Race Religion:

Race, Religion, and the Continuing American Dilemma C. Eric Lincoln, 1999-05-17 A classic work on religion and the racial problems of modern America now brought up to date Since the early days of the Republic Americans exuberant unchastened idealism their commitment to the notion of a perfect society in the New World has clashed with the reality of ugly American society and religious groups have all too often accommodated themselves to these injustices In Race Religion and the Continuing American Dilemma C Eric Lincoln reevaluates what Gunnar Myrdal called the American dilemma and studies particularly the influence of the black church This revised edition takes into account the weakening of welfare and affirmative action and argues that the black church must serve today as a vital moral authority to lead us in to the twenty first century

Race, Religion, Region Fay Botham, Sara M. Patterson, 2006-09-15 Racial and religious groups have played a key role in shaping the American West yet scholars have for the most part ignored how race and religion have influenced regional identity In this collection eleven contributors explore the intersections of race religion and region to show how they transformed the West From the Punjabi Mexican Americans of California to the European American shamans of Arizona to the Mexican Chinese of the borderlands historical meanings of race in the American West are complex and are further complicated by religious identities This book moves beyond familiar stereotypes to achieve a more nuanced understanding of race while also showing how ethnicity formed in conjunction with religious and regional identity The chapters demonstrate how religion shaped cultural encounters contributed to the construction of racial identities and served as a motivating factor in the lives of historical actors The opening chapters document how religion fostered community in Los Angeles in the first half of the twentieth century The second section examines how physical encounters such as those involving Chinese immigrants Hermanos Penitentes and Pueblo dancers shaped religious and racial encounters in the West The final essays investigate racial and religious identity among the Latter day Saints and southern California Muslims As these contributions clearly show race religion and region are as critical as gender sexuality and class in understanding the melting pot that is the West By depicting the West as a unique site for understanding race and religion they open a new window on how we view all of America

Ethnicity, Race, Religion Katherine M. Hockey, David G. Horrell, 2018-06-28 This book is open access and available on www.bloomsburycollections.com It is funded by Knowledge Unlatched Religion ethnicity and race are facets of human identity that have become increasingly contested in the study of the Bible largely due to the modern discipline of biblical studies having developed in the context of Western Europe concurrent with the emergence of various racial and imperial ideologies The essays in this volume address Western domination by focusing on historical facets of ethnicity and race in antiquity the identities of Jews and Christians and the critique of scholarly ideologies and racial assumptions which have shaped this branch of study The contributors critique various Western European and North American contexts and bring fresh perspectives from other global contexts providing insights into how biblical studies can escape its enmeshment in often racist notions of ethnicity race empire nationhood and religion Covering issues ranging from translation and racial stereotyping to analysing the significance of race in Genesis and the problems of an imperialist perspective this volume is vital not only for biblical scholars but those invested in Christian Jewish and Muslim identity Race, Religion & Muslim Identity in Britain Muhammad Abdul Bari, 2004 This timely book offers incisive and comprehensive analysis of faith as a cornerstone of identity With the rapid transformation within the Muslim community over the last few decades many young people are now finding it difficult to navigate between the demands of their religion on one side and social pressure on the other Working with them and addressing the issues pertinent to their daily life is challenging to say the least This book is the outcome of Dr Bari s long term involvement with the young Muslims of London through his voluntary and professional work This has put him on a continuous learning curve in assessing his personal situation as well The foremost issue facing a young Muslim is of course one of identity which the author has tried to address through the lens of Islamic principles Race, Religion, and Politics Stephanie Y. Mitchem, 2018-09-06 This book examines race religion and politics in the United States illuminating their intersections and what they reveal about power and privilege Drawing on both historic and recent examples Stephanie Mitchem introduces readers to the ways race has been constructed in the United States discusses how race and religion influence each other and assesses how they shape political influence Mitchem concludes with a chapter looking toward possibilities for increased rights and justice for all Nation, Race, Religion Tomas Poletti Lundström, 2025-05-08 In this book Tomas Poletti Lundström unveils how religion is tightly woven into the political fabric of radical nationalism He offers the first comprehensive historical analysis of the Sweden Democrats while also providing an in depth examination of the Nordic Resistance Movement Swedish identitarian nationalists and evangelical supremacists From Viking discourse and Lutheran nationalism to Pentecostal revivalism Poletti Lundström explores how religious ideas lie at the heart of Swedish radical nationalism Drawing on archival studies digital ethnography and corpus linguistics he examines how radical nationalists construe and reinterpret the concept of religion By tracing the history and global influence of key Swedish actors Poletti Lundström reveals how their versions of radical nationalism resonate with authoritarian politics worldwide This interdisciplinary study is essential reading for scholars and general audiences interested in religious extremism political nationalism and the global dynamics of the far right Race, Religion, and Late Democracy John L. Race, Religion & Racism: Jesus, Christianity & Islam Frederick K. C. Price, 1999 A full two years before the September 11 2001 plane crashes pulverized New York s World Trade Center before Osama Bin Laden s name became a household word and before the country ever strained to sort out the issue of muslim aggresion this book was on its way

Religion and the Creation of Race and Ethnicity Craig R. Prentiss, 2003-06 This volume meant specifically for those new to the field brings together an ensemble of prominent scholars and illuminates the role religious myths have played in shaping those social boundaries that we call races and ethnicities

Race, Religion, and the 'Indian Muslim' Predicament in Singapore Torsten Tschacher, 2017-11-10 Indian Muslims form the largest ethnic minority within Singapore s otherwise largely Malay Muslim community Despite its size and historic importance however Singaporean Indian Muslims have received little attention by scholarship and have also felt side lined by Singapore s Malay dominated Muslim institutions Since the 1980s demands for a better representation of Indian Muslims and access to religious services have intensified while there has been a concomitant debate over who has the right to speak for Indian Muslims This book traces the negotiations and contestations over Indian Muslim difference in Singapore and examines the conditions that have given rise to these debates Despite considerable differences existing within the putative Indian Muslim community the way this community is imagined is surprisingly uniform Through discussions of the importance of ethnic difference for social and religious divisions among Singaporean Indian Muslims the role of culture and race in debates about popular religion the invocation of language and history in negotiations with the wider Malay Muslim context and the institutional setting in which contestations of Indian Muslim difference take place this book argues that these debates emerge from the structural tensions resulting from the intersection of race and religion in the public organization of Islam in Singapore

Race, Religion, Royalty in Malaysia Kumaran Rajandran, Siti Nurnadilla Mohamad Jamil, 2025-08-30 This edited volume conducts linguistic and literary analyses of the discourse involving race religion and royalty 3R in Malaysia Grounded in Discourse Studies it reveals the language features and strategies that articulate the vitality of 3R in historical and contemporary texts in English and Malay The chapters employ language based approaches to generate empirical explanations on 3R in multiple contexts This volume is of interest to scholars advanced undergraduate students and graduate students in Language Linguistics and Literature to understand the discursive contours of race religion and royalty in Asia

When Race, Religion, and Sport Collide Darron T. Smith, 2015-10-30 When Race Religion and Sport Collide tells the story of Brandon Davies dismissal from Brigham Young University s NCAA playoff basketball team to illustrate the thorny intersection of religion race and sport at BYU and beyond Author Darron T Smith analyzes the athletes dismissed through BYU's honor code violations and suggests that they are disproportionately African American which has troubling implications. He ties these dismissals to the complicated history of negative views towards African Americans in the LDS faith. These honor code dismissals elucidate the challenges facing black athletes at predominantly white institutions. Weaving together the history of the black athlete in America and the experience of blackness in Mormon theology, When Race, Religion and Sport Collide offers a timely and powerful analysis of the challenges facing African American athletes in the NCAA today.

Religion, Gender and Race in Western European Arts and Culture Nella van den Brandt, 2024-02-26. This book examines narratives of individual religious transformation in Western European literature and culture. Religious individuals, themes, experiences, and communities are widely represented in diverse literature and culture, including literary texts and visual arts and media. Taking the subject of religious transformation as an angle from which to study constructions of religion, gender, and race, this book reveals through various case studies what authors, documentary makers, film makers, and playwrights consider to be important possible shifts between the old and the new, continuities and discontinuities, and the formation of the self. The chapters demonstrate how individual religious transformations are understood to be shaped by various intersections of difference and point at the need to consider gender as always related to and co-constructing religion and race. This transdisciplinary and intimate study provides a fresh lens through which to examine pressing questions regarding the place and future of religion, gender, and race in contemporary Western Europe. Handbook of Religion and Society David Yamane, 2016-07-15. The Handbook of Religion and Society is the most comprehensive and up-to-date treatment of a vital force in the world today. It is an indispensable resource for scholars, students, policy makers, and other professionals seeking to understand the role of religion in society. This includes both the social forces that shape religion and the social consequences of religion. This handbook captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field and shows readers important future directions for scholarship. Among the emerging topics covered in the handbook are biological functioning, organizational innovation, digital religion, spirituality, atheism, and transnationalism. The relationship of religion to other significant social institutions like work and entrepreneurship, science, and sport is also analyzed. Specific attention is paid where appropriate to international issues as well as to race, class, sexuality, and gender differences. This handbook includes 27 chapters by a distinguished, diverse, and international collection of experts organized into 6 major sections: religion and social institutions, religious organization, family life, course and individual change, difference and inequality, political and legal processes, and globalization and transnationalism.

How Long This Road A. Pollard, L. Whelchel, 2003-11-07. In light of the recent death of C. Eric Lincoln, the renowned theorist of race and religion, scholars came together and created this compelling collection that represents twenty years of critical intellectual reflection in Lincoln's honor. How Long This Road is a social study of African American religious patterns and dynamics C Eric Lincoln's principle concern with the racial factor in American social and religious life expands in these pages to include such correlative factors as gender the African Diaspora and social class How Long this Road is an impressive work that is bound to become a classic in religion and sociology courses church studies and African American studies Faith and Race in American Political Life Robin Dale Jacobson, Nancy D. Wadsworth, 2012-02-02 Drawing on scholarship from an array of disciplines this volume provides a deep and timely look at the intertwining of race and religion in American politics The contributors apply the methods of intersectionality but where this approach has typically considered race class and gender the essays collected here focus on religion too to offer a theoretically robust conceptualization of how these elements intersect and how they are actively impacting the political process Contributors Antony W Alumkal Iliff School of Theology Carlos Figueroa University of Texas at Brownsville Robert D Francis Lutheran Services in America Susan M Gordon independent scholar Edwin I Hernandez DeVos Family Foundations Robin Dale Jacobson University of Puget Sound Robert P Jones Public Religion Research Institute Jonathan I Leib Old Dominion University Jessica Hamar Mart nez University of Arizona Eric Michael Mazur Virginia Wesleyan College Sangay Mishra University of Southern California Catherine Paden Simmons College Milagros Peña University of Florida Tobin Miller Shearer University of Montana Nancy D Wadsworth University of Denver Gerald R Webster University of Wyoming God and Race in American Politics Mark A. Noll, 2008 A critical analysis of the explosive political effects of the religious intermingling with race reveals the profound role of religion in American political history and in the American discourse on race and social justice This Side of Heaven Robert J. Priest, Alvaro L. Nieves, 2006-12-07 In recent years Christian scholars have become increasingly aware of their responsibility to recognize and respond to the challenges posed by ethnic and racial diversity Similarly historically white Christian colleges universities seminaries and congregations are struggling to transform themselves into communities that are welcoming to minorities and sensitive to their needs This collection of all new essays is meant to enable those who are engaged in these initiatives to understand the historical linkage of race ethnicity and Christianity and to explore the ways in which constructive change can be achieved The volume is the product of a long term study funded by the Wabash Center for Teaching and Learning in Theology In the course of this study it emerged that many Christian institutions now offer courses on race and ethnicity but that there is very little relevant literature written from the standpoint of rigorous Christian scholarship This book is intended to fill that gap The authors address such questions as What has been the history of Christian churches and leaders in relation to slavery segregation and apartheid Which biblical texts and doctrines have historically been employed on behalf of racial projects and which are relevant to the racial and ethnic crises of our day How have religious leaders constructively engaged such crises How do congregations shape the values civic commitments understandings and sensitivities of their membership How can local congregations be sites for racial reconciliation and justice initiatives Are there positive models for how churches and other religious institutions have helped to bring healing to racial and ethnic tensions and divides How might Christians in the professions work to bring justice to business education government and other areas of society When good intentions fail to accomplish desired ends how do we analyze what went wrong Written by an interracial and interethnic team of scholars representing diverse disciplines this book will meet a pressing need and set a new standard for the discussion of race and ethnicity in the Christian context Divided by Faith Michael O. Emerson, Christian Smith, 2000 In recent years the leaders of the American evangelical movement have brought their characteristic passion to the problem of race notably in the Promise Keepers movement and in reconciliation theology But the authors of this provocative new study reveal that despite their good intentions evangelicals may actually be preserving America's racial chasm In Divided by Faith Michael O. Emerson and Christian Smith probe the grassroots of white evangelical America through a nationwide telephone survey of 2,000 people along with 200 face-to-face interviews The results of their research are surprising Most white evangelicals they learned see no systematic discrimination against blacks indeed they deny the existence of any ongoing racial problem in the United States Many of their subjects blamed the continuing talk of racial conflict on the media unscrupulous black leaders and the inability of African Americans to forget the past What lies behind this perception Evangelicals Emerson and Smith write are not so much actively racist as committed to a theological view of the world that makes it difficult for them to see systematic injustice The evangelical emphasis on individualism free will and personal relationships makes invisible the pervasive injustice that perpetuates inequality between the races Most racial problems they told the authors can be solved by the repentance and conversion of the sinful individuals at fault Combining a substantial body of evidence with sophisticated analysis and interpretation Emerson and Smith throw sharp light on the oldest American dilemma Despite the best intentions of evangelical leaders and some positive trends the authors conclude that real racial reconciliation remains far over the horizon The Racial Muslim Sahar F. Aziz, 2021-11-30 Why does a country with religious liberty enmeshed in its legal and social structures produce such overt prejudice and discrimination against Muslims Sahar Aziz's groundbreaking book demonstrates how race and religion intersect to create what she calls the Racial Muslim Comparing discrimination against immigrant Muslims with the prejudicial treatment of Jews Catholics Mormons and African American Muslims during the twentieth century Aziz explores the gap between America's aspiration for and fulfillment of religious freedom With America's demographics rapidly changing from a majority white Protestant nation to a multiracial multireligious society this book is an indispensable read for understanding how our past continues to shape our present to the detriment of our nation's future
