Frayn Plays: 1 Michael Frayn, 2017-01-12 One of theatre's subtlest most sophisticated minds The Times Alphabetical Order A comic essay about two types of woman a very intelligent comedy because of its classic simplicity and unusual in the way that the two types of women do not become stereotypes Daily Telegraph Donkeys Years a satire on the establishment and British Institutions Gorgeous farce all the funnier for emerging from credible aspirations and natural anxieties the play is richer and cannier than we expect farces to be New Statesman Clouds is a satire on government sponsored trips and a portrait of sexual jealousy it is poignantly and unerringly funny Guardian Make and Break is a satirical commentary on British corporate interests abroad Full of pain ruthless observation and a sense of humour which is sardonic lunatic and warm Sunday Times Noises Off the West End hit play about a company of actors stepping from a sex farce into their own nightmarish lives backstage A very intelligent joke about the fragility of all forms of drama a pulverisingly funny play Guardian All of these plays are attempts to show something of the world not to change it or to promote any particular idea of it That's not to say there are no ideas in them In fact what they are all about in one way or another is the way in which we impose our ideas

upon the world around us it might be objected that one single theme is a somewhat sparse provision to sustain five separate and dissimilar plays I can only say that it is a theme which has occupied philosophers for over two thousand years and one which is likely to occupy them for at least two thousand more Michael Frayn The Methuen Drama Book of Contemporary Japanese Plays Yuko Kuwabara, Takuya Yokoyama, Shiro Maeda, Satoko Ichihara, Tomohiro Maekawa, 2022-03-24 Published alongside The Japan Foundation this collection features five creative and bold plays by some of Japan's most prolific writers of contemporary theatre Translated into English for the first time these texts explore a wide range of themes from dystopian ideas of the future to touching domestic tragedies Brought together in one volume introduced by the authors and The Japan Foundation this collection offers English language readers an unprecedented look at some of Japan's finest works of contemporary drama by writers from across the country The plays include The Bacchae Holstein Milk Cows by Satoko Ichihara Translated by Aya Ogawa This play takes themes of the ancient Greek tragedy Bacchae by Euripides to examine various aspects of contemporary society from love and sex man and woman intermixture of different species discrimination and abuse to artificial insemination criticism of anthropocentrism and more It was the winner of the 64th Kishida Drama Award One Night by Yuko Kuwabara Translated by Mari Boyd The setting is a small taxi company run out of the home of its owner in a country town One night the mother Koharu Inamura decides to leave the home in order to protect her children from her husband's domestic violence promising them that she will come back in 15 years The play depicts the family's reunion after having to live with the burden of that one night's hitoyo incident and how they restarted their lives after it Isn't Anyone Alive by Shiro Maeda Translated by Miwa Monden This laid back absurdist work examines death through a goofy lens In the play strange urban legends abound in a university hospital where young people die one after another all with mobile phones in their hands The Sun by Tomohiro Maekawa Translated by Nozomi Abe Depicts young people torn apart in a near future setting where humanity has split into two forms Nox humans who can only go out at night and Curios the original type of humans that can live under the sun Carcass by Takuya Yokoyama Translated by Mari Boyd This play takes its name from the Japanese word for dressed carcasses of beef and pork that have been halved along the backbone for meat It deals with the dignity of being alive as seen through the lives of workers in the meat industry based on interviews and research It won the Japan Playwrights Association's 15th New Playwright Award in 2009
