Race For Theory And The Biophobia Hypothesis:

Race for Theory and the Biophobia Hypothesis Melvin D. Williams, 1998 Race and those other socially divisive creations concepts tropes ideologies and behaviors that have enabled human beings to dominate Earth and other species are now obsolete because of weapons technology and internationalism The big brained animal must transform and transcend his or her culture with the Ecological Revolution or become extinct The production and reproduction of social inferiority is maladaptive in a global village Status superiority and inferiority threaten the human race Human beings can no longer deny defy and defile their animal kinship in their own endless search for security If human beings fail to change they may leave the Earth to other social animals who have evolved better paradigms of social cooperation and ecological fitness

Eco-Concepts Cenk Tan, ISMAIL Serdar Altaç, 2024-04-15 Eco Concepts Critical Reflections in Emerging Ecocritical Theory and Ecological Thought offers an intellectual journey through the ever evolving landscapes of environmental discourse This thought provoking volume brings together contributors from international scholarship to scrutinize and illuminate the contemporary trends reshaping our understanding of the natural environment From the intricate interplay of rising ecocritical theories like restoration and empirical ecocriticism to the nuanced shifts in the reimagining of ecological concepts this book unravels the complexities of our relationship with the natural sphere This scholarly collection serves as a compass guiding readers through the uncharted territories of environmental scholarship or revisiting existing study through fresh critical perspectives Eco Concepts strives to become an essential source of reference for academics students and individuals seeking an in depth exploration of the innovative notions influencing the trajectory of discussions on ecology

Toward an Integrated Science of Wellbeing Elizabeth Rieger, Robert Costanza, Ida Kubiszewski, Paul Dugdale, 2023 There has always been interest in understanding what constitutes the good life Starting with early philosophical writings sustainable wellbeing at multiple scales from physical and psychological health through to the societal and environmental has been a fundamental goal Much has been written at each of these scales from the perspectives of psychology medicine economics social science ecology and political science However their interconnections have received far less attention even though the identification of these interdependencies is critical to the comprehensive understanding and advancement of wellbeing Multicultural Literature for Latino Bilingual Children Ellen Riojas Clark, Belinda Bustos Flores, Daniel Alejandro González, 2025-09-18 Multicultural Literature for Latino Bilingual Children Their Words Their Worlds 2nd Edition makes a needed contribution to the field of children s literature by addressing the social cultural academic and linguistic needs of bilingual learners who continue to be underserved through current school practices This 2nd edition presents a balance of theory research and practice The authors conceptualize different forms of social knowledge that can serve as cultural resources for acquiring knowledge and transforming self and identity This volume creates a heightened awareness of the cultural and linguistic capital held by the Latino community The design of critical pedagogical practices enhances Latino students academic cultural and social capital Unique in this volume is the artwork that reflects the experiences of the Latino community

Psychological Development Quillin Woods, 2019-06-09 Psychological Development is the scientific study of how and why human beings change over the course of their life Originally concerned with infants and children the field has expanded to include adolescence adult development aging and the entire lifespan This field examines change across three major dimensions physical development cognitive development and socioemotional development Within these three dimensions are a broad range of topics including motor skills executive functions moral understanding language acquisition social change personality emotional development self concept and identity formation In this book the area of discussion and analysis has been delimited to physiological and psychological areas so as to give a deeper treatment to the subject It is hoped that the book will find a wider acceptance among teachers and researchers The book is of interest to the researchers and students of psychology sociology child development family studies and professionals interested in related fields

The Three Levels of Sustainability Elena Cavagnaro, George H. Curiel, 2022-08-08 Understanding the complexity of sustainability is crucial for the leadership of business organizations national governments and non governmental organizations This second edition of the bestselling book The Three Levels of Sustainability uses the same interdependent three level and three dimensional framework as the first edition encompassing societal organizational and individual levels to clearly demonstrate what sustainability means and how to implement it This new edition incorporates important developments in reporting and measuring corporate behaviors the impact of COVID 19 and the UN Sustainable Development Goals More and more societies are becoming aware of their dependence on earth s resources However there is still a deep rooted lack of awareness of the connection between society s ambitions for economic growth earth s limitations and unequal distribution of wealth Prominent institutions and organizations and their leaders rely on the conformable belief that more quantity equals more quality and that more growth equals more development Although some progress has been made since the publication of the first edition the world is increasingly characterized by division rising dissatisfaction and growing inequality between countries communities and people At the same time it is anticipated that global warming will reach a point of no return between 2030 and 2052 The fundamental paradigm shift in the way the development process must be navigated is better served by a holistic and inclusive multilevel and multidimensional approach meant to gradually align the critical institutional and individual factors essential to the pathway toward sustainable development The book has been established as an excellent primer to explain the complex issues around sustainability for postgraduate and undergraduate students as well as busy professionals and those already in management and leadership positions in the private public or non profit sectors

Writing for an Endangered World Lawrence Buell, 2009-07-01 The environmental imagination does not stop short at the edge of the woods Nor should our understanding of it as Lawrence Buell makes powerfully clear in his new book that aims to reshape the field of literature and environmental studies Emphasizing the influence of the physical environment on individual and collective perception his book thus provides the theoretical underpinnings for an ecocriticism now reaching full power and does so in remarkably clear and concrete ways Writing for an Endangered World offers a conception of the physical environment whether built or natural as simultaneously found and constructed and treats imaginative representations of it as acts of both discovery and invention A number of the chapters develop this idea through parallel studies of figures identified with either natural or urban settings John Muir and Jane Addams Aldo Leopold and William Faulkner Robinson Jeffers and Theodore Dreiser Wendell Berry and Gwendolyn Brooks Focusing on nineteenth and twentieth century writers but ranging freely across national borders his book reimagines city and country as a single complex landscape

Religious Affects Donovan O. Schaefer, 2015-11-13 In Religious Affects Donovan O Schaefer challenges the notion that religion is inextricably linked to language and belief proposing instead that it is primarily driven by affects Drawing on affect theory evolutionary biology and poststructuralist theory Schaefer builds on the recent materialist shift in religious studies to relocate religious practices in the affective realm an insight that helps us better understand how religion is lived in conjunction with systems of power To demonstrate religion's animality and how it works affectively Schaefer turns to a series of case studies including the documentary Jesus Camp and contemporary American Islamophobia Placing affect theory in conversation with post

Darwinian evolutionary theory Schaefer explores the extent to which nonhuman animals have the capacity to practice religion linking human forms of religion and power through a new analysis of the chimpanzee waterfall dance as observed by Jane Goodall In this compelling case for the use of affect theory in religious studies Schaefer provides a new model for mapping relations between religion politics species globalization secularism race and ethics Routledge Handbook of Ecotourism David A. Fennell, 2021-09-21 This handbook presents a timely broad ranging and provocative overview of the essential nature of ecotourism The chapters will both advance the existing central themes of ecotourism and provide challenging and divergent observations that will thrust ecotourism into new areas of research policy and practice The volume is arranged around four key themes sustainability ethics and identity change conflict and consumption and environment and learning with a total of 28 chapters The first section focuses on sustainability as a core ecotourism criterion with a primary focus on some of the macro sustainability issues that have an impact on ecotourism Foremost among these topics is the linkage to the UN s Sustainable Development Goals which have relevance to ecotourism as one of the greenest or most responsible forms of tourism The chapters in the second section provide a range of different topics that pull ecotourism research into new directions including a chapter on enriching indigenous ecotourism through culturally sensitive universalism The third section includes chapters on topics ranging from persons with disabilities as a neglected body of research in ecotourism to ecotourism as a form of luxury consumption The final section emphasises the link between ecotourism and learning about the natural world including a deeply theoretical chapter on rewilding Europe With contributions from authors around the world this handbook gives a global platform to local voices in both developed and emerging country contexts The multidisciplinary and international Routledge Handbook of Ecotourism will be of great interest to researchers students and practitioners working in tourism and sustainability Making Sense of Beliefs and Values Craig N. Shealy, 2015-12-18 Social psychologists have studied beliefs and values and related constructs such as attitudes and prejudice for decades But as this innovative and interdisciplinary book convincingly demonstrates the scientific examination of beliefs and values now influences research and practice across a range of disciplines Specifically this edited volume explores the many cutting edge implications and applications of Equilintegration or EI Theory and the Beliefs Events and Values Inventory BEVI Grounded in twenty years of research and practice EI Theory seeks to explain the processes by which beliefs values and worldviews are acquired and maintained why their alteration is resisted and under what circumstances they are modified Based upon EI Theory the BEVI is a comprehensive analytic tool which examines how and why we come to see ourselves others and the larger world as we do as well as the influence of such processes on multiple aspects of human functioning Edited by the developer of the EI model and BEVI method and informed by contributions from leading U S and international scholars this book features captivating research findings and pioneering practice applications Research focused chapters explain how the EI model and BEVI method increase our conceptual sophistication and methodological capacity across a range of areas Culture Development Environment Gender Personality Politics and Religion Practice oriented chapters demonstrate how the BEVI is used in the real world across a range of applied domains Assessment Education Forensics Leadership and Psychotherapy Written in an accessible and engaging manner this fascinating and timely volume speaks to many of the most pressing issues of our day by illuminating why we believe what we believe and demonstrating how our beliefs and values may be assessed explained and transformed in the real world

Beyond the Human-Animal Divide Dominik Ohrem, Roman Bartosch, 2017-11-21 This volume explores the potential of the concept of the creaturely for thinking and writing beyond the idea of a clear cut human animal divide presenting innovative perspectives and narratives for an age which increasingly confronts us with the profound ecological ethical and political challenges of a multispecies world The text explores written work such as Samuel Beckett's Worstward Ho and Michel Foucault's The Order of Things video media such as the film Creature Comforts and the video game Into the Dead and photography With chapters written by an international group of philosophers literary and cultural studies scholars historians and others the volume brings together established experts and forward thinking early career scholars to provide an interdisciplinary engagement with ways of thinking and writing the creaturely to establish a postanthropocentric sense of human animal relationality

21st Century Psychology: A Reference Handbook Stephen F. Davis, William Buskist, 2008 Highlights the most important topics issues questions and debates in the field of psychology Provides material of interest for students from all corners of psychological studies whether their interests be in the biological cognitive developmental social or clinical arenas Identity and the Natural Environment Susan Clayton,2003-11-07 The often impassioned nature of environmental conflicts can be attributed to the fact that they are bound up with our sense of personal and social identity Environmental identity how we orient ourselves to the natural world leads us to personalize abstract global issues and take action or not according to our sense of who we are We may know about the greenhouse effect but can we give up our SUV for a more fuel efficient car Understanding this psychological connection can lead to more effective pro environmental policymaking Identity and the Natural Environment examines the ways in which our sense of who we are affects our relationship with nature and vice versa This book brings together cutting edge work on the topic of identity and the environment sampling the variety and energy of this emerging field but also placing it within a descriptive framework These theory based empirical studies locate environmental identity on a continuum of social influence and the book is divided into three sections reflecting minimal moderate or strong social influence Throughout the contributors focus on the interplay between social and environmental forces as one local activist says We don't know if we're organizing communities to plant trees or planting trees to organize communities Literature as Cultural Ecology Hubert Zapf,2016-04-21 Drawing on the latest debates in ecocritical theory and sustainability studies Literature as Cultural Ecology Sustainable Texts outlines a new approach to the reading of literary texts Hubert Zapf considers the ways in which literature operates as a form of cultural ecology using language imagination and critique to challenge and transform cultural narratives of humanity's relationship to nature In this way the book demonstrates the important role that literature plays in creating a more sustainable way of life Applying this approach to works by writers such as Emily Dickinson Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville William Faulkner Toni Morrison Zakes Mda and Amitav Ghosh Literature as Cultural Ecology is an essential contribution to the contemporary environmental humanities The Animals Among Us John Bradshaw,2017-10-31 A leading anthrozoologist and the bestselling author of Dog Sense and Cat Sense explains why we are so drawn to pets Historically we relied on our pets to herd livestock guard homes and catch pests But most of us don't need animals to do these things anymore Pets have never been less necessary And yet pet ownership has never been more common than it is today half of American households contain a cat a dog or both Why are pets still around In The Animals Among Us John Bradshaw one of the world's leading authorities on the relationship between humans and animals argues that pet ownership is actually an intrinsic part of human nature He explains how our empathy with animals evolved into a desire for pets why we still welcome them into our families and why we mourn them so deeply when they die Drawing on the latest research in biology and psychology as well as fields as diverse as robotics and musicology The Animals Among Us is a surprising and affectionate history of humanity's best friends Healing America's Cities ,1994 The Song of the Earth Jonathan Bate,2000-09-18 In the first ecological reading of English literature Jonathan Bate traces the distinctions

among nature culture and environment and shows how their meanings have changed since their appearance in the literature of the eighteenth century
