the source of inspiration for one of the world's major religions followed today by over a billion people. It plays a central role in Islam and ever since it appeared fourteen hundred years ago has been the subject of intense debate. Some of this has been carried out by Muslims and some by those hostile or indifferent to Islam producing a very wide range of views. Authored by forty-three international experts, the objective of The Qur'an: An Encyclopedia is to present this diversity of thought approach and school without priority in order to give a strong appreciation of the range of response that the text has provoked throughout its history and providing students and researchers with a powerful one-volume resource covering all aspects of the text and its reception. Islam and the Qur'an are much in the news today and there is a public debate going on in which things are said about the Qur'an without much knowledge or understanding of the book. Every effort has been made to help the reader use the Encyclopedia as an investigative tool in Quranic studies. The volume assumes no previous knowledge of the Qur'an, Islam or Arabic. Technical terms are explained in the text itself and the style of each entry is designed to be as self-contained as possible. Entries are cross-referenced and many include a brief bibliography. At the end of the work there is a substantial annotated bibliography providing a detailed guide to the most significant books, journals and articles in Quranic Studies. There is a full index. The readership will include those seeking basic information on the Qur'an; however, the substantial number of longer entries means that it will also be used by specialists.

Holy Quran Maulana Muhammad Ali, 2011-05-02. The Holy Qur'an eBook version. English Translation and Commentary. Detailed commentary with extensive references to standard authorities, both classical and modern. Comprehensive introduction deals with Islamic teachings and the collection and arrangement of the Holy Qur'an. Extensive Index. Reviews. There is no other translation or commentary of the Holy Qur'an in the English language to compete with Maulvi Muhammad Ali's Masterpiece. Al-Haj Hafiz Ghulam Sarwar, translator of the Holy Qur'an. To deny the excellence of Maulvi Muhammad Ali's translation, the influence for good it has exercised, and its proselytizing utility, would be to deny the existence of the light of the sun. Maulana Abdul Majid Daryabadi, leader of Orthodox Muslim opinion in India, has all the merits of what is desired in a translation. The Anjuman Himayat-e-Islam, Lahore, Pakistan. By far the best text currently available in the English language; incontestably one of the finest interpretations of the sacred scripture of Islam. I have no hesitation whatsoever in recommending this translation to students and others seeking to understand the essence and epitome of the Quranic message. Prof. T. Hargery, Director, African Studies, Northeast Missouri State University, Kirksville. An austere, faithful translation in English based on a close study of commentaries of the Qur'an, the work of my learned namesake, Maulvi Muhammad Ali of Lahore. The translation and the notes all demonstrate the labour of love and devoted zeal. Late Maulana Muhammad Ali Jauhar of The Comrade. It is certainly a work of which any scholar might legitimately be proud. The Quest, London.

Qur'anic Hermeneutics Abdulla Galadari, 2018-08-09 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com Qur'anic Hermeneutics argues for the importance of understanding the polysemous nature of the words in the Qur'an and outlines a new method of Qur'anic exegesis called intertextual polysemy By interweaving science history and religious studies Abdulla Galadari introduces a linguistic approach which draws on neuropsychology This book features examples of intertextual polysemy within the Qur'an as well as between the Qur'an and the Bible. It provides examples that intimately engage with Christological concepts of the Gospels in addition to examples of allegorical interpretation through inner Qur'anic allusions. Galadari reveals how new creative insights are possible and argues that the Qur'an did not come to denounce the Gospel which is one of the stumbling blocks between Islam and Christianity but only to interpret it in its own words. The Oxford Handbook of Qur'anic Studies, 2020-04-28. Traditionally revered as the literal word of God, the Qur'an serves as Islam's sacred book of revelation. Accordingly, its statements and pronouncements rest at the core of the beliefs and teachings that have inexorably defined expressions of the Islamic faith. Indeed, over the centuries, engaging with and poring over the contents of the Qur'an inspired an impressive range of traditional scholarship. Notwithstanding its religious pre-eminence, the Qur'an is also considered to be the matchless masterpiece of the Arabic language, and its impact as a text can be discerned in all aspects of the Arabic literary tradition. Presenting contributions from leading experts in the field, The Oxford Handbook of Qur'anic Studies offers an authoritative collection of chapters that guide readers through the gamut of themes, subjects, and debates that have dominated the academic study of the Qur'an and its literary heritage. These range from chapters that explore the text's language, vocabulary, style, and structure to detailed surveys of its contents, concepts, transmission, literary influence, historical significance, commentary tradition, and even the scholarship devoted to translations. With the aim of serving as an indispensable reference resource, the Handbook assesses the implications of research discourses and discussions shaping the study of the Qur'an today. There exists no single volume devoted to such a broad review of the scholarship on the Qur'an and its rich commentary tradition. The Literary Qur'an Hoda El Shakry, 2019-12-03. Winner 2020 Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Comparative Literary Studies. Modern Language Association. The novel, the literary adage has it, reflects a world abandoned by God. Yet the possibilities of novelistic form and literary exegesis exceed the secularizing tendencies of contemporary literary criticism. Showing how the Qur'an itself invites and enacts critical reading, Hoda El Shakry's Qur'anic model of narratology enriches our understanding of literary sensibilities and practices in the Maghreb across Arabophone and Francophone traditions. The Literary Qur'an mobilizes the Qur'an's formal narrative and rhetorical qualities alongside embodied and hermeneutical forms of Qur'anic pedagogy to theorize modern Maghrebi literature. Challenging the canonization of secular modes of reading that occlude religious epistemes, practices, and intertexts, it attends to literature as a site where the process of entextualization obscures ethical imperatives. Engaging with the Arab-Islamic tradition of adab, a concept demarcating the genre of belles lettres as well as social and moral comportment, El Shakry demonstrates how the critical pursuit of knowledge is inseparable from the spiritual cultivation of the self. Foregrounding form and praxis alike, The Literary Qur'an stages a series of pairings that invite paratactic readings across texts, languages, and literary canons. The book places twentieth-century novels by canonical Francophone writers, Abdelwahab Meddeb, Assia Djebar, Driss Chraïbi, into conversation with lesser-known Arabophone ones.
