

The background is a rich, classical-style painting depicting a crowded Roman scene. In the foreground, a woman in a white and red robe is being embraced or supported by others. To her right, a man in a white toga is walking. In the background, there are more figures, including a man in a white robe holding a red flag, and a large stone structure with a statue on top. The scene is set in a grand, classical building with columns and statues.
