Proud to be Kelly Flinn, 1997 An extraordinary young woman An extraordinary controversy This is Kelly Flinn s story the one she couldn t tell when she was in uniform I fell in love with the wrong man Kelly Flinn She is the first woman to pilot a B 52 a charismatic twenty six year old from a proper Georgia family who has always distinguished herself as a fifteen year old at U S Space Camp and as a cadet at the U S Air Force Academy There she overcame considerable odds and earned a coveted position as a combat pilot But nothing prepared Lieutenant Kelly Flinn for the controversy that erupted when the military began an investigation into her relationship with Marc Zigo a man who lied to her about his marital status and then betrayed her to military authorities Flinn was forced to resign amid charges of disobeying orders charges she disputes in this poignant and powerful memoir This is the story of Flinn s love affair with flying and the love affair that ended her trailblazing Air Force career This is also the story of a determined young woman fighting for her rightful place in a military establishment run by men many of whom are not yet ready to accept a female combat pilot Flinn reveals examples of hypocrisy and sexism in the military that are by any standard infuriating She rose higher and fell harder but Kelly Flinn s story is universal and it powerfully dramatizes the fault lines between our private and professional lives With disarming candor Flinn takes us inside her world We feel her exhilaration as she soars through the sky and commands her own plane and we share her horror as the love she dreamed of turns into a nightmare and she must battle the military s sexpolice behind closed doors Kelly Flinn has been called the Hester Prynne of our time and her life has been depicted in the media as a combination of Top Gun and The Scarlet Letter In Proud to Be she speaks in her own voice determined vulnerable and all too human

Women in the United States Military Judith Bellafaire, 2011-01-26 Women s participation in the U S Armed Forces has grown over time in response to the national need for their services Throughout each era of American history patriotic women volunteered to serve their country in a wide variety of official and unofficially sanctioned capacities When there was a call to duty the United States Armed Forces always relied upon women to be a part of the effort This book provides information to enable students and scholars to understand the effect women have had on wars that have shaped the United States The Study of a Secret Society Stephanie I. M. Steinmetz,2011-05-01 This project began as an investigation into the high rate of suicide among members of the Coast Guard in comparison to other branches of the U S Armed Forces The course of research revealed Coast Guard officials chronic reluctance to disclose information about suicide Therefore the new focus of research became a comparative investigation of the Coast Guard s resistance to discussing suicide within the organization The study was conducted through interviews with a sample of Coast Guard and other military members as well as through discussion boards on the Internet Questions centered on military life experience stress depression and suicide The data suggest that members of the Coast Guard 1 initially appeared excited to participate in the study however when asked to discuss or disclose suicide related information about the Coast Guard they displayed marked signs of reluctance about their participation 2 Coast Guard members emphasized the idea of the Coast Guard being a family 3 Coast Guard members presented as the most conversational when compared with the other military branches 4 the Coast Guard has a humanitarian mission as opposed to the other four combat oriented services 5 Coast Guard s image and perception among members of the Armed Forces is unique and somewhat set apart from the other larger and more combat oriented services 6 the Coast Guard is perceived to be the toughest service to get promoted in and it is seen as the most competitive when compared to all other military branches 7 there is a differential suicide rate between the Coast Guard and the other military branches during both war and peace times The findings are analyzed using Toennies concept of Gemeinschaft versus Gesellschaft Horney s theory of neurosis Argyris theory of organizational defensive routines as well as Menninger s theory of suicide Adultery Deborah L.
