Darden, Norah F. Henry, 2010-09-01 Offers important new perspectives on the African diaspora in North America Drawing on the work of social scientists from geographic historical sociological and political science perspectives this volume offers new perspectives on the African diaspora in the United States and Canada It has been approximately four centuries since the first Africans set foot in North America and although it is impossible for any text to capture the complete Black experience on the continent the persistent legacy of Black inequality and the winds of dramatic change are inseparable parts of the current African diaspora experience In addition to comparing and contrasting the experiences and geographic patterns of the African diaspora in the United States and Canada the book also explores important distinctions between the experiences of African Americans and those of more recent African and Afro Caribbean immigrants Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D.

Cummins, 2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world Language and Literacy Development Linda I.
