R. E. LEE

A Biography

VOLUME I

Douglas Southall Freeman

When this four-volume biography was first published in 1934-35, the world was made instantly aware that this was one of the classics of American history. "It is a great book, made in the grand manner," declared the London Observer. "Freeman's biography is great because in spirit and in blood he also has marched with Lee," commented William Allen White. Lloyd Lewis admitted that "I found my eyes pretty wet after his pictures of Gettysburg." And Stephen Vincent Benét summed it all up by saying that "there is a monument—and a fine one—to Robert E. Lee at Lexington. But this one, I think, will last as long."

This biography won the Pulitzer Prize in 1934.
