threat of Anglo-American culture to French language and civilization. Robert Gildea's account examines French politics, society and culture as well as France's role in the world from 1945 to 1995. He looks at France's attempt to recover national greatness after the Second World War, its attempt to deal with the fear of German resurgence by building the European Community, the Algerian war and the later development of a neo-colonialism to preserve its influence in Africa and the Pacific. He traces the career of General de Gaulle, the revolution of 1968 and the trend towards both political consensus and political disillusionment. He also examines the rise and fall of the French intellectual, the changing cultural policy of the state and the threat of feminism, regionalism and multiculturalism to the ideal of the One and Indivisible Republic. The French Polity William Safran, 2015-10-05 Focusing on the interplay between individual and institutions, The French Polity is the most current and comprehensive text for introducing students to the changing and enduring characteristics of the French political scene. It combines historical perspective and contextual information on French society to clearly explain the evolution and health of this country's political institutions, process and culture. Throughout, William Safran, a leading area studies expert, goes beyond description to offer original analyses of French politics. Degaulle to Mitterrand Jack Hayward, 1993-06 It is generally agreed that the new style presidency is the key institution of the French Fifth Republic in that it helps to ensure the stability and effectiveness of the political system, something that France has been seeking since the Revolution of 1789. Yet paradoxically, no comprehensive study of the French presidential phenomenon exists. The accumulated experience of 1959-1991, extending over the terms of de Gaulle, Pompidou, Giscard d'Estaing and Mitterrand, begs a comparative study of their institutional and personal roles in the political process Among the subjects here considered are the pre 1958 presidency and the ways in which practice has diverged from constitutional provisions the president's relations with his staff the prime minister and government the political parties parliament and the role of the mass media Finally the president's special role in foreign and defense policy as well as his personal projects are examined Contributing to the volume are J E S Hayward Martin Harrison University of Keele Anne Stevens University of Kent Jolyon Howarth University of Bath Vincent Wright Nuffield College Oxford Jean Luc Parodi and Howard Machin London School of Economics

The Multicultural Dilemma Michelle Hale Williams, 2013 This work seeks to explore the contemporary challenge of government in multicultural societies drawing together a wide range of contributors to examine how ethnic difference could be better understood and mediated by modern nation states Divided into three sections the book centres round the notion that changing patterns of migration bring escalating obstacles to integration or assimilation In the first section contributors focus on the theory that immigrants are the actors that catalyze contemporary

Governing from the Centre Jack Ernest Shalom Hayward, Vincent Wright, 2002 Two leading authors challenge the assumption that France has a well coordinated government The constitutional political and policy frameworks of coordination are critically assessed in relation to the central actors and spending ministries as well as the formal and informal mechanisms of coordination Four case studies are examined the European Union budget privatization and immigration policy processes The book concludes with forthright findings on a fragment executive struggling to steer a disparate and partially paralyzed institutional structure The research findings offer precise cautionary recommendations to policy makers against the dangers of overconfident recourse to joined up government The findings are relevant not merely to France but generally to Western states more generally
