Race Housing And Social Excellence:

Crossing the Class and Color Lines Leonard S. Rubinowitz, James E. Rosenbaum, 2002-04-15 Thousands of low income African Americans mostly women and children began in 1976 to move out of Chicago's notorious public housing developments to its mostly white middle class suburbs They were part of the Gautreaux program one of the largest court ordered desegregation efforts in the country's history Named for the Chicago activist Dorothy Gautreaux the program formally ended in 1998 but is destined to play a vital role in national housing policy in years to come In this book Leonard Rubinowitz and James Rosenbaum tell the story of this unique experiment in racial social and economic integration and examine the factors involved in implementing and sustaining mobility based programs Today with vouchers replacing public housing the Gautreaux success story with its strong legacy is the most valuable record of the possibilities for poor people to enhance their life chances by relocating to places where opportunities are greater Book Jacket

Social Housing and Urban Renewal Paul Watt, Peer Smets, 2017-08-15 Contemporary urban renewal is the subject of intense academic and policy debate regarding whether it promotes social mixing and spatial justice or instead enhances neoliberal privatization and state led gentrification This book offers a cross national perspective on contemporary urban renewal in relation to social rental housing

Understanding 'race' and ethnicity Craig, Gary, Atkin, Karl, 2012-02-22 Many welfare states are now struggling to deal with the issues and tensions raised by the growth of minority ethnic populations and increasing ethnic diversity The fact that most societies in the developed world are now multicultural raises many challenges for policy and for the delivery of welfare services which most states have yet to address retreating into forms of institutional racism to deny minorities the services they need Using the UK as an exemplary case study this much needed book combines historical and theoretical approaches to the issue of race and ethnicity within welfare provision including an examination of how minorities experience welfare in a range of service settings The book inspires new ways of approaching welfare and social policy in anticipation of a society that is equal inclusive fair and just for all and will make essential reading for students researchers practitioners and policy makers

Race, Ethnicity, and Social Change John Stone, 1977

The Legacy of Charles W. Mills and The Racial Contract in Educational Justice Cheryl E. Matias, 2024-11-25 Race is everywhere and pretending not to see it only does more damage than good This book delves into the work of Charles Mills and how his underlying philosophies of race still play out in today's economic educational political and sociological arena Charles Mills left a legacy of philosophical racial analyses needed to better understand race racism whiteness and white supremacy worldwide From the Racial Contract to global issues of colonial whiteness and epistemological racial ignorance Mills theories still resonate in the research that race scholars conduct today Needless to say despite his passing Charles work lives on To honour Mills scholarship this book draws on interdisciplinary studies e.g. sociology political science Black studies and education to excavate the racial landscape of the U.S. post Trump Anti CRT bans BLM and global racial reckonings Within this volume prominent scholars of race worldwide and from a variety of disciplines discuss Mills theories as applied to contemporary discourses of race whilst also offering very personal vignettes that best illuminate who Charles was to us all Essentially the man behind the theories Filled with both deep theoretical analyses and personal stories of Charles this book will liven the spirits hearts and hope for racial justice and those who work endlessly towards it This book is a key resource for scholars researchers and practitioners in the fields of education sociology political science racial and ethnic studies development studies and philosophy It was originally published as a special issue of the journal Race Ethnicity and Education Race and the University George Henderson,2012-10-11 In 1967 George Henderson the son of uneducated Alabama sharecroppers accepted a full time professorship at the University of Oklahoma despite his mentor s warning to avoid the redneck school in a backward state Henderson became the university s third African American professor a hire that seemed to suggest the dissolving of racial divides However when real estate agents in the university town of Norman denied the Henderson family their first three choices of homes the sociologist and educator realized he still faced some formidable challenges In this stirring memoir Henderson recounts his formative years at the University of Oklahoma during the late 1960s and early 1970s He describes in graphic detail the obstacles that he and other African Americans faced within the university community a place of white privilege black separatism and campus wide indifference to bigotry As an adviser and mentor to young black students who wanted to do something about these conditions Henderson found himself at the forefront of collective efforts to improve race relations at the university Henderson is quick to acknowledge that he and his fellow activists did not abolish all vestiges of racial oppression But they set in motion a host of institutional changes that continue to this day In Henderson s words we were ordinary people who sometimes did extraordinary things Capturing what was perhaps the most tumultuous era in the history of American higher education Race and the University includes valuable recollections of former student activists who helped transform the University of Oklahoma into one of the nation s most diverse college campuses

Political Conflicts of True and Real Interests Joseph R. Washington,1988 This work analyzes race ethnic specific Gentile and Semite rationalizations of anti Black race values as no vice and nothing but a virtue of necessity and examines the future power and consequences of these color caste class moral certainties The author evaluates these Old New Right realities produced by sacred and secular realists and pragmatists and promoted in the civil sector as national virtues Beginning with governor John Winthrop and his theologian John Cotton and ending with Ronald Reagan and his theologian Jerry Falwell Washington explores the historic and current relevance of these two varieties of Evangelical Calvinist Moral Majority types and their relation to the conflict or competition between Martin Luther King Jr and Malcolm X Lyndon and Andrew Johnson and Andrew and Jesse Jackson as the background for an in depth examination of the Jesse Jackson presidential candidacy Social Equity in the Public Administration Classroom Michaela E. Abbott,Bruce D. McDonald III,William Hatcher,2023-05-22 This compelling book explores the dimensions of social equity by asking the leading equity scholars to reflect on the responsibility for social equity and how equity can be achieved Social equity is concerned with fairness in the development and administration of public policies Despite its importance there has always been an uneasiness in how equity is discussed and obtained While we acknowledge that social equity is important we have struggled in our efforts to achieve it The inequities in our society and the lack of a concerted effort to address the problems have only become prominent due to the COVID 19 Pandemic and the Black Lives Matter Movement Each of the chapters in this volume pays particular attention to how social equity can be effectively incorporated into the classroom This book is a rare opportunity to shape the conversation about social equity and provide a venue for dialogue around the questions of what why and how we teach about equity This book is an insightful resource for researchers and scholars of Politics and Public Administration The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Public Affairs Education
